Local Items in Brief.

Register! Have you registered? "Geo. D." wants the republicans and thirds to fuse, but they won't. The beautiful October days have gone and with today the rain commences. Be sure and see that your name is written there--on the new registration book. We are glad to see the depot building receiving a new coat of paint. The Sherman bar-room fixtures have been transported beyond the city's limits. The republicans say George D. Smith is a full-fledged third party man. We wonder what Chick and Smith have in common--republicanism or third partyism? There will be a democratic rally, at Lincoln, on Nov. 4th, to which the public is cordially invited. All our merchants report trade improving, and their daily sales much in excess of October sales. Julius Land has rented the store room next door to Wray & Co., and within a week will open a grocery store. Ask the people not to fail to hear Hon. A. M. Waddell at Catawba Springs, Nov. 3rd, Hickory, Nov. 3rd, at night. The Davis Times says that Evangelist Fife's meeting at Mocksville was crowned with great results. A purse of $150 was presented to him. Waddell's appointment in Alexander county has been changed from Taylorsville to "Prices old place," in Wittenburg township, where he will speak Nov. 4th. At a third party meeting in Goldsboro ex-Gov. C. H. Brogden tried to get some office, and they concluded to run him for township tax-collector, but Nathan Howell got eight out of the ten votes and beat him. They then nominated a constable, but the ex-governor would not consent to run for that office.

J. C. Pritchard, republican candidate for congress in the 9th district, has lately married Mrs. Ed. Ray, daughter of Mr. Jacob W. Bowman, of Bakersville.

Hon. H. A. Gudger, will speak at the following places: Plateau (Keeverville) Nov. 4th. Maiden, Nov. 4th, at night. Sherrill's Ford, Nov. 5th.

Senator Gorman, in his first campaign speech at Baltimore, declared his conviction that he was mistaken, and that Cleveland's nomination was the best that could have been made.

Gen. Jacob D. Cox, of Ohio, says: "The exigencies of the times demand the election of Cleveland," and in a speech at Frederick, Md., last week, ex-Secretary Bayard reiterated the same sentiment.

Richard Croker said at New York democratic headquarters last week that the heavy registration "means an unprecedentedly large majority for the democratic ticket in New York city."

Cleveland county third party men are rapidly coming back to the democratic party. Among the most prominent, we will mention the names of Walter and Kim Hardin, two prominent farmers, and also N. A. Jackson, a country merchant.

Senator Ransom will be in Newton Friday, October 28th, to deliver one of his grand addresses to the voters of Catawba. There will also be a horseback street parade and barbecue. It will surpass any political demonstration ever held in Catawba. Let everybody go.

Gideon's band is the very latest edition of third partyism. Shall we look for another? This precocious brat walked too young. Not a good sign. Funeral services, November 8th. Only relatives and friends are expected--no democrats need apply.

Geo. D. Smith's ill-fated star is setting again. He tried to manipulate a fusion in Virginia and then left the state. He has now failed to accomplish a fusion between the third party and republicans here. Can we hope for as good treatment as the Virginians received?

A prominent citizen of Hickory has but recently returned from Watanga county and informs us he crossed an old countryman that was exceedingly wroth at one of our merchants whom he claimed had sold him "a lady's corset for a face protector in hiving bees." Mirabile dictu! What next!

The directors of the Gideon's band have their sworn benchmen in every county; and these secret-oath bosses by pretending to be friends of the people exercise a strong influence because their secret orders are not known generally. If the veil of secrecy were lifted from the deeds of the conspirators what tremendous corruption would be exposed!--News and Observer.

Mr. P. C. Hall returned home Monday greatly encouraged at democratic prospects for a great victory on November 8th. He informs us that as he was journeying one night in a crowded car, conversation turning to politics, an ardent Cleveland man requested all present that were for Grover Cleveland to stand up and every soul arose except one individual, and he was wrapped in slumber. We give this fact merely as a pointer to the strong drift of public sentiment.

The North Carolina Presbyterian synod, which assembled at Statesville a few days ago, by invitation, held its meetings in the Methodist church of that city. There were 101 ordained ministers and 55 ruling elders present, representing six presbyteries and the entire state of North Carolina. Rev. Mr. Rose, moderator, presided with efficiency and dignity. It was a pleasant harmonious and working session of the representatives of the Presbyterian church.

Columbus Day at Claremont.

Surely the old days of life and enthusiasm have returned to the citizens of Hickory, and the desire to enjoy themselves has once again taken possession of them.

While many enjoyable events have been chronicled as having taken place in the spacious halls of Claremont College, yet no more enjoyable an evening has ever been spent by any larger crowd than gathered there Friday evening to participate in the celebration of the four-hundredth anniversary of the discovery of this America of ours. The spacious chapel was packed with eager listeners, and well were they pleased, as was shown by the applause which announced a victory for each participant in the programme.

The most pleasing feature were the "Reading from Columbus' Journal," by Miss Hedrick, which was artistically performed; a "Recitation," by eight little girls, which was most creditable, giving unmistakable evidence of accurate and pains-taking instruction; the "Chorus from Mendelssohn," by a choral class, obligated by Mrs. Chadwick, was rapturously applauded; "Recitation, Christopher C.," by Miss Lois Seagle, was among the most appreciated of the evening's exercises.

The speech by the orator of the evening, Rev. J. A. Weston, needs no favorable mention by us. It was an epigrammatic expression of the proud and patriotic sentiment of the gathered assemblage critically expressed, and very highly appreciated by his hearers.

While the singing of the doxology was more generally joined in by the assemblage, the "Old North State" was inspiring. Through the whole performance Miss Gregory presided at the piano, and her accompaniments were rendered with a precision and force which won favor for her with her audience.

The entertainment was a success in every particular, and has placed our people under lasting obligations to Claremont.

Unsuccessful Attempt to Wreck a Train.

WINSTON, N. C., Oct. 22.--Unknown parties made an unsuccessful attempt to wreck the incoming passenger train on the Norfolk & Western railroad from Roanoke, near Martinsville, last night, by placing a cross tie on the track on a forty-five foot trestle.

The Masons in Session.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 21.--Supreme Council Scottish Rite Masons for the southern and western states, who are holding their biennial council here, decided today by a large majority to hold the next biennial session at St. Louis.

Minister Lincoln To Speak.

New York, October 20.--Minister Lincoln returned from Washington yesterday. He had been assigned by the speaker's bureau to make three speeches in Indiana next week, the dates to be arranged by the state committee. It is expected that he will also speak in Illinois.

on: Do Hush!

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Oct. 22.--R. A. Moseley, chairman of the republican state committee of Alabama, claims that the Kolb electors will carry Alabama by 75,000 majority.

In a private letter written a month ago Judge Walter Q. Gresham said: "Cleveland will carry all the southern states, Indiana, New Jersey and part of Michigan. I am told that he will carry New York. He has an even chance in Illinois, a good show in Wisconsin, and may carry several western states. In short, I think he will be elected. His chances would be better if the late congress had acted more wisely. Indiana is as certainly democratic this year as Kentucky. I know whereof I speak."--[Shelby Aurora.

Newton Barbecue.

Senator Ransom will be at the Newton barbecue, October 28th, and will address the people. All democrats in the vicinity of Hickory are earnestly requested to report at the park in Hickory on Friday morning at 8:30. This club urges the importance of coming on horseback, as a mounted procession will be formed, leaving Hickory at 8:30, arriving at Conover at 9:30, where the procession will be augmented, arriving in Newton at 10 o'clock. The following gentlemen have been named as marshals to move the procession: J. D. Elliott, chief; J. H. Aiken, H. A. Murrill, J. C. Martin, W. L. Jones. A special rate--40c for round trip--has been secured over the narrow gauge for those not having horses.

Granite Falls Items.

Last Sunday communion services were held at the Lutheran church at this place. Rev. C. H. Bernheim preached two excellent sermons for the occasion. Next Sunday, Dr. R. L. Abernethy will preach in the Methodist church here. Our merchants are receiving their fall stock of goods. Our thanks to the Hickory cornet band (junior) for its music on the 18th are hereby tendered. They acquitted themselves well and are a nice looking set of young men. We presume they are all democrats. Continue to practice, young men. You may be called upon to furnish music for the burial of the Gideonite people's party soon after the 8th of November. Its death is sure. Its body should be embalmed and placed in a glass coffin in a conspicuous place, where passers-by may see it and imagine it silently saying: "If I am so soon done for, what the de'il was I begun for!"

Buildings Dedicated.

CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 22.--Six States, including New York, Massachusetts and Ohio, took advantage to-day of the presence of their leading officials in Chicago to dedicate their pavilions in the World's Fair grounds.

The State buildings, although as a rule far from finished now, will form one of the most interesting features of the great exposition. They occupy an area second only to that of the big Fair buildings, and scattered among them are the structures put up by many foreign countries.

By far the handsomest State building, as well as the largest, is that of New York. It contains a columned hall, 56 by 80 feet, vestibules, banquet-rooms, kitchens, bedrooms and all the appointments of a club-house.

In this issue will be found a notice about a visit of specialist Dr. E. Hadley Greene, of Asheville. He comes well recommended. Read his notice.

The Catawba county Sunday school association will hold its annual convention at Catawba in the Baptist church November 17th, 1892. The work is non-sectarian and is under the auspices of the North Carolina state Sunday school association. All ministers, Sunday school superintendents and scholars regard less of denomination are cordially invited to attend.

18 3w W. S. RAMMAGE, Sec.

Mr. Editor:--Below I hand you twenty additional names for our democratic club.

Louis Bahman, R. W. Poteet, A. F. McCall, H. C. Dixon, J. D. Hefner, A. L. Whitener, N. L. Teague, J. W. McCall, Allen Barger, Rev. Mr. Chas. Levi L. Huffman, T. M. Mills, John Paslaw, W. H. Roof, A. L. Reese, J. C. Wessinger, E. N. Fry, D. E. Wagner, Geo. A. Miller and J. P. Huffman.

Respectfully,

W. P. HUFFMAN.

The above list makes a total of 138 members which he has secured for the club. Thirty-four were secured during the past week.

Here's a pointer and a big one for third party farmers: During Cleveland's administration cotton brought from 9 to 12 cents.

PURELY PERSONAL.

Mrs. A. M. Connelly, of McDowell county, is visiting her sister, the Rev. Mrs. C. G. Little.

Mrs. Martha Bonniwell, of Hutchinson, Minn., a niece of Mr. James Bonniwell, and Mrs. H. S. Shields, his daughter, of Chicago, Ill., are here to spend the winter.

W. A. Self, spent last week in Raleigh. He says the centennial celebration and fair were most creditable, and that he greatly enjoyed his visit to the capital.

LAND SALE.

By virtue of an order of the Superior Court of Catawba county, in special proceeding, Nathan S. Whitener vs. Daniel Yoder, wife and others, I will sell at Public Auction, at door of First National Bank of Hickory, on Monday, November 21st, 1892, a certain tract known as the John Whitehead land, the said land being sold for partition, and lying on the waters of Hixby's Fork containing 28.8 acres, said land has been divided into five equal parts and parceled as Nos. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, which plot can be seen by calling at my office. Said lots will be sold separately, and then the entire tract will be sold, and report made to the court.

Terms of Sale--20 per cent cash at confirmation of sale, residue on credit of six months, secured by note bearing 8 per cent interest. For further information apply to J. G. HALL, Commissioner.

DR. E. HADLEY GREENE. Dr. E. Hadley Greene, formerly of Charlotte, later of Atlanta, Ga., is now located in Asheville for the benefit of his own health, and proposes, for some time to come, to make regular professional visits, monthly, to Hickory and other points for the purpose of seeing and treating any who are afflicted with any form of chronic disease, who may desire his services.

Dr. Greene is well known throughout the south as a very skillful specialist in the treatment of chronic diseases. His character as a correct and conscientious physician is well established. His success, for more than twenty years, in curing that most dreadful of all diseases--cancer, of which he has treated 2,190 cases--has won for him a reputation second to none on this continent. He almost never fails in making rapid, easy and permanent cures of the more common chronic troubles, such as dyspepsia, function heart troubles, diseases of the liver and bowels, chronic catarrh, hernia or rupture, diseases peculiar to females, and most other long standing and difficult diseases.

His charges are very moderate--only $5 to $10 per month for ordinary chronic diseases, which also pays for all medicine. These charges are, as a matter of course, always cash. Examinations and consultations are free. Remember the date--

MONDAY, OCTOBER 31st, at Hickory Inn. Call and see him.

ADMINISTRATOR'S SALE.

NORTH CAROLINA. In the Superior Court, CATAWBA COUNTY. J. D. ELLIOTT, Administrator of Simeon Barger, vs. FANNIE BARGER, SIMEON BARGER and others.

ORDER OF SALE. This cause coming on to be heard upon the petition of plaintiff and by consent of C. A. Gilley, Esq., attorney for defendants, and it appearing to the court that the personal estate of Simeon Barger, dec'd, is insufficient to pay his debts and the charges of administration, It is, therefore, ordered and decreed that J. D. Elliott, administrator of the said Simeon Barger, have license to sell the following described parcel of land: Beginning at a stake and running W. 1/2 poles to a stake, corner of lot No. 7, thence S. 3/4 W. 2 1/2 poles to a stake in the line of the line, thence N. 75 E. 17 poles to the beginning, in order to pay so much of said debt and charges as the personal estate may be insufficient to discharge. It is further ordered and decreed that the said J. D. Elliott, administrator after 30 days' advertisement in some newspaper published in Catawba county, proceed to sell said land at the back door in the town of Hickory, to the highest bidder at public auction, upon such terms as he may deem best for the estate and report his proceedings without delay to this court. And this course is retained for further direction, 1892. This, 17th day of October, 1892. J. F. HERMAN, C. S. C.

By virtue of the above decree I will to the highest bidder, at the back door, in Hickory, N. C., on Friday, Nov. 11, '92, the above described tract of land, containing two acres, more or less. J. D. ELLIOTT, Administrator.
