NEWS AND EDITORIAL COMMENT.

The Cleveland boom still booms, and it looks now like he will be nominated on the first ballot.

The Democratic State convention convenes in Raleigh, May 13th. Let all the delegates go.

It is a source of regret to many of the friends and admirers of N. B. Broughton, of Raleigh, to see the statement that he advocates the third party.

Three skeletons were exhumed at Morehead City a few days ago. They were Indians, two men and one woman, and were lying face downward with their heads toward the north.

Representative Watson, of Georgia, thinks Col. Polk will be the third party nominee for President, and Weaver of Iowa, will be nominated by the same party for Vice President.

One of the editors of the Maxton Union, O. E. Crowson, has retired, leaving M. G. McKenzie in full charge. The latter has the brains, and also the brass and gas to make the Union Letter than ever.

The Union soldier business in the third party platform is enough to damn the party in the estimation of all men. The existence of the plank is denied by some, but the only evidence they give is that this or that paper did not say it was there. All the same, "the con is in the hollow log."

Charges of a serious nature were recently preferred against Rev. O. Ryder, of Durham. The presiding elder, Dr. Yates, appointed a committee to investigate the charges, and after patiently hearing all the testimony, unanimously agree that Mr. Ryder be exonerated from all blame, and they furthermore declare that it is their belief that he is the intended victim of a base conspiracy.

Over "The Mountain" To Pittsboro.

On Tuesday morning, bright and early, ye editor, who had been fortunate enough to borrow a long-eared standing collar and a shirt front for the occasion, in company with Maj. D. L. Webster, Col. A. P. Gilbert, Gen. A. L. Brooks and Captain Gallagher, who was the driver, started to Pittsboro to attend the Democratic convention.

The abundant flow of pure, genuine, unadulterated, uncontaminated Democratic blood coursing the Democratic veins of our Democratic bodies was at high tide. We rode in a Democratic carriage, drawn by Democratic horses. In fact Democracy was "in it" all along the way and throughout the day.

Our route lay through the Hickory Mountain section. It was our first trip over "the mountain."

AS WE JOURNEYED we were overtaken by Dr. G. A. Smith, Messrs. J. Geo. Hanner, D. G. Fox and T. A. Gilliland, who claimed to be Democrats, having been elected delegates by a Democratic primary. We are very glad to state that Mr. Hanner had added a straw hat to his paraphernalia invite a protracted sojourn.

This is truly one of the prettiest sections of the country we have yet seen, and these people are to be congratulated who are fortunate enough to own farms of such fertility and grand and beautiful surroundings.

We passed an old two story building, that is estimated to have been built about 125 years ago. It is the old "Jack Alston Place." The house was built of hand-sawed lumber, and put together with hand-made nails. This was before the day of steam saw mills and cut nails. Those facts make the place an interesting one, and the old house stands a monument to the skill and pluck of our forefathers who lived in darker ages.

Further on we saw the body of a large white oak with a red oak limb which grew out of it about 20 feet from the ground. The theory is suggested that a red oak acorn fell into a knot hole in the white oak and sprouted and grew there. Will the theory do?

There are many visible evidences of the wealth and thrift of former settlers, along the way. What were, in their day, magnificent residences, are still standing in large groves of majestic oaks. Lovely, beautiful places they are in their antiquity.

We could not fail to note the fact that a large per cent. of last year's cotton fields are now planted to corn.

ARRIVING AT PITTSBORO, we scattered. With the exception of Maj. Webster and Dr. Smith we don't know whether our crowd behaved themselves or not. We had to hustle for a subscriber before dinner, so we couldn't keep our eagle eye on them. We got dinner at the home of Capt. Exline, and the "through" our fellows cut made the editor blush. It was shocking to our modesty and timidity. As Rencher and McLean were at the table, it was too bad. We must apologize to Mrs. Exline, for our party did literally spoil her splendid dinner. But if she is satisfied we will try and not feel too bad about it.

We met a good many of Chatham's good citizens and added several new names to our subscription list. We are indebted to Bro. London, of the Record, for courtesies extended us, and to others for expressions of good cheer. We hope to be able to visit Pittsboro often, and the LEADER is confident of some good friends over there.

We returned the same day, pretty well tired out when we got home, but feeling amply repaid for the fatigue of the trip by what we saw and heard.

DAIRY SWING CHURN.

The Dairy Swing Churn gives me perfect satisfaction. It produces butter of the nicest grain, and is easily cleaned. In all the time we have had ours it has never failed to produce good butter in a very short time.

REV. J. L. SMITH.
I have made butter for many years, and I find the Dairy Swing Churn the easiest and the quickest churn and the easiest cleaned. It gives perfect satisfaction in every respect.

MRS. J. W. WHITEHEAD.
The Dairy Swing Churn has rendered entire satisfaction. We are well pleased with it and would not exchange it for any other churn.

MRS. PATTERSON PICKETT.
The Dairy Swing Churn has given me less trouble and more butter than any churn I have ever used. It is sure to bring all the butter there is in

Chatham County Democracy

In Harmonious Convention.

The county convention to elect delegates from Chatham county to the State and Congressional conventions was held in Pittsboro on Tuesday.

M. T. Williams chairman of the democratic county executive committee called the convention to order and requested J. Geo. Hanner and I. R. Hayes to act as temporary secretaries.

Roll of townships was called and lists of delegates handed to secretaries. There being no response from Farrington's Mill precinct in Williams township, on motion ex-sheriff Williams was empowered to cast the vote of that precinct.

On permanent organization, Mr. E. W. Atwater was elected chairman by acclamation, and on motion the temporary secretaries were made permanent by unanimous vote. Mr. Atwater is one of the staunchest Alliancemen in the county, and a true blue Democrat. His speech of acceptance was conservative, yet intensely Democratic. He is a Democrat because the party is of the people, for the people, and by the people.

On motion, the chair appointed one from each township to recommend delegates to the State convention. At this juncture it was discovered that Hickory Mountain township delegates were not present though they had a few moments before responded to the roll call. In a few minutes they reported Hickory Mountain not represented. These men attended the Democratic primary and were elected at that primary to attend the Democratic convention, and on the first roll call answered promptly.

On motion, Mr. Isaac B. Headen was empowered to cast the vote of Hickory Mountain township.

While the committee on delegates were in consultation, the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, that we instruct our delegates to the State convention to use all honorable means, in a spirit of fairness and conservatism to preserve the Democratic party in its integrity and uphold its time-honored principles, for being the party of the people its perpetuation in its purity is necessary to the maintenance of a free government.

In presenting the resolutions Judge Womack spoke eloquently and timely.

Mr. A. H. Merritt followed in a short, but strong and earnest appeal to Alliancemen to stay in the old ship, begged them not to leave and earnestly entreated those who have left to come home.

WASHINGTON LETTER

Our Regular Correspondent

WASHINGTON, April 29, 1892.

The Blaine talk, like the silver question, will not "down" a week as heard wherever republican congregations. The silver public are largely responsible for the Blaine revival, so to speak. They perse to supporting President Harrison, because of his well known opposition to free coinage, but they are perfectly willing to take Mr. Blaine without knowing that he any more friendly to free coinage than Mr. Harrison. The anti-Harrison republicans generally have also, it seems, come to the conclusion that the only way to keep Mr. Harrison out of the nomination is to nominate Mr. Blaine, and if they can have their way the Minneapolis convention will nominate Mr. Blaine whether he will or not.

In these days of bitter and unreasonable partisanship in Congress it was a positive pleasure to hear Representative Hooker, of Mississippi, who is a democrat, make a speech in the House praising the administration for the diplomatic victory it has won. He said that in the manner in which Secretary Blaine had treated the complication with Chili and Great Britain proved him to be a great statesman.

If the Canadian sealers think to avoid seizure in Behring sea by sailing under the Mexican or other flags they will make a costly mistake, as the commander of the United States vessels will have orders to seize all vessels caught taking seals, without regard to the flag under which they sail. Senator Hill is confident that he will receive the democratic nomination for President, but the Cleveland democrats in Congress declare most emphatically that he has not even a ghost of a chance. "You pay your money and you take your choice."

If Representative Eploe had wished to make the public sympathize with Commissioner Baum he could not have accomplished his purpose quicker or better than by losing his temper and calling that gentleman a liar, as he did when Mr. Baum was on the stand testifying to the committee which is conducting the investigation of the Pension Bureau, and his attempt to strike Mr. Baum after having called him a liar did not mend the matter. Personal abuse never convinces anybody; it usually reacts upon those who indulge in it. Representative Wheeler, who is chairman of the investigation committee, has the right idea. He said after the disgraceful occurrence alluded to above: "Mr. Baum came here in response to a summons from this committee to testify, and he must be treated like any other witness. Whether his testimony be true or false does not matter. After his statements have been made any other man who cares to may have the opportunity to take the stand and deny or disprove them."

Representative McCracken, chairman of the House committee on Public Lands, has reintroduced a bill which has been before several Congresses, providing for the forfeiture of all lands granted to railroads opposite to and contiguous with any portion of railroad road now within the in response to requests made by the labor organization in all section of the country, introduced a resolution reciting the semi-military character of services performed by men in the employ of the Pinkerton detective agencies for various corporations, and authorizing an investigation of their methods. Although the Alliance members persisted in asking that the resolution be reported to the House, for a long time they were put off by the majority of the Judiciary committee, to which the resolution was referred, with vague talk about doubt of the constitutionality of such an investigation—the constitutional bugaboo invariably bobs up when the interest of the big corporations are threatened in Congress, but they still persisted, asking that the resolution be reported, even if adversely, in order that they might compel members of the House to put themselves on record for or against it. At last the committee has decided to report a substitute striking out the allegation of the fact in the Watson resolutions, but authorizing an investigation of the Pinkerton system and methods.
