The Ladies' Aid Society of the Reformed church will hold a conundrum supper at the Elliott building next Monday night, April 15th. There will be 22 numbers, and the admission fee 1 cent. Why such an odd way of doing business is a conundrum for you to solve.

We are pleased to see Mr. George Cline again at home. He is looking remarkably well and rumors are afloat that he contemplates matrimony in the near future. He is quite a sensible fellow, and therefore, we feel disinclined to question the accuracy of the report.

The patent attorneys, C. A. Snow & Co., of Washington, D. C., report patents for the following named North Carolinians: B. J. Best, Shine, stone-engraving machine; W. E. Martin, Salem, separable button; G. Vyne, North Wilkesboro, nut-lock; F. P. White, Shallotte, hame-hook.

No. 42, through freight going west, was the train wrecked about two miles beyond Marion at 11 o'clock Monday night. The engineer, W. E. Lee, of Concord, and the fireman, R. L. Earley were both instantly killed, being crushed beneath the ponderous engine. The damage to train was great. Mr. Early lived at Elmwood.

Services will be held at the Reformed church next Sunday. The morning service will consist largely in music, a confirmation service and the Holy Communion. At night a missionary service will be held. This is self-denial week with the Reformed people, and their offerings will be gathered at this meeting. Rev. Mr. Holshouser will deliver an address at night.

Mr. Sam C. Gates, a thoroughbred Kentuckian who was at Catawba Springs two years ago, and who told us about Watauga and Ashe counties, N. C., being the finest country in the world for horse-raising, an account of which we published at the time, is back at Catawba Springs for the Spring season. He has been in the South since leaving here two years ago.

Mrs. Vron, of New York, who has been visiting South during this winter, and who is a friend of Mrs. Edwina Chadwick, upon whose recommendation she came to Hickory for the season, and who has been sojourning at the residence of Mrs. Ben. F. Seagle, will sing a soprano solo at the Church of the Ascension next Sunday—Easter.

Mr. Oliver Mull and two companions started across the Catawba river in a skiff Monday morning, and, from a cause to us unknown, the skiff sank, resulting in the drowning of Mull. His companions swam ashore. Young Mull's father is Mr. Newton Mull, who resides in Burke county, some six miles from Hickory. The drowned man's body has been recovered.

The PRESS AND CAROLINIAN has one of the best equipped and most substantial offices in the State. With our power presses, abundant supply of type, and all the paraphernalia of a modern printing establishment, we are prepared to meet the wants of the public quickly and efficiently. Our editor believes in having everything in elegant style, and will accept nothing below that standard.

The Jefferson Literary Society, of Davis Military School, has invited the editor of the PRESS AND CAROLINIAN to attend its Annual Celebration, Monday, April 15th, 1895, 8 p. m. The programme is excellent, and our young friend, Cadet E. Lyerly, will declaim "Thermopylae," a most excellent selection, and, if it was at all convenient, our editor would attend the exercises. Thanks for invitation.

On Friday and Saturday, April 5th and 6th, the millinery opening day of Bowles & Doll, their store was literally crowded from morning till night by the ladies, who were delighted with the elegant display of the large and handsome line of fashionable millinery. The handsome goods admired by the bright eyes, and the beautiful happy faces of the visitors, made the salesroom a scene of joy and loveliness.

Spring Medicine

Is a necessity because the tonic of winter air is gone, and milder weather, increased moisture, accumulated impurities in the blood and debilitated condition of the body, open the way for that tired feeling, nervous troubles, and other ills. The skin, mucous membrane and the various organs strive in vain to relieve the impure current of life. They all welcome to assist Nature at this time when she most needs help, to purify the blood, tone and strengthen the laboring organs and build up the nerves.

"I was almost sick in bed last spring and I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. I grew better in a short time and now whenever I feel tired and drowsy in the morning and do not sleep well at night I take some of Hood's Sarsaparilla and about one or two of Hood's Pills." J. W. SANDERS, Wise, West Virginia.

Purifies The Blood

"I have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla and found that it gives me an appetite. It strengthens me and purifies my blood." MISS LYDIA MADDOX, Partlow, Virginia.

Hood's Pills the after-dinner pill and family cathartic. Sec.

S. W. HANEY & SON.

The tremendous rain of Sunday night made an unprecedented rise in the Catawba river, bringing down the John's river bridge, compelling the Catawba River Lumber Co. to open their boom for its passage. Current reports place the company's loss at 1,500; logs but from Mr. F. R. Whiting, the secretary and treasurer of the company, the loss is placed at 500 logs. The river rose six feet in one hour.

Mrs. L. B. Wetmore, of Lincolnton, died at the home of her father, Mr. Jarrett, at Newton Saturday night at 1 a. m., and was buried Sunday afternoon in the Newton cemetery. The deceased was the wife of Mr. Lemuel B. Wetmore a distinguished attorney and a brother of the Rev. Thomas C. Wetmore, who filled the Episcopal pulpit here, while Rev. Mr. Weston was absent in New York.

SALE OF LAND FOR TAXES.

To the delinquents herein named, and to the public, notice is hereby given that taxes for the year 1894 on the real estate herein specified, due the City of Hickory, remain unpaid, and that the undersigned by order of the Board of Aldermen of said City and by virtue of the powers conferred by the charter of the same, will, on the 4th day of May, 1895, at the door of the City Hall, sell the said real estate at public outcry, to satisfy said taxes and costs of advertising and sale.
