Mr. J. B. Lansdell, representing P. F. Collier, publisher, New York, was in the city several days this week. Mr. Lansdell is a hustler, and we congratulate Mr. Collier on the wisdom of his selection.
Berryville, Catawba county, adjoining Hickory on the west, has been incorporated and, although a very weak goslin in comparison to this city, she is now our competitor for municipal honors. What shall the harvest be?
For thorough-bred Indian Game and Black Langshan Eggs, for hatching, go to or write to L. H. Phillips of Hickory N. C. 10-1in.
From Mr. H. L. Moore, who was at Marion Superior Court, we learn that the case of the murderer Secrest has, by a change of venue, gone to Rutherfordton, from which we greatly fear he will be sent to the Asylum instead of the gallows.
The members of the Hickory Library are to meet at the residence of Mr. C. N. Graves this, Thursday afternoon at 5 o'clock to arrange for the publication of the Ladies Edition of the PRESS AND CAROLINIAN on March 21st, for the benefit of the Library.
The PRESS AND CAROLINIAN has been duly supplied with wood and a sufficiency of it for itself, and some of its neighborly friends this winter by our paying the cash for it. Very little wood has been received by us, however, on account of subscriptions, though the offer to accept it in payment stood open.
The Usury Law.
Mr. S. F. Mordecai of Raleigh makes the following Statement in regard to the recent 6 per cent act of the Legislature.
"Although state usury laws are not binding upon national banks any further than to fix the rate of interest which may be charged and the penalties and forfeitures prescribed by the State statutes cannot be enforced against national banks, still the forfeitures and penalties prescribed by the act of Congress against a national bank for charging a rate of interest in excess of that fixed by laws of the state in which the bank is situated may be enforced, and enforced in the state courts."

Spring Medicine
All the Ills of the Season Cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla.
"In the spring I was all run down, my appetite was poor, and had severe headaches. I was also afflicted with liver and kidney trouble, indigestion and constipation. A friend advised me to take Hood's Sarsaparilla. I did so and I began to feel much better. I could sleep nights, and Enjoy Good Rest.
I also began to eat more and my food digested well. I have now taken over seven bottles and everybody tells me I am the picture of health. When I felt so badly I weighed 110 pounds, although my usual weight had been 130 pounds. I now weigh 155 pounds and I owe it all to Hood's Sarsaparilla." MRS. LENORA S. SEMONS, Salem, North Carolina.
Hood's Sarsaparilla Cures
Hood's Pills cure Constipation by restoring the peristaltic action of the alimentary canal.

News from Granite Fall.
March 4th, 1895.
PRESS AND CAROLINIAN:
Mr. S. S. Hawkins, of Buffalo Cove, and Miss Etta Pipes were married at this place recently.
Mrs. Lingle, wife of Mr. Adam Lingle, living near this place, died last week.
Rev. Albert Sherrill preached an excellent sermon here yesterday. He is growing in favor with our people.
D. W. YOUNT.
Sunday, March 3rd, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Hoey gave a birth-day dinner to a few friends in honor of their infant son, little Franklin Ernest Hoey. By previous arrangement, Rev. F. L. Townsend, the Methodist minister, called about 3:30 and administered to the child the sacrament of baptism. The scene was solemn and most appropriate. If man can dedicate to his Maker his own heart, energies and substance, is it rational to withhold from Him the dedication of his children? The Savior gave marked emphasis to His love and consideration for children while upon earth, and we cannot believe that His partiality today is in the least abated.
The remains of the wife of Mr. E. F. Reid were carried from Lenoir through Hickory to Morganton where she was reared, last Monday. Mrs. Reid is a half sister of Mrs. Judge John Gray Bynum. There were a large concourse of people at the depot in Morganton to meet the corpse and family. Mr. Reid is now the auditor of the C. & L. Railroad and is located in Lenoir. He was formerly connected with the business industries of Morganton and latterly was in the office of Auditor Clinard of the C. & L., in Hickory during the Receivership of Col. J. G. Hall. Our Mr. Reid, the telegraph operator, is a brother of Mr. E. F. Reid, the be-reaved husband.
The brute Hoke Secrest is on trial at Marion this week for the murder of his wife near Hickory some years, a decade, ago. This brute has already cost the people nearly $20,000.00 and it is about time to stop his career. He has subpoenaed witnesses from nearly every where. Some lawyers can do some very funny things some times.
A friend has remarked that if he lived in Catawba county and was bald headed and had been at court at Newton he would sue us for damages.
For seven years or more Mrs. W. D. Louder, of Quincey, Ky., was subject to severe attacks of cramp colic. Mr. S. R. Morse, a druggist of that place, recommended Chamberlain's Colic Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which has effected a permanent cure, saving her much suffering besides the trouble and expense of sending for a doctor, which was often necessary. For sale by O. M. Royster Druggist.
We forgive President Cleveland for a whole lot of his foolishness; on account of his appointing Senator Ransom as minister to Mexico.
