

Press and Carolinian.

Volume 19.

Hickory, North Carolina, Thursday, September 19, 1889.

Number 38.

POINTERS.

H. A. MERRILL, EDITOR.

New Advertisements.

SHERIFF ROWE—Tax Collection.
HALL BROS.—Special Bargains.

Make your entries
Whoop up the Fair.
25 cents to see the fair.
Wait for our nobby hats, Royster & Martin. *2t.

The One Price Cash Store retails bacon at 7½c cash.

New goods arriving daily at Wagner & Killian's. *1t

One cent a mile is all it costs you to come to the Hickory Fair.

Come and see champion biscuit eater at the Fair—he challenges the world.

Examine our new fall and winter clothing. Royster & Martin's. *2t

Dr. J. J. Mott, of Statesville, will have his large herd of Jerseys at the Hickory Fair.

New goods arriving daily at Royster & Martin's. *2t.

Hon. Elias Kerr, president of the State Alliance, will deliver the address on Thursday at the Fair.

Look out for Wagner & Killian at their new brick building, immediately after the Fair. *1t

Over 30 trotters and runners already at the fair grounds waiting for the great Hickory Fair to open.

Royster & Martin's new stock will be ready Fair week. *2t.

Go to Wagner & Killian's to buy your home-made shoes. *1t

Buy your season tickets for Hickory Fair at secretary's office at Wagner & Killian's store.

There will be a match game of base ball between the Morganton 9 and the Hickory 9 at the fair grounds on Thursday, 26th.

When you come to the Hickory Fair, don't fail to call on Wagner & Killian to buy your goods. *1t

The herd of Holsteins, and other fine cattle, belonging to the State, and kept at the Morganton Asylum, will be at the Fair.

Fat, short, thick and slim sizes at the White Front Clothing Emporium. *2

J. G. Hall offers $5 to any old soldier who can out walk him two turns of the track, square heel and toe, on Thursday of Fair week.

The king "B" is the "B" that stands for bargains at the white front Hickory, N. C. *2.

Died, in this city, of a complication of diseases, on 15th inst., Mrs.
Elizabeth D. Hoyle, in the 64th year of her age.

The highest market prices paid for country produce at Wagner & Killian's. *1t

The General Organizer of the Farmers' Alliance writes us that many Alliance men are coming to the Hickory Fair.

Send us $1.50 and we will send you a ticket to the fair and this paper one year.

Insufficiency of space necessitates the omission of an important communication from "Tax-Payer." It will appear next week.

Our large stock of fall clothing will be ready fair week, come in and see for your self, Royster & Martin.

We have every assurance, weather permitting, that there will be ten thousand people at the Fair on Thursday.

DOUBLE LYNCHING.

Two Alleged Murderers Taken From Jail And Hanged.

MORGANTON, N. C., Sept. 11, 1889.
—Franklin Stack, white, held for the murder of Robert Parker, and David Boone, colored, held for murder of Ed. Holmer, were taken from jail here at two o'clock this morning by a party of one hundred and fifty masked men and hanged to the railroad bridge within the corporate limits. Jailor Ward made a determined resistance, but was overpowered and the doors of the cells were broken down by force.

After the lynchers had secured the prisoners they took the rope from the public well and hurried off with their men to the bridge which spans the railroad track at a height of about fifty feet. Manardie Deal, a citizen of the town, who was on the streets at the time the lynchers passed through, was seized by the escort and carried with them to the execution. He reports that Stack died protesting his innocence. It is understood that Boone confessed his guilt.

There is intense feeling here over the matter, and Jailor Ward has sworn a warrant before Mayor Robertson charging W. W. McGalliard, John McGalliard and Steve Duckworth with being the leaders of the lynching party. The matter will be thoroughly investigated and the perpetrators will be held for trial at the next term of the Burke county Superior Court.

If this lynching business is to be carried on without hindrance we had as well abolish all law and let Judge Lynch and shot-gun rule prevail at once.

We are very sorry but the communication from Mr. Deal, Sec. of the Newton Fair will have to lie over for next issue. Both editors are confined with mumps and can't attend to any business this week.

Hickory Mfg Co. have commenced the erection of their new brick building to substitute the frame building now occupied. It will be a commodious structure, and will be completed by Christmas.

A new building is in course of erection at the fair grounds. It will be used exclusively for the art exhibits, and will be filled to fullness with works of art.

Look at the head of the editorial page. Some men have read this paper nearly two years and not having paid for it say they did not know it was $1.50 a year.

E. G. Haywood, of North Carolina, has been appointed chief of the judiciary division of the First Comptroller's office at Washington, vice J. A. Johnson resigned.

No services in the Reformed Church Sunday morning. There will be a missionary service at 8 p. m. Everybody invited to attend.

For Sale.

Cash or credit—four imported Clydesdale stallions, one year old—the finest ever brought to N. C. Can be seen at the Hickory Fair. Call on D. W. Shuler at Bank of Hickory for price and terms. *1t

Notice to burners of electricity—Two sharp whistles at night is notice that incandescent lights will be cut off in 10 minutes.

HICKORY ELECTRIC CO.

Possum Holler.

The Enterprise came out again last week with the "whole matter" as it said, "made clear," announcing with crocodile tears that it and the Newton Fair have been persecuted without cause; that this paper came out two days ahead of time last week just to injure the fair. This error requires its correction.

We did not commence this thing.
The Enterprise did not give the "whole matter." It commenced it last year and was intended to injure the Hickory Fair from the start.

The PRESS AND CAROLINIAN has never done any thing just to injure an enterprise of any kind, and has never published slanderous communications over assumed names. We think we know too well the code of editorial conduct.

As to the Enterprise—being attacked we were forced to defend ourselves.

To Dr. J. B. Little, of Newton, the man who wrote the venomous letter over the signature of "George W's Son," we have nothing to say.
We give the world the name, it already knows the circumstances of the whole matter and is its own judge.

If there had been anything in our last letter against the Newton Fair we would, if asked, give the name of the writer. It was a puff for Hickory and the Hickory Fair and contained nothing directly detrimental to the Newton Fair and there is no reason for giving the name of the contributor. We are done.

Secretary S. E. Killian has been accused of aiding in writing the "Possum Holler" articles which appeared some weeks ago in this paper. In vindication of the 'Squire, we can say that he had nothing whatever to do with the articles referred to.

"Blue Ribbon Day"—Thursday of the Fair—Fourth Regiment Band, Asheville Light Infantry, two thousand and Alliance men in line, one thousand and old soldiers will participate in the sham battle! "Johnny go get your gun" and bring it!

Twenty-five cents admission and make your entries free is what brings the boys to the Hickory Fair. Remember free freights and one cent per mile railroad fare is all it costs.

If this copy of the PRESS AND CAROLINIAN does not come up to standard we hope all our readers will excuse it. Both editors are trying what virtue there is in mumps.

Rev. Dr. Robey, well known throughout the State, and who has been quite ill for some time, died at his home in Goldsboro a few days ago.

Wingfield S. Chadwick, of Beaufort, has been elected president of the Atlantic and North Carolina Railway, succeeding Washington Bryan.

Dr. J. H. Daniel's Announcement.

To satisfy and assure the public of the good faith, on my part, I will treat any patient in my specialty, upon their depositing with the Bank of Hickory, at Hickory, N. C., the sum of my fee, charges to be paid over to me upon a cure of their case being effected by my treatment.

Respectfully,
J. H. Daniel, M. D.

Some very fine sour-wood honey for sale by Dr. Ingold. Leave your orders with him, or at Bost & Co.

THE NEWTON FAIR.

Beautiful Weather, Large Crowd, Fine Exhibits.

In the short time at our disposal last week we only had opportunity to get a general view of the Newton Fair.

The attendance on Wednesday and especially on Thursday was very large.

The stock exhibit was very fine, composed principally of thoroughbred Devon cattle, owned by L.
Banks Holt, of Haw River, N. C.; thoroughbred short horn Durham, by President Reinhardt and J. C.
Wifong; thoroughbred Jerseys, by Mrs. Corpening; fine sheep, fine hogs, by M. M. Cline and others; thoroughbred horses, jacks and other stock of all kinds. It is sufficient to say the exhibit was of an unusually high order.

The farmers' hall was filled with the finest of wheat, oats, pumpkins, fruit, clover seed and almost every variety of vegetation grown upon a farm.

The ladies had given especial attention to the arrangement and decoration of the floral hall, and the display without attempting to enumerate was very handsome.

For the entertainment of the crowd there were some exciting running and trotting races on each day.

The address to the old soldiers by Gov. Fowle on Thursday was applauded to the echo, and the veterans' dinner and march and subsequent patriotic three cheers and a yuger under the direction of Lieut J.
G. Hall, for the Governor of North Carolina, President of the United States and ladies of Catawba county, was a fitting ending to one of the most successful meetings ever held by the old veterans in the State.

We are glad to be able to state the Fair was a complete success, both financially and otherwise.

Old Soldiers, Read!

TO CONFEDERATE SOLDIERS OF THIS AND ADJOINING COUNTIES:—You are all requested to attend the Fair at Hickory, especially on Thursday, 26th. Bring your gun and participate in the sham battle, which is already arranged for that day. A sham exhibition of an engagement between Union and Confederate forces will certainly take place, with fortification, rifle pits, etc.

500 GUNS WANTED!

Blank cartridges and blank charges for cap guns will be furnished.

J. G. HALL.

Tribute of Thanks.

To the friends of our deceased mother, Mrs. E. D. Hoyle, who in loving care, sympathy and kindness, administered to her comfort during her illness, we desire to extend our sincere and heart-felt thanks.

HER CHILDREN.

An examination of applicants for position of county students in the Raleigh Agricultural and Mechanical College will be held in the Courthouse in Newton, on Saturday, 21st inst.

Each county is entitled to as many such students as it has representatives in the House. Such students receive their tuition free.

Mr. J. A. May, nurseryman, Pigeon River, N. C., offers 100 selected apple trees as a premium for the finest and best display of fruit grown in Catawba county, at the Hickory Fair.

Boys clothing in all sizes at Royster & Martin's white front clothing emporium. *2t.

PERSONALS.

Dr. P. L. Murphy was in the city Tuesday.

Col. W. W. Lenoir spent Saturday in Hickory.

Mrs. C. N. Vance, of Greensboro, is a guest at the Inn.

Miss Eva Bryce, of Charlotte, is visiting Mrs. J. G. Hall.

Mr. C. G. Latta, of Raleigh, spent Sunday with relatives in this city.

Miss Mary McNeely, of Salisbury, recently visiting friends here, returned home yesterday.

Miss Mary Lenoir, of the Valley, has returned with her sister who enters Claremont College.

Mr. W. W. Holsclaw, of Watauga, dropped in upon us Tuesday on his return from the North.

Hon. M. W. Ransom passed through the city Saturday on a visit to his family who are summering at Blowing Rock.

Miss Ada Schenck, after a visit to Asheville and Hot Springs, has returned to Mrs. O. M. Royster's and will remain some weeks.

Misses Julia and Amelia Bruns, of Columbia, S. C., were called home last week by a telegram announcing the sudden illness of their mother.

Miss Ida Ramsaur of Lincolnton passed through Hickory Monday on her way to Asheville. She has accepted a position in the Ravenscroft school at that place.

IN MEMORIAM.

WHEREAS It has pleased God to remove from us by death our beloved friend H. Edward Whitener,

Resolved That we, the teachers and students of Catawba College, acknowledge, in our deep sorrow, the loss of one so noble and worthy of our respect and affection, the hand of Him who doth not willingly afflict nor grieve the children of men.

Resolved That we extend to the mourning parents and friends our heart-felt sympathies in this their sore affliction, praying that He who "healeth the broken in heart and bindeth up their wounds" may comfort them as He alone can.

Resolved That these resolutions be printed in the "Newton Enterprise" and the PRESS AND CAROLINI-AN and a copy be sent to the bereaved family.

WM. H. THOMPSON.

CHAS. F. CLINE Chr. Com.

CLARA YOUNT.

Dealville Items.

The farmers are quite busy this beautiful weather making fodder.

Shooting match at Dealville on last Saturday. Mr. Van Teague getting the highest prize.

Mr. David West, photographer, of Florida, is kept quite busy taking photographs.

Miss Nolia Deal left Thursday to attend the next term of school at Claremont College.

Mr. Rose, of New York, is stopping at Mr. J. M. Deal's. Mr.
Rose is selling the new Gale Harrows. A 13 YEAR OLD GIRL.

Several cases have been brought before lawyers here lately, where no remedy could be found for the complainant; but this was not the fault of the law. It was because the men who made contracts and thought they were getting good security, were unwilling to pay an attorney for drawing their papers, or else trusted too much to the good faith of their debtors.

A stitch in time would have saved nine.