Raeferd Policeman Killed.

Raeferd, Aug. 31.—Chief-of-Police P. C. Oakes was killed here tonight about 8 o'clock by John Cameron, a desperado from up in Queensland township of Hoke county. T. F. Cole was wounded in the arm and body.

The chief-of-police was killed by three shots from a breech-loading shotgun, which took effect in the head and in the body. Five negro men and two negro women were shot and wounded, but not seriously. Cole will recover and probably the others.

Cameron went down Main street in his buggy with his double-barreled breech-loader and shot at anybody who attempted to stop him.

The people were running in every direction. When Chief Oakes, being out in the edge of town, and hearing the shots, ran up and tried to stop Cameron who shot him three times. Then Cameron left Raeferd in his buggy, going towards Laurinburg.

It is said that Cameron has held a grudge against the chief here for some time. He was arrested on one occasion on a charge of drunkenness, and ever since that time is alleged to have borne malice.

Randleman Policeman Shot.

Randleman, Sept. 1.—Chief of Police J. C. Daniel of this place was shot last night near a show tent in the Southern part of the town by Charles Gaster, a young white man about 18 years old, whose home is near Worthville. It is alleged that Gaster was drinking and raising a disturbance around the tent when Daniel attempted to arrest him, and he immediately opened fire by shooting five times. Four shots took effect, three of which entered the policeman's head. The other glanced his back. It was first thought the policeman was fatally injured, but he is this afternoon resting comfortably in Ferree Memorial hospital, where he was taken to be treated. The physician in charge states that unless bloodpoison sets in the patient is out of danger.

Mr. Daniel was shot by a Colt automatic pistol containing steel bullets. Gaster was taken to Asheboro and placed in jail today to await the outcome of Daniel's condition before standing trial. The near tragedy is the sole topic of conversation on the streets here today.

A Birthday Surprise.

On last Saturday, August 31st the relatives and friends of Mr. J. F. Hurley, of Star, gave him a delightful birthday dinner.

Early Saturday morning Mr. Hurley received a message to meet his sister at Ether, so he left home at once and while he was gone his friends all gathered at his home and prepared his dinner and was waiting for him when he returned about 12 o'clock, and to his great surprise to see the yard and grove covered with people. He hardly knew what to do or say, but guessed it meant his 60th birthday.

After several good handshakes and greetings, dinner was made ready. Mr. Alex Hogan gave a short talk on the family connection of the Hurley generation. Then we all enjoyed the dinner which was before us. The table was loaded down with goodies. There was between 75 and 100 people who ate, and there was plenty left. After dinner the presents were brought forth and delivered. He received quite a number of useful presents which are too numerous to mention. Then Mr. Winburn Hulin gave a short talk on Mr. Hurley's life and closed with a short prayer, and the rest of the day was spent in talking with friends and kinsfolk. Later on came the time for parting and good byes and all left for home wishing many more happy birthdays.

Mrs. W. C. Nance.

School at Star Opens Sept. 11.

Star, Sept. 3.—The Carolina Collegiate and Agricultural Institute will be opened on the 11th of September. The school will be conducted for the time being in the Academy building and in the spacious rooms in the Richardson block, as last year.

Competent teachers have been employed and we are looking for a more prosperous year even than last year.

County Commissioners N. M. Thayer and Geo. M. Bruton left Monday afternoon for a business trip to Terre Haute, Ind. They will be gone for about ten days, probably stopping in Asheville for a short mountain visit. While away they will inspect some bridge building plants, investigate prices on material, etc., but they are not making the trip for county purposes alone, and it might be well to state that the county is paying no part of the expense of the trip.

Rev. O. Paduma's Work Appreciated.

To the Rev. O. Paduma our pastor:—We the members of the First Congregational church of Troy feel greatly indebted to you and Mrs. Paduma for the great and noble sacrifices you have made in serving us as a pastor, principal and teacher for these 17 years. You have preached to us the pure gospel and have taught us the right principles.

We further thank you for the worthy efforts you have put forth in raising the education and moral standard for our boys and girls in our community.

We regret that you are going to leave us, we feel that we have a claim on you after living with us for 17 years.

Since we cannot keep you longer we must say good-bye with sad hearts.

We can never forget these many years of earnest labor among us. We hope to put into practice the good lessons you have taught us from day to day. We shall endeavor to be perfect, be of good comfort, be of one mind and live in peace.

We feel inspired to continue in this great work of the Lord and may God's blessings go with you from this place even unto the perfect day.

May your life be one of joy and happiness. God bless you. The officers of the First Congregational church.

The members of the First Congregational church of Troy and friends:

I thank you heartily for myself and wife for your appreciation of my services among you these 17 years. We feel we are better for having served you and the people of Troy. We cannot but notice the kindly feeling which the representative white people of Troy have shown us all these years as well as the purse they have given me through you. We value not only the purse but gives more so. We thank the officers of the Baptist and Methodist churches for their high esteem of our work and trust that our feeble efforts to insist right principles among the churches will grow to perfection. Farewell, O. Paduma.

Death of Little Lottie Hall.

(Deferred from last week.)

On last Sunday afternoon, Aug. 18th, while visiting his grandfather, Mr. H. L. Bell of Albemarle, while the storm was raging in the heavens, God in his infinite mercy and power saw fit to send an awful bolt of lightning and found its play on little Lottie, the precious little jewel of Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Hall. He had just attained the age of 8 years, 1 month and 15 days. Oh, it seems so sad for a little angel on earth to be taken from our midst. Had he been with sickness for some time, it seems like we could have given him up sooner. But while joying the best of health and sitting quietly in the home, who was a child of the dear parents, in the twinkling of an eye he became an heir of our blessed Saviour.

He was a bright little boy of an extraordinary talent and affectionate disposition. It was remarkable to see how he could learn. It seems that anything he undertook was revealed unto him as if it had been God's will. I would like to have seen him grown into manhood, for I am confident there was something in him more than an ordinary child.

The place in the home where he occupied is vacant. The little tongue that called papa and mama is still. The little feet that trod around the home are heard no more. But he is with Jesus watching and calling to us with outstretched arms, bidding us come and be with him in glory.

It seems so sad when we assemble at the church to engage in the Sabbath School that we can look over at the primary class and see the broken link of the golden cord that binds Heaven and earth together. He can't be with us any more. But we can go to him if we live as we are taught by Thy blessed word. "Except ye become as a little child ye cannot see the kingdom of Heaven."

"Weep not mother, Dry thy eyes, Tho it seems fit For thee to cry. For just above The deep blue sky, Little Lottie lives; No more to die."

We extend our heartfelt sympathy to the grief-stricken family He leaves a father, mother, little brother and sister besides a host of relatives and friends to mourn his loss.

The devotional exercises were conducted by his pastor, Rev. S. J. McConnell, after which the body was laid to rest in its little white casket in the cemetery at Ophir to await the resurrection morn. The floral offering was one of the most beautiful we have ever seen.

"We love him, yes, we love him, But angels loved him more, And they have sweetly called him

To yonder shining shore. "We know that there must parting be

While here on earth we roam; But we hope to meet Little Lottie In that bright and heavenly home."
