The Joint Discussion between Fowle and Dockery.

Messrs. R. H. Battle and Thos. Purnell, who by mutual consent, were made referees in the matter of arranging dates and places for a joint canvass between Fowle and Dockery, have announced the following appointments:

Montgomery, Aug. 27; Wadesboro, Aug. 28; Albemarle, Aug. 29; Troy, Aug. 30; Asheboro, Aug. 31; Siler, Sept. 1; Lexington, Sept. 15; Mocksville, Sept. 17; Hickory, Sept. 18; Lenoir, Sept. 19; Morehead, Sept. 20.

carry that State.

Resolutions have been adopted by the Senate for a select committee to investigate the commercial relation between this country and Canada, and for the Senate committee on interstate commerce to investigate the relations of the Canada Pacific railroad to our transportation.

The interior department before which the case of the Northern Pacific railroad against Guilford Miller, a homestead settler, has been pending for two years, has made a decision against the railroad company. There are two thousand similar cases before the General Land Office which have been held up, waiting for this decision.

Here are some facts in regard to pension legislation, taken from Representative McKinley's speech in the House last Thursday: "During the last three years of Republican administration, the total number of pensions claims issued was 191,221. During three years of Democratic administration, these claims amounted to 359,454. The Republican administration in 3 years disbursed for pensions $183,393,000. In three years the Democratic administration disbursed for the same purpose $217,399,000. The President during his term has signed 1,264 private pension bills, as against 1,521 signed by all the Republican Presidents from Lincoln to Arthur. These facts taken from the official records which are open to all men.

The Democrats of the House Ways and Means committee have removed the injunction of secrecy from the proceedings of that committee during the formation of the Mills bill. This was done in order to show up the position of the Republican members of that committee on the tariff.

Chief Justice Fuller, who was here a week, has gone back to Chicago to straighten out his private affairs. He has leased a residence here, and will move into it this fall. He will be sworn in at the October term of the Court.

A Correct Statement.

COR. VIDETTE.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

Senator Faulkner, who has just returned from his home in West Virginia, says Cleveland and Thurman will carry that State by an increased majority.

Members of the National Democratic Committee, are much pleased with the outlook. They say the committee is in excellent trim for hard fighting, and they express satisfaction that there has been no leak in the committee, which speaks volumes for the harmony existing among its members.

A prominent Connecticut Democrat said here today: "The Mills bill does not hurt any of Connecticut's industries; it helps several of them. Connecticut is sure to vote for Cleveland, Thurman and tariff reform."

The third return of "Jingo" Blaine seems to have had a decided effect upon at least two Senators of his party—Riddleberger and Teller. Jingoinism in its worst form was indulged in by both of them in speeches against the fisheries treaty. They fairly swiped up the floor of the Senate chamber with the mane of the British lion as they swung that animal around by the tail. This sort of demagogism is not likely to do the Republican party any good with the thinking element of the country.

Senator Gibson enquired of Senator Sherman whether the Senate tariff bill was likely to be brought in next week or the week after. The reply was: "I don't know. No one can tell." Mr. Sherman was candid. His answer furnished the real status of the bill.

Senator Gorman returned from the meeting of the National Committee just in time to give that eminent railroad attorney, Geo. F. Edmunds, who also represents the State of Vermont in the United States Senate, a good dressing down. He reminded Mr. Edmunds of the fact that he had been the paid attorney of railroads upon whose interests he was to vote as a Senator.

Representative Lawler, of Illinois says he thinks Cleveland will hoist that he thinks Cleveland will have published in a news paper, the most ridiculous lie, I should turn over to the Governor Mr. L. and tell him that I thought the little fellow would fill the bill.

In conclusion I want to say to Mr. L., when you return to school, procure for your own special benefit, a book or books on veracity and study the subject closely, for no doubt it will do you good and save you from trouble in the future; and should you, after slandering your neighbors, have the courage to return to the good old county of Montgomery, please remember that after taking lessons from your books on veracity that you must stick to the truth, for truth is mighty and will prevail."

Yes, Mr. L., be a man and always tell the truth. But should you still persist in manufacturing and writing what is not true of your neighbors and the citizens of your native county, we would say: "go west, young man," and try and find a place where lying can be tolerated without raining the prospects of success in your chosen profession. Respectfully,

ONE WHO WAS PRESANT.

State Democratic Platform.

The recent State Convention of the Democratic party adopted the following platform.

We again congratulate the people of North Carolina on the continued enjoyment of peace, good government and general prosperity under Democratic administration of the affairs of the State which has now been unbroken for so many years; upon the just and impartial enforcement of the law; upon the increasing efficiency of our common school system, and the progress made in popular education; upon the improvement and enterprise manifested in all parts of the State. We again challenge a comparison between this State of things and the outrages, crimes and scandals which attended Republican ascendancy in our borders. We pledge ourselves to exert in the future as in the past our best efforts to promote the best interests of the people of all sections of the State. Affirming our adherence to Democratic principles as heretofore enunciated in the platforms of the party, it is hereby.

Resolved, That no government has the right to burden its people with taxes beyond the amount required to pay its necessary expenses and gradually extinguish its public debt; and that wherever the revenues, however derived, exceed this amount, they should be reduced, so as to avoid a surplus plus in the treasury. * * *

Resolved, That while the details of the methods by which the constitutional revenue tariff shall be gradually reached are subjects which the representatives of our people at the national capital must be trusted to adjust, we think the customs duties should be levied for the production of public revenue, and the discriminations in their adjustment should be such as will place the highest rates on luxuries and the lowest on the necessities of life, distribute as equally as possible the unavoidable burdens of taxation, and confer the greatest good on the greatest number.

Resolved, That we, as heretofore, favor, and will never cease to demand, the unconditional abolition of the whole internal revenue system, as a war tax, not to be justified in times of peace; as a grievous burden to our people and a source of annoyance in its practical operations. We call the attention of the people of the State to the hypocritical pretension of the Republican party in their platforms that they are in favor of the repeal of this onerous system of taxation, enacted by their party, while the Republicans in Congress are taxing their energies to obstruct all legislation inaugurated by the representatives of the Democratic party to relieve the people of all or a part of this odious system.

Resolved, That the course of the Democratic party, in furtherance of popular education, is a sufficient guarantee that we favor the education of the people, and we will promote and improve the present educational advantages so far as it can be done without burdening the people by excessive taxation.

Resolved, That to meet an existing evil, we will accept, for educational purposes, from the Federal government, our pro rata share of the surplus in its treasury; Provided, that it be disbursed through State agents and the bill for the distribution be free from obnoxious features.

Resolved, That the United States being one government and ours a national party, we denounce the efforts of the Republicans to force sectional issues in Congress and elsewhere, and to promote dissension and ill-will between the people of the different sections of our common country.

Resolved, That it is due to the people of eastern counties, who have so cheerfully borne their share of our common burdens, that the present or some equally effective system of county government shall be maintained.

Resolved, That the Democratic party is opposed to any further extension of the "No-fence" law, unless such extension shall have first been authorized by a majority of the qualified voters within the territory to be affected thereby.

Resolved, That the Democratic party has ever been the party of the workingman, and has never fostered monopolies, nor have "trusts" or "combinations" or "pools" ever grown up under laws enacted by it. The contest in this country being between aggregated capital, seeking to crush out all competition, and the individual laborer, the Democratic party is, as it has ever been, against the monopolist and in favor of a just distribution of capital, and demands the enactment of laws that will bear equally upon all.

Resolved, That as all taxation bears most heavily upon the laborer, it is the duty of every legislator, as a direct benefit to the workingman, to keep the expenses of our public institutions at the lowest limit consistent with wise and efficient management. The Democratic party opposes any competition between free and convict labor, but it insists that convicts shall not remain idle at the expense of honest labor.

Resolved, That ours being an agricultural State, it is our duty as well as our pleasure to promote any and all legislation that is best calculated to advance the interests of agriculture; and that in so doing we will most effectively advance the interests of mechanics, manufacturers and laborers.

Resolved, That the Democracy of North Carolina cordially approve the administration of Hon. Alfred M. Seales as honest, patriotic and conservative.

Resolved, That the ability, wisdom, honesty, patriotism, independence, faithfulness to duty and manly courage of President Cleveland have won the admiration of all good men and the interests of the country demand his re-nomination and his re-election.

I Saved my Child's Life.
When my child was born, the doctor ordered one of the other foods. She ate that until she nearly died. I had three doctors, who said the trouble was Indigestion, and ordered the food changed to Lactated Food. It saved my child's life, and I owe you many thanks for it. I regard your Food as invaluable, and superior to all other artificial food for babies.
