More Light!

The Hickory Electric Co is preparing to spread the subtle fluid over a larger area. In addition to the lights to be placed in Piedmont Wagon Works, the company has application from our business houses for forty-three incandescents, additional to those already in use. This shows that the electric system yields satisfaction to our people, and that it is preferable to gasoline.

There is, however, one unfilled desideratum in the matter—we need more public lights! The number of lights on the public square are apposite to their area, but East Hickory and West Hickory are both sadly neglected. An arc light in each of the above portions of the city are absolutely requisite. The tax-payers in those sections are entitled to some benefit from the light fund, and that, too, when it is necessary to the convenience of all who have occasion to travel at night in those sections.

It is to be hoped that the city fathers will give the matter a favorable consideration, and "let there be light."

Will Work at Night.

Piedmont Wagon Co. are so far behind with their orders that they have decided to run at night, and are now having fourteen electric lights put in to enable them to work at night.

In January next Louis Kossuth will become a man without a country. He will on the 9th of that month complete the period of absence from Hungary which will terminate and forfeit his citizenship of that country. His two sons have become Italian citizens, and the venerable patriot has been strongly urged to do likewise, but he probably will not do so.

It is a deplorable fact that we have not a police force that will preserve order in a theatre hall before and during the performance. If you told some boys and men that they did not know what gentlemanly conduct was they would be highly indignant, and yet their actions show that they do not know.

The wife of the late S. S. Cox was his inseparable companion; she shared all his plans, and made his life her own. Mr. and Mrs. Cox were not only a devoted couple, but she was like a partner to him in his business, sharing his confidence in everything.

VICTORY OF VOTES.

DEMOCRATS ELECT FIVE GOVERNORS OUT OF SIX.

MAHONE IS BURIED UNDER AN ENORMOUS MAJORITY.

Foraker is Beaten, Iowa Carried by the Democrats, New York Largely Democratic, and Massachusetts Ought to Have Been.

Republicans haven't yet found out what hit them on last Tuesday week. The Democrats are almost as much surprised, for their victory was far larger than they dared hope for. In Virginia it was supposed that the election would be close, but Mahone seems to have been buried under an adverse majority of 40,000 or 50,000. In Ohio Judge Campbell has a majority of 8,000 or 10,000 and a Democratic Legislature will elect the successor to Senator Payne. The Democrats have elected Mr. Boies Governor of Iowa, and will control the Legislature and choose a successor to Senator Allison. The Democratic majority in New Jersey is about 12,000, and in 23,000 in New York, and the Democrats have made considerable gains in the Legislature.

In Massachusetts the Democrats might easily have won a victory. Six thousand more votes would have elected Mr. Russell and last year he got about 35,000 more votes than he got Tuesday through the indifference of his party.

The Administration made every effort to get Virginia away from the Democratic column. Everything that Harrison's patronage and Quay's mailed handful of money could do to capture Virginia was done, and the result is a Democratic majority of 40,000 or 50,000 against 1,500 last fall. On the other hand, the Democratic party has recovered New York and broken into the Republican line at two most important points—Ohio and Iowa. The Northwest belongs to the Democrats and we will get it yet in Presidential as well as in off years.

"To discontinue an advertisement," says John Wanamaker, Philadelphia's great merchant, "is like taking down your sign. If you want to do business you must let the public know it. Standing advertisements are better and cheaper than reading notices. They look more substantial and business-like, and inspire confidence. I would as soon think of doing business without clerks as without advertising."

S. E. KILLIAN,
Secretary.

Senator Kenna, of West Virginia, has hitherto been the youngest man in the United States Senate. If the newspaper biography of Senator-elect Pettigrew of South Dakota is to be relied upon, he will succeed to that honor in December. He is only 40.

Gorton's Minstrels.

This splendid combination afforded our people three hours of solid fun at Shaford's Hall Monday night. Our people anticipated something enjoyable, and they were not disappointed. There were "mirth and music in the chime," and all were highly entertained. The proteges, all acquitted themselves with great credit, their "songs" being superior to any we have ever seen. In short, it is an excellent "com." and well deserves patronage.

A Slight Mishap.

Last week a slight accident occurred at Piedmont Wagon shops. A joist in the new building being overloaded with bricks gave way and precipitated about ten thousand bricks against one of the walls of the new shop building. The damage will probably amount to sixty dollars.

In Charlotte last Tuesday.

Just at the close of the races at the fair grounds a difficulty occurred, which resulted in Capt. George F. Bason being shot in the head. The shot was fired by Mr. Walter Sullivan, of the Charlotte gas works, who had been struck by Capt. Bason.

The Lenoir Topic of last week contained a somewhat lengthy account of a drunken spree of J. M. Estes, just out of jail, and Robert Powell during which Estes was relieved of $340, with which it is said that Powell is paying his way to the far West. Whisky will make men steal.

The allowance for support of Katie Huffman was increased from $1.00 to $1.50 per month.

The supervisors, having contracted for the building of a new bridge across Lyles creek near John Simons' according to an order of the board, sold the old bridge timbers to the highest bidders, some of which timbers had washed down the creek on the land of Miss F. O. Eckard, and H. J. Reitzel, agent for Miss Eckard, having refused to allow the purchaser to move the timbers, it was ordered that Miss Eckard be requested to allow the timbers to be moved, and informed that the board would otherwise recover them by due course of law.

Another Bear Hunter.

Big Tom Wilson is not the only "bar" hunter in this country. Peg-Legged Bob Graham, of Mecklenburg, has been making a reputation as a bear hunter and fighter amongst our mountains. His latest exploit occurred a few days ago while hunting over in Yancey. He had wounded a large black bear and it turned upon him in a fierce rush. Bob stood his ground and extended his wooden leg. The bear seized it greedily, and while it was chewing away on the wood Bob reloaded his rifle and dispatched the bear—Asheville Democrat.

[That is a good one—Ed.]
