

Press and Carolinian. THE HICKORY PRINTING COMPANY Hickory, North Carolina.

GET IN LINE. RIDE AN 1895 BICYCLE. We have them—and more coming. Good as the best; strongest frame made. Best detachable tires; not dependent on inflation to hold on rim.

Hammocks at Royster's Drug Store. 17-3t

The Washington correspondents who are coming South to Atlanta and other points will visit Hickory and be entertained by our citizens at the Hickory Inn.

Penny Tablets at the Racket.

All subscribers and members of the Hickory Library are requested to keep in mind the regular monthly meeting to be held in the room Friday, May 3rd, at 4.30 p. m.

Mr. J. E. Cline has lost a gold pen, No. 8, has rubber stock, marked with the letters "J. E. C." his initials. The finder will be suitably rewarded, if the pen is returned to Mr. Cline.

Select your Spring dress from the White Front.

Next Monday is the city election, and every citizen should determine his duty for himself and perform it faithfully. A man is an unworthy citizen who wears the collar of a boss.

Ladies' Misses' and children's fast black Hose for 5 cents at the Racket Store.

The Rev. James A. Weston was present at the consecration of the new church at the Thompson Orphanage Wednesday afternoon. Bishop Cheshire conducted the consecration services.

Messrs. Allen & Leonard are too busy this week with Butterick patterns to write advertisements.

Mr. R. N. Harris has returned home after quite a little tour through the State. He is very much gratified at the success attending the introduction of his patent, and purposes pushing it vigorously.

Free ride from the neighboring towns to the White Front to all purchasers over $10.00. 17tf

If there are those in this section who wish to make exhibit, especially of minerals at the Atlanta Exposition the PRESS AND CAROLINIAN will use its good offices in aiding them in any way to do so.

Fancy Candles, toilet articles, coal oil, etc., always on hand at H. L. Moo's drug store, at rock-bottom prices. 16tf

Mr. J. B. Lansdale, of Atlanta, Ga., now collector for the publishing house of P. F. Collier, of New York, was in Hickory again Tuesday. He is a pleasant gentleman and, in our judgment, a genuine hustler.

Base Balls and Bats at Royster's Drug Store. 17-3t

Two deaths occurred in Bobtown Saturday and Sunday, among the colored people. Joseph, the son of Simpson, Norwood, about 12 years of age, died Saturday of consumption. Sunday Wm Patterson lost a child.

O. M. Royster is dispensing the following cold drinks at his soda fountain: Coca-Cola, Pine-apple Sherbets, Pepsin Tonic, Milk Shakes, Root Beer, Etc. 17-3t

Patents have been procured for the following North Carolinians by C. A. Snow & Co., Washington City attorneys: C. Bailey, Kinston, combined garden hoe and rake; O. Mergenthaler, Heilig's Mill, a horse-hitching device; H. S. Lucas, Franklin, corundum mill.

We learn that Messrs. Odell and party, including Messrs. Duke, will be in Hickory today to look after the establishment of a cotton factory on Catawba river opposite Hickory, which was recently purchased by Messrs. Odell through Mr. John N. Bohannon.

Tuesday night, at 8:30, the voters of the town, who are opposed to the city ticket nominated on the 22nd of April, assembled in the law office of W. A. Self, and nominated the following Citizens' ticket: W. A. Self, Mayor; J. Worth Elliott, A. Y. Sigmon and Jones W. Shuford for Aldermen. Mr. Elliott has declined.

The North American Review for May opens with an interesting article upon "The Preacher and His Province," by his Eminence Cardinal Gibbons. It discusses the various duties and responsibilities resting upon ministers of religion, irrespective of creed, and advocates in a practical manner a closer study by the clergy of their fellow men.

Marbles I sent a dozen at the Racket Store.

Last week the safe of Mr. E. L. Shuford was robbed of $57, and the money was traced to the possession of several little boys, from whom about all was recovered. We refrain from naming the boys, out of respect and sympathy for the parents. It is seldom, in our judgment, that good citizens result from children raised in the purlieus of the street.

Col. M. E. Thornton now has the finest pair of carriage horses in Catawba county. Presuming a little, he instructed us not to mention the carriage horses; but, job or no job, the local editor of this paper purposes laying before its readers the news transpiring in this locality. We never commit trespass, from the fact, when committed against us, it precipitates a spontaneous attack of la grippe. It's no go with us.

A copy of the work of Rev. James A. Weston, of Hickory, about Marshal Michael Ney, of France, and Peter Stuart Ney, of North Carolina, being one and the same, is in our hands. We were favored with the author's initial copy. It is splendidly published—good paper and better print and nicely bound. The illustrations are very fine and are numerous. It is published by Thomas Whittaker, of 2 and 3 Bible House, New York. Price $3.00. There will be some on sale at the drug store of Mr. Royster in Hickory. To read the book is but to be convinced.

The mocking birds are rendering their changeful tunes in many of the tree tops in the yards in Hickory. What a pleasure it is to have mocking birds singing in unconfined all around your house! There are some in the yard at our editor's. They hatched there in a small shade tree last year, and a miscreant small boy stole the young ones before they were able to be fed by any but their mother. They committed a trespass in order to steal the birds. If it is repeated this year, he intends to prosecute the party who does it.

A Lost Watch.

LOST—A lady's single case gold watch with chain, in the town of Hickory. The finder will be liberally rewarded by returning the same to Claremont College.

CHARLOTTE'S GREAT FIRE.

Losses Estimated at Not Less Than Seventy-Five Thousand Dollars.

A great fire in Charlotte April 21st, originating in the warehouse of Sanders & Blackwood. Mr. J. M. Kendrick, a livery keeper opposite the warehouse, discovered the fire at 3:30, and instantly gave the alarm. The fire department was soon on the ground. Thousands of people blocked the streets. The water was thrown on the building, but for lack of pressure, it could not for a time reach the fire. The delay was fatal. The following are the names of the firms burned out, or damaged by fire and water, with the amount of insurance carried: H. G. Link, insurance, $5,500; Field & Co., $5,000; R. A. Duncan, $5,000; H. Watts, $1,800; Howell, Orr & Co., $4,000; W. H. Hoover, $3,000; J. H. Sloan, $1,000; J. M. Kendrick, $500; M. E. Kendrick, $1,500; Holton building, $10,000; Brown & Weddington, $19,500; Springs & Co., $1,000.

Salem, N. C.

Spring Medicine

All the Ills of the Season Cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"In the spring I was all run down, my appetite was poor, and had severe headaches. I was also afflicted with liver and kidney trouble, indigestion and constipation. A friend advised me to take Hood's Sarsaparilla. I did so and I began to feel much better. I could sleep nights, and Enjoy Good Rest.

I also began to eat more and my food digested well. I have now taken over seven bottles and everybody tells me I am the picture of health. When I felt so badly I weighed 110 pounds, although my usual weight had been 130 pounds. I now weigh 155 pounds and I owe it all to Hood's Sarsaparilla." MRS. LENORA S. SEMONS, Salem, North Carolina.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Cures

Hood's Pills cure Constipation by restoring the peristaltic action of the alimentary canal.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report

Royal Baking Powder ABSOLUTELY PURE

AS TO THE DISPENSARY.

"The Young Lutheran," a monthly journal devoted to the interests of practical Christianity, and which is circulated among the young people in Lutheran families, in its issue for April 1895, has the following notice on its first page:

"The article, 'Three Times as Sober as We,' contains food for reflection. We believe that Lutheran lands are the only ones known in which the use of intoxicating drink is actually decreasing. The method is sensible."

The article referred to is as follows, and is very interesting reading:

"Time was," says a recent traveler in Scandinavia, "when Norway, Sweden (and Denmark?) were the most drunken countries in Europe; now Norway is three times as sober as the United States." The State has the monopoly of the liquor business and puts it under the control of responsible men. No man can make a cent from it. The man who is put behind the counter gets a salary, but this does not in any way depend on the business he does over the bar. He is promoted for making the smallest possible sales. If he deviates from the rules laid down to guide him, he at once is dismissed.

"Bergen is a Norwegian seaport, and has a population of about 35,000. In it there are a dozen places where liquor is retailed. Each is a plain room, perfectly clean, without even a picture on the wall. There is no chair in the room where the liquors are sold, and the official behind the bar has to content himself with a stool. On the walls are the printed rules of the company charged with sales, and all must obey them. The man behind the bar most likely is a church member, and he must be a responsible man.

"If a man asks for a drink, he lays down his coin and the pure, undrugged spirit is poured out for him. There is no credit. The drinker is not allowed to remain in the room, and if he wants another glass he is told to come back after four hours. The glass is so small that he might take it full every three hours in the day and not get drunk.

"A working man cannot take a drink on his way to work, for the saloons cannot be opened before 8 o'clock, nor can he get it at noon, for they are closed from 12 to 1:30. In the evening they must close at 7:30 in winter and at 8 o'clock in summer. The day before a holiday they close at noon; and they are closed before working men are paid off. All profits go to the State, and are used for the erection of public institutions.

"The policy is to crowd out the use of alcohol, and the figures show that it reaches this end. Politics are unknown in regulating the traffic."—The Young Lutheran.

A CARD.

The preachers have prepared a defence of their statements in the article entitled "The True Situation," but owing to the absence of parties interested, its publication is deferred.

We were handed the above Wednesday morning, by Rev. Mr. Cashwell, from Rev. Mr. Moser, who had left an article with us the evening before. The article was returned to him.—ED. P. & C.

FOR SALE: Two hundred or more bushels of Rye. Apply to M. E. Thornton, at Hickory, or to W. F. Gibbs at Bridgewater. Price 70 cents per bushel at Bridgewater.

BOARDING HOUSE.

Persons wishing private board can find accommodations at Mrs. Fannie Morrison's, but a short distance South of the Hickory Inn. Rooms carpeted and neatly furnished, and the table always supplied with substantial fare. Price $1.75 per week. 15-tf

Papa's Pants Would Do for Willie

If they were made over and dyed with Diamond Dyes, the great home money-saver. The children's clothes—the faded cloak, wrapper or dress—can be made to look like new, at a cost of only 10 cents, and no experience is needed.

DIAMOND DYES

come in more than 40 shades, and the Fast Blacks are fast.

Direction Book and 40 samples of colored cloth, free.

WELLS, RICHARDSON & CO., Burlington, Vt.

THE NEW YORK HERALD

AMERICA'S

Foremost Newspaper.

DAILY AND SUNDAY.

A MAGAZINE FOR 5 CENTS.

The SUNDAY HERALD increases in beauty and value with every issue. It is a veritable MAGAZINE of contemporaneous literature of the best class from the pens of Famous Foreign and American Authors. It contains each week a Special Supplement of handsome pictures in colors, half tone and black and white. $2 a year.

The DAILY HERALD contains all the news of the world gathered by its own correspondents and reporters and forwarded by unequalled cable and telegraphic facilities. $8 a year.

Address THE HERALD, Herald-Square, New York.

SALE OF CITY PROPERTY.

By virtue of the powers of sale contained in two deeds of trust executed May 11th, 1893 and August 5th 1893 by C. G. Watson to the First Building & Loan Association of Hickory, N. C., and duly registered—and because of default made in the payment of interest and dues specified in said deeds and to satisfy the claims of said Association, I, A. L. Crouse, Secretary-Treasurer and Trustee will on Saturday, June 8th, 1895, at 2 p. m. before the Bank in Hickory, offer at public outcry to the highest bidder, the John or C. G. Watson property in the north-western part of Hickory, being about four acres of land with large residence recently remodeled; lot known as No. 1 on the plat of the Bank heirs. Exact boundaries furnished upon application.

TERMS—Cash, unless otherwise agreed upon. This May 1st, 1895. A. L. CROUSE, Attorney. Sec-Treas. & Trustee.

"TWO OF THE BEST HOTELS IN THE SOUTH."

The "Hickory Inn,"

HICKORY, N. C.

AN ALL-YEAR-ROUND RESORT. ALTITUDE 1400 FT.

The "INN" is built of brick, stone and iron, is lighted by gas and electricity, and has all the conveniences of a modern home. Our climate is specially recommended for the cure of Insomnia and affords almost instant relief to sufferers from Asthma and Bronchitis.

The Hotel Berkeley,

ASHEVILLE, N. C.

EQUALLY ADAPTED FOR TOURIST AND COMMERCIAL TRAVEL.

Location central, handsomely furnished, steam heat and electric lights in every room. The BERKELEY is up to date, in all its appointments.

Rates $2.00 to $3.00 per day.

FRANK LOUGHRAN, Proprietor.

Local Items in Brief.

Read J. C. Martin's extensive ad. Attorney Crisp, of Granite, was in the city again Wednesday.

Rev. Mr. Townsend preached at Hook's Chapel Sunday morning.

Ice-cold Soda Water at Royster's Drug Store. 17-3t

The weather cleared up Tuesday at noon after three days of clouds and rain.

Mr. J. A. Martin was in Charlotte last week, returning to this city Saturday.

Look at J. C. Martin's Nobby Spring clothing before you purchase.

Mr. G. G. Bonniwell has not yet fully recovered from his recent painful illness.

Mr. Joseph Walters, our converted Jew, addressed the Morganton Presbytery.

Ladies' fine silk sun Umbrellas at the White Front.

Professor C. H. Eittle has returned from his drumming tour through the Virginias.

Miss Nora Shuford is now book-keeping for Mr. E. L. Shuford, her brother.

Ladies' Vests for 5 cents at the Racket Store.

Mr. John F. Miller was called to Statesville Monday on important business.

Mrs. Bessie Smyre, of Newton, is visiting Mrs. M. L. Cline and other friends in the city.

85 Suits of Spring Clothing just received, at E. L. Shuford's. 17-2t

Miss Anna Robinson attended the Hickory ball last week, returning home Saturday.

Mr. Abel Cline, a tenant of Mr. Ephraim Hawn, has captured a nice swarm of bees.

Fish Hooks and Lines at the Racket Store.

WANTED—A wagon load of wheat straw. Apply at the PRESS AND CAROLINIAN.

Capt. Crouse hived a swarm of bees Tuesday afternoon that were trying to give him the g. b.

The gardens of Hickory could not very well be in a more promising condition than at this date.

Mr. Herbert Chase, of Huntsville, Ala., has been in the city several days mingling with old acquaintances.

Lower than the lowest—we always have bottom prices. Don't fail to see us. KILLIAN & CLINE.

Money to lend on real estate at 6 per cent. Long time and easy payments. Apply to J. W. OTLEY, care of this office.

Squire S. E. Killian married at his house, April 21st, Mr. L. Jarrett and Miss Mattie Whitener, both of Hickory.

Clothing cheaper than ever at the Racket. 1t

It is currently reported that one of Hickory's most charming ladies will shortly be wedded. Can't, just now, give names or date.

Mr. D. M. Hodges, of Raleigh, special agent of the Mutual Life Insurance Co., of New York, was in the city the first of the week.

Light-weight Clerical suits in sack and frock styles at J. C. Martin's Clothing Store.

There was a very large attendance at the sale of horses, cattle, etc., at Haney & Son, on Linville river, near Short Off, last Tuesday.

To ostracise men for opinion's sake is villainous. Only unworthy and cowardly men are swayed from right as they comprehend it by the frowns of others.

We are headquarters for latest styles in Dress goods, Notions, etc. Don't fail to see us before you buy. 19-2t KILLIAN & CLINE.