

SUBSCRIBE!
The Legislature Will Soon Convene.

Three times as many Subscribers as it had three years ago, and still booming.

GIVE US 10.000.
VOL. XXVII.

A SOUTHERN FAMILY NEWSPAPER FOR TOWN AND COUNTRY, DEVOTED TO THE WELFARE OF NORTH CAROLINA, AND THE SOUTH.

RALEIGH, N. C., FRIDAY, JANUARY 4, 1889.

JOSEPHUS DANIELS, Editor.

PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY

CHRONICLE PUBLISHING CO.

SUBSCRIPTION: $2.00 Per Annum

Advertising Rates Low.

THE EDITOR'S DESK.

Comments on Topics that are interesting to the people.

The Chronicle expresses its opinion on public events and questions of interest.

The Wilmington Messenger has entered on its third half yearly volume.

It looks like Mr. A. Leazar, of Iredeil, will have a walk-over in the Democratic caucus of the House of Representatives.

The most beautiful card we have seen in many days was the one sent the Chronicle by its friends.

Senator Daniels speaks for the Republican party. It is not likely that the Internal Revenue will soon be abolished.

What a strange commentary on "free institutions" is the fact that a majority of a million and a half of white men voted in favor of Cleveland.

It seems to be generally conceded that one of these three men will secure the election.

Enough money to secure first-class ability in the work of any business or profession will secure good and satisfactory results.

What a strange commentary on "free institutions" is the fact that a majority of a million and a half of white men voted in favor of Cleveland.

The organization of the Senate does not excite so much interest because the presiding officer has already been elected.

A million of men, the best and bravest, butchered each other that a dull and bearded alien race might hold the balance of power among the English speaking people.

The Executive Committee of the Teachers' Assembly met and prepared an attractive programme for next Summer.

It is a common error to suppose that the elevation of the imported "servile progeny of Ham" to dictatorship of the Anglo Saxon people in this age and country.

It is a psychological eccentricity. The human mind, like the banyan tree, after seeing the sun and shooting toward the zenith, stoops again to kiss the dirt.

These are the reflections that were forced upon me when I loathed the "practical politics," but with the sea chart of

THE NEW LEGISLATURE.

Next Wednesday will witness the assembling of the Legislature.

More than ordinary interest attaches to the meeting of the General Assembly which convenes in Raleigh next Wednesday.

The Educational Club is composed of some of the live school men from the University.

The Educational Club is composed of some of the live school men from the University.

The Educational Club hopes that by an organized effort it can help to promote the cause of education.

The meeting of the Graded School Superintendents was attended by most of the Superintendents in the State.

It seems to be generally conceded that one of these three men will secure the election.

Enough money to secure first-class ability in the work of any business or profession will secure good and satisfactory results.

What a strange commentary on "free institutions" is the fact that a majority of a million and a half of white men voted in favor of Cleveland.

The organization of the Senate does not excite so much interest because the presiding officer has already been elected.

A million of men, the best and bravest, butchered each other that a dull and bearded alien race might hold the balance of power among the English speaking people.

The Executive Committee of the Teachers' Assembly met and prepared an attractive programme for next Summer.

It is a common error to suppose that the elevation of the imported "servile progeny of Ham" to dictatorship of the Anglo Saxon people in this age and country.

It is a psychological eccentricity. The human mind, like the banyan tree, after seeing the sun and shooting toward the zenith, stoops again to kiss the dirt.

These are the reflections that were forced upon me when I loathed the "practical politics," but with the sea chart of

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND

Will continue to be at the front in politics.

Secretary Fairbank made a great speech to the tariff reformers in Boston.

John D. Schick, of Greensboro, has been in very bad health for some time.

The Raleigh Signal says Mr. J. C. Pritchard, the defeated Republican candidate for Lieutenant Governor.

The Dunn Signal says that neither branch of the Legislature will have a more than doubled in population.

Prof. C. E. Smith, who is lecturer in History in the Johns Hopkins University.

All Raleigh and all parties having business with the Auditor's office will be glad to know that Mr. J. D. Boushall will continue as Chief Clerk.

Rev. Geo. W. Finley, of Romney, Va., has been elected State Evangelist of the Presbyterian Church.

The Wilson Advance, after saying very truly of Judge Armfield that it was governed by high legal attainments.

Major J. W. Wilson, of Morganton, and Capt. W. E. McBees, Superintendent of the Western North Carolina Railroad.

We have a good story to tell on Sam Telfair, Governor elect.

Is Consumption Incurable? Read the following: Mr. C. H. Morris, Newark, Ark., says "I was down with Abscess of Lung, and friends and physicians pronounced me an incurable Consumption."

Another Courts' Heart From... It is said that there are one or more candidates in Chatham for nearly every office in the gift of the next Legislature.

FAVORS SELLING

The State's Interests in Railroads and Giving Away the Swamp.

It is said that there are one or more candidates in Chatham for nearly every office in the gift of the next Legislature.

The Raleigh Signal says that neither branch of the Legislature will have a more than doubled in population.

Prof. C. E. Smith, who is lecturer in History in the Johns Hopkins University.

All Raleigh and all parties having business with the Auditor's office will be glad to know that Mr. J. D. Boushall will continue as Chief Clerk.

Rev. Geo. W. Finley, of Romney, Va., has been elected State Evangelist of the Presbyterian Church.

The Wilson Advance, after saying very truly of Judge Armfield that it was governed by high legal attainments.

Major J. W. Wilson, of Morganton, and Capt. W. E. McBees, Superintendent of the Western North Carolina Railroad.

We have a good story to tell on Sam Telfair, Governor elect.

Is Consumption Incurable? Read the following: Mr. C. H. Morris, Newark, Ark., says "I was down with Abscess of Lung, and friends and physicians pronounced me an incurable Consumption."

Another Courts' Heart From... It is said that there are one or more candidates in Chatham for nearly every office in the gift of the next Legislature.

FROM MURPHY TO MANTEO.

What has happened in the Good Old State since the Chronicle last greeted its Readers.

The Governor has pardoned Jerry Holcomb, of Caswell, who was convicted in 1883 of a complicated failure.

About $5,000 has been subscribed towards building the new hotel.

Mr. Miles Goodwin's house at Smithfield was destroyed by fire.

Taylorville, N. C. is becoming more and more a town.

Mr. W. W. Scott, Jr., the talented and successful editor of the Lenoir Topics.

We had a call yesterday from Dr. B. N. Nields, Esq., of Sampson.

Gen. Clingan has just returned from New York.

Prof. C. E. Smith, who is lecturer in History in the Johns Hopkins University.

All Raleigh and all parties having business with the Auditor's office will be glad to know that Mr. J. D. Boushall will continue as Chief Clerk.

Rev. Geo. W. Finley, of Romney, Va., has been elected State Evangelist of the Presbyterian Church.

The Wilson Advance, after saying very truly of Judge Armfield that it was governed by high legal attainments.

Major J. W. Wilson, of Morganton, and Capt. W. E. McBees, Superintendent of the Western North Carolina Railroad.

We have a good story to tell on Sam Telfair, Governor elect.

Is Consumption Incurable? Read the following: Mr. C. H. Morris, Newark, Ark., says "I was down with Abscess of Lung, and friends and physicians pronounced me an incurable Consumption."

Another Courts' Heart From... It is said that there are one or more candidates in Chatham for nearly every office in the gift of the next Legislature.

THE BAPTIST ALMANAC FOR 1889.

The North Carolina Baptist Almanac for 1889, edited and published by Rev. C. T. Bailey.

The Richmond and Danville Railroad will hereafter issue what is known as minutes' permits.

The Richmond and Danville Railroad will hereafter issue what is known as minutes' permits.

The Richmond and Danville Railroad will hereafter issue what is known as minutes' permits.

The Richmond and Danville Railroad will hereafter issue what is known as minutes' permits.

The Richmond and Danville Railroad will hereafter issue what is known as minutes' permits.

The Richmond and Danville Railroad will hereafter issue what is known as minutes' permits.

The Richmond and Danville Railroad will hereafter issue what is known as minutes' permits.

The Richmond and Danville Railroad will hereafter issue what is known as minutes' permits.

The Richmond and Danville Railroad will hereafter issue what is known as minutes' permits.

The Richmond and Danville Railroad will hereafter issue what is known as minutes' permits.

The Richmond and Danville Railroad will hereafter issue what is known as minutes' permits.

The Richmond and Danville Railroad will hereafter issue what is known as minutes' permits.

The Richmond and Danville Railroad will hereafter issue what is known as minutes' permits.

The Richmond and Danville Railroad will hereafter issue what is known as minutes' permits.

The Richmond and Danville Railroad will hereafter issue what is known as minutes' permits.

The Richmond and Danville Railroad will hereafter issue what is known as minutes' permits.

The Richmond and Danville Railroad will hereafter issue what is known as minutes' permits.

FROM MURPHY TO MANTEO.

What has happened in the Good Old State since the Chronicle last greeted its Readers.

The Governor has pardoned Jerry Holcomb, of Caswell, who was convicted in 1883 of a complicated failure.

About $5,000 has been subscribed towards building the new hotel.

Mr. Miles Goodwin's house at Smithfield was destroyed by fire.

Taylorville, N. C. is becoming more and more a town.

Mr. W. W. Scott, Jr., the talented and successful editor of the Lenoir Topics.

We had a call yesterday from Dr. B. N. Nields, Esq., of Sampson.

Gen. Clingan has just returned from New York.

Prof. C. E. Smith, who is lecturer in History in the Johns Hopkins University.

All Raleigh and all parties having business with the Auditor's office will be glad to know that Mr. J. D. Boushall will continue as Chief Clerk.

Rev. Geo. W. Finley, of Romney, Va., has been elected State Evangelist of the Presbyterian Church.

The Wilson Advance, after saying very truly of Judge Armfield that it was governed by high legal attainments.

Major J. W. Wilson, of Morganton, and Capt. W. E. McBees, Superintendent of the Western North Carolina Railroad.

We have a good story to tell on Sam Telfair, Governor elect.

Is Consumption Incurable? Read the following: Mr. C. H. Morris, Newark, Ark., says "I was down with Abscess of Lung, and friends and physicians pronounced me an incurable Consumption."

Another Courts' Heart From... It is said that there are one or more candidates in Chatham for nearly every office in the gift of the next Legislature.

The Richmond and Danville Railroad will hereafter issue what is known as minutes' permits.

The Richmond and Danville Railroad will hereafter issue what is known as minutes' permits.