

THE EDITOR'S CORNER.

The Republicans have much to say in condemnation of free trade. Yet they have nominated a free-trade candidate for Governor of Minnesota in the hope that they will be able to hold that State in line.

The supreme court of the United States has unanimously affirmed the judgment of the supreme court of Michigan to the effect that the miner law, so-called, is constitutional. This is the law which provides for the choice of one Presidential elector in each Congressional district instead of all electors on a general ticket.

Raleigh celebrated her centennial by the most elaborate street pageant ever seen in North Carolina. More than a thousand people took part in the parade and over twenty thousand spectators witnessed it. Oldest inhabitants, floats, etc., made up the procession. There were thirteen divisions in the procession, of which John M. Hook was chief marshal.

Twelve out of thirteen of the board of women managers of the exhibit of the state of New York for the World's fair have protested against the action of congress in deciding to close the fair on Sunday. It would be interesting to know how women generally regard this matter. Are the twelve women of the board alone in their opinion or do all the women in the country stand as twelve to one in favor of opening the fair every day of the week?

Ex Congressman Ewart (repub.) of the ninth district, says that Crawford, democratic candidate for congress in that district, will easily beat Pritchard, his republican opponent.

During a glove fight yesterday morning in New York, William Neary was knocked out by John McGarry. A doctor was called, but he was unable to restore Neary to consciousness and he was carried home, where he died.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars; free.

There is no better medicine for family use than Ayer's Cathartic Pills. Their sugar-coating makes them easy and even agreeable to take, and as they contain no calomel or other injurious drug, they are perfectly safe for patients of any age.

A Homestead paper which has been on the side of the locked out men, came out Saturday in an article, confessing that the strike is lost.

The Great Dr. Boerhave left three directions for preserving the health—keep the feet warm, the head cool, and the bowels open. Had he practised in our day, he might have added; and purify the blood with Ayer's Sarsaparilla; for he certainly would consider it the best.

CANDIDATE WEAVER'S UTTERANCES

The Opinions He Has Expressed Concerning the Democratic Party.

Extracts from General Weaver's speeches, concerning the Democratic party make interesting reading just now. This is the way he maligned the Democracy.

He said at Albion on July 18, 1866: "I want to congratulate you first, fellow-citizens, on the suppression of a purely Democratic rebellion, gotten up by the Democrats for the democratic purpose of discovering this Union and perpetually establishing human slavery. Now and forever it is established as an eternal truth that the Democracy in no place or State can ever be trusted with government. As a party, it should be disbanded, just as a section of it did at Appomattox."

He said in a joint debate with Col. H. H. Trimble, at Bloomfield, on September 4, 1868:

"Here we have the old fight over again. The Confederate Democracy, North and South, in which the infamous copperhead division of Iowa appears, are again contesting with Grant for the safety of the Union. As at Donelson, he proposes to move on their works at once, and there is no escape for this rank, traitorous horde, except in another surrender. Charge on them, fellow Republicans, and spare not one, not even a deputy road supervisor, from total political annihilation."

He said in Bloomfield, on September 26, 1869:

"What is the use in further arraigning the defunct Democracy, with all its heinous crimes, at the bar of public opinion? We know that its acts comprise murder, treason, theft, arson, fraud, perjury, and all crimes possible for an organization to commit. It would be a mercy to put its record a million miles deep in the pit that is mentioned in Holy Writ; and I may add that if a large and distinguished assortment of its alleged statesmen were sent along it would only be common justice."

He said in Fairfield, September 18, 1870:

"The Democracy, as usual, are loud in their opposition, but what did they ever do when they had a chance? Here in Iowa they stole the school fund and nationally they stole the arsenals, the Navy, the Treasury, everything that was not red hot, and created the very devil's rebellion. And these men appear and ask for your support. They should have come on bedded knee asking your forgiveness for the unspeakable crimes they have committed and the wretched miseries they have inflicted upon our common country."

He said in Keokuk, September 16, 1871:

"The record of the Republican party appeals to the candid judgment of all men as unimpeachable, save, perhaps, that it was too lenient with the leading Democratic conspirators. The same old gang, save those who were shot or hung, are again conspiring to get possession of the Government next year. Woe to them! for the loyal hosts will crush them, and crush them forever and forever out of all possible danger of such a misfortune to our common country."

He said in Oskaloosa, September 25, 1872:

"No Republican can ever, under any circumstances, have any part or lot with the hungry, rebellious, man-hating, woman-selling gang corporated under the name of Democracy, a name so full of stench and poison that it should be blotted from the vocabulary of civilized man and handed over to the barbarism that it so fitly now and in all the past has represented."

He said at Stiles, September 11, 1873, in referring to the financial policy of the Democratic party:

"But, then, what could you expect from the poor, blind, diseased, decrepit, dismal, damned old Democratic party?"

He said at Menona, September, 1874:

"There can be no doubt about the question at all. With greenbacks and national bank notes our business needs are well met. There can be no better utility of the paper currency than these. But it meets with the assaults of a party which through its financial legislation inflicted untold wrongs and robberies upon the people by permitting banks without a solid basis to issue a circulating note. The fact is, gentlemen, the Democracy, never has been able to comprehend the financial question. Between its inherent dishonesty and apparent senility it makes a petty but not unusual exhibition of its corporate, consolidated idiocy."

Oh, What a Cough.

Will you heed the warning. The signal perhaps of the sure approach of that more terrible disease Consumption. Ask yourselves if you can afford for the sake of saving 50c., to run the risk and do nothing for it. We know from experience that Shiloh's Cure will cure your cough. It never fails. This explains why more than a Million Bottles were sold the past year. It relieves, croup and whooping cough at once. Mothers, do not be without it. For lame back, side or chest Shiloh's Porous Plaster. Sold by O. M. Royster, Druggist.

Southern Securities.

New York, Oct. 20.—Specialists in southern state securities say there is nothing new to be said relative to the refunding of the South Carolina state debt, due July 18, 1893. Gov. Tillman, who has just returned home, did not accomplish much in the matter, and certain southern capitalists are now trying to see what they can do. They say nothing of value can be accomplished until some provision is made for the non-fundable bonds of the state, which, of course, must be settled by the legislature.

The Mercury charges Senator Ransom with dodging a vote upon the silver bill when it recently came before congress. The accusation is false, and, we believe, known to be so by the editor of the Mercury when he penned it. Senator Ransom voted for this bill, and prior to the existence of the alliance or the third party he voted in the congress of the United States for the free and unlimited coinage of silver.—[Bulletin.
