ROCKY MOUNT. N. C., JUNE 28TH. 1894

A merchant in New York had ledged to the Lord a certain poron of his husiness as fast as they vere collected. He called this the Lord's insurance meney, "for," said he, "so long as I give, so long will the Lord help and bless me, and in some way will He give me the means to give. It is a blessing to my heart to keep it open in grati-tude, a blessing to gludden other hearts, and the surest way to keep
