Attention

To the members of the Press Association, and their "better halves" the city of Hickory tenders a cordial invitation to partake of a banquet at the Hickory Inn on their return from Lenoir after the convention is over. Brethren we hope you will all attend and enjoy yourselves. After going to press we learn by telegram that the editors will not accept the invitation to the banquet in Hickory.

Among the prominent speakers who will be present and deliver addresses at Farmers' Encampment at Mount Holly, August 6th to 10th, will be Governor D. G. Fowle, Hon. K. P. Battle, Messrs. W. G. Upchurch, J. Van Lindsey, J. F. Payne and Dr. H. B. Battle, State Chemist. A big time is expected.

Fifty drivers of the quill arrived in Hickory on the 1:14 o'clock train Tuesday and enjoyed a fine dinner at the Hickory Inn, after which they took the C. & L. train for Lenoir. More are expected to night and we hope to have a full attendance of the brethren at the convention.

THE GRISSOM VERDICT.

A Mass Meeting in Raleigh Denounces the Verdict.

A REQUEST TO THE GOVERNOR

To Call the Legislature Together if Dr. Grissom Does not Resign.

RALEIGH, N. C., July 23.—The Board of Directors yesterday afternoon, by a vote of six to two, acquitted Dr. Grissom of all the charges preferred against him. A mass meeting of the citizens of Raleigh assembled in the city hall tonight and passed resolutions denouncing the verdict of the board of directors in acquitting Dr. Grissom, Superintendent of the insane asylum, and demanding his immediate resignation. The Governor was requested to call a special session of the Legislature to take action, if he declined to resign.

A number of speeches were made by prominent men and telegrams from other points read endorsing the action of the meeting.

Similar meetings were held at several other points in the State.

Move to Hickory.

The Salisbury Watchman says the Collectors office will be moved to Statesville, and the Landmark says Collector Eaves has been informed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue in a letter saying that the office of the collector of this district cannot be moved from Salisbury.

From all this it is evident that somebody is not satisfied for it to remain in Salisbury, and if that dissatisfaction arrives from the expense and inconvenience to the officers in visiting their families or fear of the climate about Salisbury we suggest a removal of the office to Hickory. Statesville and Newton have had benefit of its presence and why not Hickory have it a while. We can furnish good offices for the rent that is paid and many of the officers would be nearer their families if they remain at their homes. What say the Hickory office renters to those things?

An Editor Shot.

Last Monday night Roger Page, editor of the Marion Times-Register was shot five times and killed by one Ed Brown.

The cause of the shooting was connected with Mrs. Butt, the sister of Brown. We have no further particulars.

Drowned Herself.

Mrs. Fulmer, of Asheville took it into her head that her husband, an engineer on the Ducktown line, did not show her the same attachment as formerly, and leaving her room about midnight on the 17th inst. she threw herself into a pond and drowned.

The band boys were very highly entertained in Wilmington and feel the highest appreciation for the same. Wilmington is noted for her hospitality.

The Fourth Regiment Band.

Our citizens were delighted yesterday to have the Hickory Military Opera Band pay a visit to the city. They came up from the encampment on the midday train, and in the evening furnished music in the firemen's parade from Front street depot to the hall of the Wilmington Steam Fire Engine Company. They were entertained at supper at the Orton last night by Wilmington Steam Fire Engine Company, and after supper serenaded His Excellency Gov. Fowle, who was at the hotel. The Governor came onto the piazza and when the music ceased, thanked the band for their recognition of his presence, and said many nice things to them. The band then, accompanied by the firemen, gave an exhibition of their splendid drilling, at the corner of Market and Front Streets. They also played in the City Hall park just previous to the performance of the "Little Tycoon," but found that they were too late to drill there. Capt. F. A. Grace, their accomplished and gallant drum-major, requests us to express regret that they were not able to drill at the City Hall park, as quite a number expected a drill.

We were all too much delighted with the band to take notice of any seeming omissions, and were more than pleased by the fine and enjoyable selections rendered by them. That accomplished cornetist and clever gentleman, Mr. R. J. Herndon, who is the band's instructor, played with them.—Wilmington Messenger.

Revenue Raiders at Work.

The revenue raiders have been vigilant and successful in Gaston county of late. Daniel Thornburg, an old distiller, had unpleasant visitors who seized over 2000 gallons of whiskey, tore out his stills and arrested him. They found two un-stamped barrels out of place, and one barrel in the cellar full of new whiskey with stamps on it four years old. The Scriptures oppose putting new wine in old bottles and it seems the Internal Revenue laws oppose putting new whiskey under old stamps. Tom Falls had his still torn up and 800 gallons of whiskey seized, and one Parham had 400 gallons seized and still torn up. Verily the wicked shall be punished.

Died.

On the 6th inst. Miss Mary Moore, mother of Frank and Lewis Moore, of this township. The funeral services were performed by Rev. Bonner.

On last Friday, the 20th inst. at 2 o'clock A. M. Mrs. L. E. Clinard, of Consumption. Our sympathies are tendered the bereaved friends and relatives in both instances.

Citizens of Hickory are invited to attend a banquet at the Hickory Inn, Saturday evening, given by the N. C. Press Association. Residents attending are expected to pay $1 each to help pay expenses.

CITIZENS.

The pride of the camp is the Fourth Regiment Band, from Hickory, consisting of twenty-four pieces and a drum major. The drum major is "a thing of beauty," and the way he twirls his baton is "a joy forever."—Ex.

Mr. J. I. Saunders left the city last Saturday, and left many people behind who would like his return—for the sake of small amounts due for board, etc.

Euchred! "by jo." Notwithstanding the fact that a good deal of mileage has been used, as well as other things—our postmaster has not been "ousted."

Alliance Notes.

Catawba County Farmers Alliance met in the chapel of Catawba College, on the 5th day of July 1889. Thirteen of the eighteen sub-alliances, in the county, were represented by delegation, in the alliance, the others were hindered by high water. We had a very good and interesting meeting, and transacted much business of importance to the order, the only thing was that we did not have time enough. One day is too short a time to transact the business pertaining to a county alliance, therefore, let us have two days at our next county meeting in October. We can employ the time to great advantage in promoting the business part of the order, which is very much needed, and very essential to the success of the alliance, we need education, as to the business principles, and the duties of the several officers.

The officers elected for the ensuing year, were published in the Enterprise and Press and Carolinian heretofore. The County Alliance adopted resolutions as follows:

Resolution, adopting the Charter, passed by the last General Assembly, incorporating the Farmers State Alliance of North Carolina and sub-alliances, as its charter of incorporation.

Resolution, authorizing the delegate to the State Alliance to vote for the consolidation of the alliance.

Wheel and other farmers organizations, as adopted by the last National Alliance, at Meridian, Miss., and to be known as The Farmers and Laborers Union of America.

Resolution, adopting the action of the Birmingham convention, in using nothing but cotton bagging to cover our cotton, and under no circumstances to patronize the Jute Bagging Trust.

Resolution, adopting a cotton platform at Catawba, for the use of the Alliance, which was so generously tendered to the Alliance by the business men of Catawba, and that all sub-alliances at their next meeting ascertain as near as possible the number of bales of cotton raised by their alliance, and report the same to the county business agent at once.

Resolution of thanks to the President and Professors of Catawba College, for the use of the chapel to hold our meeting. For want of time the meeting adjourned without fixing the next place of meeting and therefore, will have to be called by the President. Name and address of county officers as follows:

S. T. Wilfong, Pres., Newton, N. C.
A. D. Shuford, Sec., Edith, N. C.
J. H. Sherrill, Bus. Ag't, Catawba, N. C.
H. A. Forney, Deputy Organizer, Newton, N. C.

"Farmers, organize, organize!"

OBITUARY.

On July 12th the Angel of Death visited the home of Mr. Joseph Moore, of this township, bearing away his wife—the partner of his joys and sorrows for the past fifty years.

Mrs. Moore was the daughter of Henry and Mary Killian, of Lincoln county, and only one brother survives her—Mr. Phillip Killian, of Waynesboro, Va. She leaves an aged invalid husband and seven children, four of which were present at her death. Five have crossed the silver waters before her. She was a consistent member of the M. E. Church, South, for the past fifty years, and leaves but few, if any, enemies, but instead a host of friends, who will be grieved to hear of her death.
