

Local and Personal.

The Troy Supply Co., has a new ad in this issue. Look it up. If you want fresh, clean, new goods go to Troy Supply Co. Mrs. W. M. Carter of Moratock is visiting relatives in town. Misses Hattie and Ida Reichard of Winston, have returned home. Messrs. A. W. E. Cape and D. D. Bruton are in Philadelphia this week. Little Miss Lena Muse of High Point spent a few days in town last week. It will pay you to look through Troy Supply Co's stock of goods before you buy elsewhere. The camp meeting will begin at Love Joy the first Sunday in October. The colleges are now opening and the boys and girls are returning after the summer vacation. Mr. Jesse Lisk of Fort Pierce Fla., is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Lisk. If it is shoes you are looking for, see D. E. Pemberton & Son before you buy. Mr. and Mrs. P. O. Hogan spent several days in Lilesville last week. Miss Emma Ellis of Ore Hill is visiting her sister, Mrs. P. C. Hogan. The Montgomerian is in a position to prove to you that advertising pays. Try us a few rounds. Mr. A. B. Moore's many friends are pleased to learn that he is improving. Miss Maud Hearn of Albemarle is visiting relatives and friends in town this week. Rev. J. E. M. Davenport and family are spending the week at Sulphur Springs. Miss Bertha Lewis returned home last Thursday from a months visit at High Point and Charlotte. Do you want longwear shoes, something that will wear longer than other shoes, see Troy Supply Co's stock. Montgomery county superior court will commence September 21st. Judge J. T. Webb will preside. Send us 25cents and get the Montgomerian until January 1, 1909. This rate only to new subscribers paid in advance. If it is home-made shoes you want go to see D. E. Pemberton & Son. They have them at right prices. Gov. R. B. Glenn will address his fellow citizens on the issue of the day at Troy on Tuesday, Sept. 22nd, at noon. The board of county commissioners were in session Monday and transacted a great deal of business, but nearly all of it was of a routine nature. Mrs. Lydia Jane McKenzie died last Thursday at the home of her son, Mr. John McKenzie of near Star. Deceased was a good woman. Do not grumble and complain. It will do you more harm than good. In fact, have you ever found a grumbler that ever succeeded at anything. These are failures. The congregation of Macedonia church, Ophir township, is building a handsome house of worship to take the place of the old building which has been in use for many years. Polk Miller, with his famous "Old South Quartette," will be in Mt. Gilead Saturday night, Sept. 12th. An extra train will be run from Biscoe, returning after the entertainment. This will be a rare treat. Everybody should take advantage of this opportunity to hear Polk Miller. According to the plans adopted by the Democrats in this Senatorial district, composed of Randolph and Montgomery counties, Randolph select the Senator one time and Montgomery the next. This is the year for Randolph to "come to the bat" and Mr. J. A. Spence, formerly of Troy, but now of Asheboro is the nominee. Mr. Spence will carry the standard of the party to victory in November. An exchange gives the following method of curing a wart: Put a drop of vinegar on the wart and then as much baking soda as the vinegar will absorb. Do this two or three times a day, keep it on ten minutes, and in a few days the wart will drop off and leave no mark but a tiny white spot. This is said to be an infallible remedy and perfectly harmless. If you are troubled with warts try it and see for yourself what virtue there is in it.

Attorney R. T. Poole attended the Randolph county Democratic convention at Asheboro last Saturday. He reports a big convention. Mrs. L. M. Blair and daughters Messames B. C. Ashcraft and J. A. Stewart, who have been visiting Mr. J. R. Blair, returned last Wednesday to their homes in Monroe. Good openings are reported from all the high schools of the county. Our folks are sending their children to school and our splendid preparatory schools are something which every citizen in the county should be proud of. Dr. N. P. Liles of Mt. Gilead spent last week visiting relatives in this county. Dr. Liles is another one of Anso's boys who is destined to do well with his chosen profession.—Wadesboro Ansonian. Married at the residence of the officiating Justice, Mr. Manly Luck, at Biscoe, Sunday, Sept. 6th, Mr. Worth Luck and Miss Minnie Lasiter, both of Troy. Best wishes for their happiness and prosperity during life. "I am taking several papers, but I lay all others aside when the Montgomerian arrives." These kind words from Mr. W. L. Auman of Ether. We are glad to know that Mr. Auman and others can so speak of the Montgomerian. The Democratic National State and county tickets are published in another column of the Montgomerian. We do this in order to keep the names square before the voters until the day of the election. Every voter can go to the polls in November and vote these tickets without a fear of ever regretting it. Mr. Ben Richardson of Okeewee and Miss Ollie Morton of Uwharrie were married last Sunday at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. R. L. Rorton of Uwharrie. Dr. J. A. Sisk performed the marriage service. A number of relatives and friends attended the wedding. The groom is a son of Mr. J. C. Richardson and is a worthy young man. The bride is attractive and a justly popular young lady. Mr. and Mrs. Richardson are living at Okeewee. The Randolph county Democratic convention was held at Asheboro Saturday. The following ticket was nominated: J. A. Spence, Senate; J. Rom. Smith and T. J. Redding, House; S. L. Hayworth, sheriff; G. T. Murdock, register of deeds; B. F. Newby, treasurer; Dennis Fox, coroner; H. A. Albright, surveyor; A. N. Bulla, J. W. Cox and W. J. Armfield, Jr., commissioners. This is one of the best tickets ever put out in Randolph and it is sure to be elected by a good majority. We are again forced to call the attention of new correspondents to the necessity of signing their names to items sent us for publication. We have no desire to publish the names of correspondents who send us ordinary news items, but we must know who the writer is before we publish the items. This may seem like nonsense to those who have given but little thought, but self protection forces us to adhere to the rule; Nothing will be published in the Montgomerian unless we are sure of the author's name. Mrs. Lethea Morris wife of Mr. G. W. Morris, died at her home here last Friday night. Mrs. Morris was a daughter of the late James G. Cotton. She leaves a husband and five small children. Mrs. Morris was 36 years old. She was a devoted mother, a faithful member of the Methodist church and a woman of noble character and all who knew her held her in high esteem. The burial was in the Methodist cemetery Saturday afternoon. Rev. J. W. Bradley conducted the services. Mr. Morris and his bereaved children have the sympathy of this community in this hour of their sadness and grief. For a Sprained Ankle. A sprained ankle may be cured in about one-third the time usually required, by applying Chamberlain's Liniment freely, and give it absolute rest. For sale by Troy Drug Store and all first-class druggists. Carmel Items. The heavy rains damaged crops considerably. Aunt Sarah Hunsucker is right sick. Let everybody come out and help clean off the church and grave yard at Carmel Saturday, Sept. 19. Mr. F. McAulay of Mt. Gilead was here last week on business. J. F. Hamilton & Son will soon be ready to grind corn. Mr. Preston Morris and family of Wadesville visited relatives here last week. The republicans just as well take a back seat now, for they surely will after Nov. 3. Mr. Bryan will beyond a reasonable doubt be the next president. The North and West are favoring Bryan, the South always stands for a Democratic president and she well knows her business.

A Traveling Man's Experience. "I must tell you my experience on an East bound O. R. & N. R. R. train from Pendleton to LeGrande, Ore." writes Sam A. Garber, a well-known traveling man. "I was in the smoking department with some other traveling men when one of them went out into the coach and came back and said, 'There is a woman sick unto death in the car.' I at once got up and went out, found her very ill with cramp colic; her hands and arms were drawn up so you could not straighten them, and a death like look on her face. Two or three ladies were working with her and giving her whiskey. I went to my suit case and got my bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, and Diarrhoea Remedy (I never travel without it), ran to the water tank, put a double dose of the medicine in the glass, poured some water into it and stirred it with a pencil; then I had quite a time to get the ladies to let me give it to her, but I succeeded. I could at once see the effect and I worked with her, rubbing her hands, and in twenty minutes I gave her another dose. By this time we were all most into Le Grande, where I was to leave the train. I gave the bottle to the husband to be used in case another dose should be needed, but by the time the train ran into Le Grande she was all right, and I received the thanks of every passenger in the car." For sale by Troy Drug Store and all first-class druggists. Star Items. Rev. Mr. Arrowood preached excellent sermons at the M. E. church here last Sunday morning and night. Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Allen returned Friday from an extended visit to relatives at Pekin. Their sister, Miss Edna Allen accompanied them. Miss Lydia Leach Leach left last week for the Baptist University at Raleigh. Misses Emma and Mary Riddle of High Point are visiting relatives here. Miss Johnson of Littleton arrived last week and has taken charge of the music and latin class here. Mr. Alfred King has taken charge of the Leach hotel. A clever, popular Candy Cold Cure Tablet—called Preventics—is being dispensed by druggists everywhere. In a few hours, Preventics are said to break any cold—completely. And Preventics, being so safe and toothsome, are very fine for children. No Quinine, no laxative, nothing harsh nor sickening. Box of 48—25c. Sold by Troy Drug Store. Eleazer Items. Most of the young people of this section attended the protracted meeting at Hillsboro church Sunday. They reported a nice time and excellent preaching. Mr. Groves Spencer of Mechanic spent Saturday night at James Russell's on business. Mr. Wm. Allen is on the sick list we are sorry to note. Mr. and Mrs. George Luther spent Friday in Troy. J. W. Luther went to Asheboro Saturday on business. There will be preaching at Eleazer church the 2nd Sunday in this month at 3 p. m. The protracted meeting begins the 4th Sunday at night. Misses Hester Cranford and Alice Luther, and Ella Cranford and Daniel Luther visited at George Luther's Sunday eve. Mr. G. E. Carter spent Sunday with his parents near Bombay. Tickling or dry Coughs will quickly loosen when using Dr. Shoop's Cough Remedy. And it is so thoroughly harmless, that Dr. Shoop tells mothers to use nothing else, even for very young babies. The wholesome green leaves and tender stems of a lung healing mountainous shrub give the curative properties to Dr. Shoop's Cough Remedy. It calms the cough, and heals the sensitive bronchial membranes. No opium, no chloroform, nothing harsh used to injure or suppress. Demand Dr. Shoop's. Accept no other. Sold by Troy Drug Store.
