

Press and Carolinian.

Volume 18.

Hickory, North Carolina, Thursday, October 25, 1888.

Number 43.

POTATERS.

H. A. MURRILL, Editor.

Register!
 Register! Register!!
 Don't forget to register!!!
 Work! Work!! Work!!! for Election day is coming.
 New things in BLACK DRESS GOODS at Shuford & Co. 11"
 Read carefully, swallow and digest this weeks supplement.
 Millinery just from New York at Shuford & Co. 11"
 Don't fail to read the article on 6th page headed "The Tariff Forum."
 Rev. Mr. Weston will preach in the Episcopal church Sunday.
 Henrietas, Armoires, Habit cloths, all shades, Shuford & Co. 11"
 The "Wrens" Friday night. Don't fail to see them. It is for the benefit of M. O. Band.
 Hon. M. W. Ransom will speak in Morganton next Saturday. Don't fail to go and hear him.
 Best black Diamond parlor coal for sale at Piedmont wagon works 41-H.
 Many of our subscribers are considerably in arrears—come in and pay us what you owe. We have been as lenient as possible.
 Royster & Martin's display of valises and fine tourists' bags is beyond all rivalry. Be sure to call and see them.
 Registrars, keep your eyes on your registration books; keep them under lock and key at night. You cannot be too careful with them.
 Boys two piece suits for $2.50 at Royster & Martin's white front clothing emporium,
 Hickory, N. C.

L. C. Caldwell, Elector for this District, will speak in Hickory Monday night, Oct. 29th, in Shuford's Hall. Ladies invited.

Democrats, pull off your coats, roll up your sleeves and put your shoulder to the wheel. Don't be found asleep when the bridegroom comes.
 "Top Royal Collars," just out. Beats all. For sale at Royster & Martin's White Front Clothing Emporium.
 White men, vote as you live. Vote as you pray, and you will vote for honesty in the administration of the State and county affairs and for deliverance from negro rule.
 Tuesday night about 8 o'clock the alarm of fire was sounded, and on investigation it was found that a small house near the Methodist church was on fire. The house was formerly occupied by a family of colored people, but at the time it was burned was being used by Mr. J. E. Hathecock in which to store his roughness. The origin of the fire is unknown.
 A Boston liquor dealer was tried last week for selling without license. He claimed that he only kept an ice-cream saloon, thereupon the judge asked the witnesses had they ever seen any woman entering the place. They declared they had not. "That settles it," said the judge; "the man is convicted. An ice-cream saloon without women is an impossibility."

L. C. Caldwell, Elector for this District, will speak in Hickory Monday night, Oct. 29th, in Shuford's Hall. Ladies are invited.

Knee pants in heavy weight for 49 cts. each at the white front clothing emporium,
 Hickory, N. C.

Don't fail to see Royster & Martin's handsome display of nobly cravats for the fall trade.

As Others See Us.

Editor Murrill of the Hickory Press and Carolinian is an occasional visitor to Charlotte, his favorite city, outside of Hickory. It is only five months ago that Mr. Murrill bought an interest in the paper, and became local editor and business manager. The paper has been greatly improved by Mr. Murrill. It is one of the best family weeklies in the State, having over 2,000 circulation. It has an able Editorial Staff, and is doing a great deal for the Democratic party.—Charlotte Chronicle.

The Hickory Press and Carolinian has come out in a new dress and looks first rate.—Stateville Landmark.

Our highly esteemed contemporary, the Hickory Press and Carolinian, has put on a "new dress," and is very much improved in every way. It is one of our ablest and most valued exchanges. Long may it live and continue to improve and prosper.—Recorder.

About five months ago H. A. Murrill, of Hickory, N. C. bought an interest in the Hickory Printing Co., and took charge of the business and local department of the Press and Carolinian, published by this Company. Since that time the paper has been greatly improved. Last week it came out in a "new dress," and is one of the neatest published in the State.

It is ably edited, and is doing a great deal for the Democratic party. It is newsy, and on the whole, is an excellent family newspaper. Subscription price $1.50.—News Observer.

The Wrens.

In answer to a telegram Mr. J. J. Weiler sends the following:
 JOHNSON CITY, TENN., Oct. 23, 1888.
 F. A. Grace, Manager.

Your people can expect a great treat from the Wrens.

J. J. WEILER,
 Taylor Rifles.
 "Sweethearts," a charming little two act comedy written by Mr. W. S. Gilbert, the author of Pinafore, &c., abounds in sparkling mirth and striking situations. Mr. Wren as Harry Spreadbrow, and the beautiful and captivating soubrette Mrs. Wren, as Jane Northcott, were the features of the evening, and so well did they manage their audience that they captivated and charmed them from the beginning to the close of the entertainment. Their recitations were good and well rendered.
 In the button buster, "Outwitted," the audience were kept in a continuous roar of laughter, and in fact, the playing was repeatedly stopped to allow the people to give vent to their feelings.
 In our notice above, we neglected to mention the acting of Mr. Horatio Heber, who as the old man, did his part in fine style, and brought down the house with his many happy hits.—The Rockingham Register.

L. C. Caldwell, Elector for this District, will speak in Hickory Monday night, Oct. 29th, in Shuford's Hall. Ladies are invited.

L. C. Caldwell, Elector for this District, will speak in Hickory Monday night, Oct. 29th, in Shuford's Hall. Ladies are invited.

Knee pants in heavy weight for 49 cts. each at the white front clothing emporium,
 Hickory, N. C.

Don't fail to see Royster & Martin's handsome display of nobly cravats for the fall trade.

Longest Session.

CONGRESS ADJOURNS AFTER BEATING ALL PREVIOUS RECORDS.

A BULL AND SPIRITLESS FINALE.

WASHINGTON, October 20th, 1888.—Ten Senators were in attendance when the journal of the preceding day was approved.

As the hands of the clock pointed to the hour of one the House adjourned sine die, after having been in session since the 7th day of December, 1887.

The closing hours of the session of Congress were comparable to those of none of its predecessors within the memory of the present generation. The bustle and excitement, the crowded corridors, the anxiety of claimants and lobbyists, the effort of legislators in behalf of belated measures were conspicuously missing. In the Senate a gallery audience of a score of individuals at eleven o'clock had increased to two or three hundred at the end, and these looked down in placid silence upon the round dozen of Senators and complement of clerks, pages and attendants busily doing nothing upon the floor of the Chamber. In the House the attendance was little different and the scene was similar.

Our County Work.

Our county candidates and the recruited helpers have about finished the county canvass. A vigorous effort has been made to secure a large vote and an increased majority. If such a result fails it will not be the fault of the Chairman of the Executive Committee. He has watched every point and done everything in his power to bring out the voters. Whether his hopes be realized and his efforts rewarded will now depend on the township and local committees. If they know of any voter who cannot get to the election, they should make some arrangement to get him there. Let every Democrat in the county do his duty from now until the polls are closed, as well as has the Chairman of the Executive Committee and we shall roll up that 2,000 majority for Cleveland and the whole Democratic ticket. Go to work, friends, the enemy is doing his best to defeat us. If such a calamity should befall us, let not the blame lie at your door.

Will Print Your Tickets.

The Hickory Printing Company is prepared to print all kinds of election tickets at short notice, and at the following low prices:

Congressional tickets, in 5,000 lots, per 1,000.	33¢
Legislative tickets, in 5,000 lots, per 1,000.	50
Judges' and Solicitors' tickets per 1,000.	75
County Officers' tickets per 1,000.	1.00

Send along your orders at once, and they will be nicely printed and returned to you. The money must accompany each order.

There is a Henry Clay Whig living in Halifax county who, with his sons, will poll seven votes for Judge Fowle and the Democratic ticket. Their average height is 6 feet 2 inches and average weight 180 pounds. A younger son (16 years old) is 6 feet 2 inches tall.

Deal With Advertisers.

The readers of this paper are publicly requested by it to patronize those stores that advertise in it.

Those establishments are evidently the most enterprising of all in the town. They are anxious for your custom. They seek it. And they guarantee that their prices are as low, if not lower, than those of the stores that do not advertise.

Besides, they are helping to improve THE PRESS AND CAROLINIAN, and the stronger it becomes, the abler it will be to promote the development of Hickory. Those who help the paper, help the town; and those who help the town, help themselves.

Success to all the worthy advertisers in THE PRESS AND CAROLINIAN, from now, henceforth, for all time to come!

Harper's Magazine.

The melancholy days have come, but Harper's Magazine for November brighten them perceptibly. There is no flavor of decay about it, and its leaves are as fresh and clean as in summer-time. The range of subjects is wide, and there is catering to many kinds of literary taste. Two articles, "Invalidism as a Fine Art," and "The New Orleans Bench and Bar in 1823," can hardly fail to charm every one who reads them. The illustrations all through are most artistic, and the departments show their usual sweetness, light and common sense.

Democrats, Attention.

In view of the determined Republican effort to carry the State, which is elsewhere referred to and abundantly evidenced of which we have here at home, it is the duty of every North Carolina Democrat to buckle on his armor without further delay and go to work. Friends, we must meet the enemy! Let no man falter or fail to put forth his best efforts now and until the sun sets on a Democratic victory on the sixth of November. Democrats, to work!

Riverside Resort.

Mr. Robt. Winkler tells us the contract has been completed and the land surveyed and conveyed to Mr. Nichols for the erection of a summer hotel on a high bluff by the side of Catawba river, three miles from town, on the N. G. Railroad. Work will be commenced at once and the hotel will be ready for pleasure and health seekers next summer. We do not know what Mr. Nichols intends to name his place, but we suggest, "Riverside Resort."

Hon. John S. Henderson.

A letter from this distinguished gentleman tells us he will be in Newton on Nov. 3rd, and will speak in Hickory at night the same day. Go and hear him, fresh from the halls of Congress. He will tell you how the Republicans have refused to repeal the odious internal revenue laws, and give the people relief. He knows, and can tell you all about it.

A Contemptible Fraud.

We notice in many of our exchanges an advertisement over the name of the "ASHBEL MEDICAL BUREAU." The advertisement is contracted for by A. HANLEY HEATH, of 291 Broadway, New York, who is a scoundrel, a thief and a fraud. He patly informs us "he won't pay," so brothers, look out for him, if you are not running his ad, and if you are, take it out at once.

PERSONALS.

Mr. Philo Hall has returned from his Northern trip.

Mr. O. M. Royster is attending the Richmond Exposition.

Our former townsman, Mr. Flaum, was in the city Monday.

Mrs. J. G. Hall has returned from the Valley where she has been visiting.

Miss Lula Morrison, of Decatur, Ill., spent a day in Hickory with Miss Emma Ingold last week.

Prof. and Mrs. Sanborn, of Lenoir, passed the city Sunday, returning from the Richmond exposition.

Mrs. J. F. and Master Paul Murrill have returned from a pleasant and extended visit to Washington city.

Miss Ada Shuford, of Hickory, who is a parlor boarder at Davenport College at Lenoir, spent Sunday at home.

Col. Tom Fields has returned from his trip to New York, where we understand he bought an immense stock of goods.

Mr. MacAvoy, the proprietor of the Hickory Inn, arrived in the city last Tuesday with his wife, and is stopping at the Alexander house.

Mr. Will Pearson, attorney at law, of Lenoir, paid us a pleasant visit Tuesday. He talks politics, law or literature with equal interest and ease.

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Alexander are attending the Richmond Exposition. After taking in Richmond Mr. Alexander will go the Northern cities for the purpose of buying a large stock of goods.

Mr. J. B. Beard, Jr., who returned to Hickory about a year ago from the Wild West and launched out into the blissful and happy life of a farmer, has left us again. Yes, last Tuesday morning he left for Texas, to the surprise and sorrow of his many friends.

The Rev. J. A. Munday, comedian, tragedian, and dramatist, spent three days in Hickory last week laying his wonderful experiences before the people. He is having a tent built and wants every man he sees to contribute 25 cents thereto.

Mr. Campbell of the Brush Electric Light company has been in the city the past week negotiating with the town officials and private business men for the putting in of a system of electric lights in Hickory. This will be a great thing for our city and we hope every thing will be satisfactorily adjusted.

Mr. H. S. Chase returned last Tuesday from an extended trip to the North, where his time has been spent in buying furniture and all the necessary paraphernalia for the furnishing of the Hickory Inn. Everything is of the best, and when arranged in the building the hotel will rival in beauty and grandeur of the gilded Alhambra, of Grenada.

Col. W. H. H. Cowles will speak at the following times and places:

Lenoir, Friday,	October 19
Hartland, Saturday,	" 20
Morganton, Monday,	" 22
J. W. Green's store, Cleveland county, Tuesday,	" 23
Shelby, Wednesday,	" 24
Cherryville, Thursday,	" 25