BANKER'S ROTHSCHILDS AND MONEY.

It is a mistake and untrue to charge that Americans or any one connected with America—that is to say, the United States—had any thing to do with the bomb throwing or attempted dynamiteism upon the head of the great "Inter-National" Banking House of the Rothschilds' family and their hundred or more clerks in their, one of several, Banking Houses, on the "Inter-National" plan, in the street Lafitte, (of Brigandage fame in History) (Lafitte and his band)—which recently took place in Paris, France.

The people of the United States are a chivalrous, high minded people. And while they do not believe in the pound of flesh. Shylockian doctrine, they believe in standing to contracts. But they do not find in any code, either in law or equity or any kind of ethics, a doctrine which requires the great mass of the people or the whole body politic to renounce their standards of values because forsooth there are a few insidiously acquired and dearly bought contracts in isolated cases wherein in some instances the Nation itself has agreed to pay in one standard of value and in other cases wherein individuals and corporations have agreed to pay in the same standard of value. This does not operate to control or bind the whole body politic and in severalty. They took the contracts for interest and principal on certain bonds and securities to be paid in gold and gold alone hoping that thereby and through the very means they are resorting to in this country and in other Nations, to accomplish the very ends they are driving at. To wit: To force a general law by this and by other Nations to sanction by open statute law the payment of all debts in gold, whether they be public or private debts. The people of the United States are not ready for it. They will not submit to it. They would not resort to the bomb or to dynamite. But they can and will place an estoppel at the ballot box. That is their safeguard.

And Messrs de Baron or Baron de Rothschilds and his family and Kith and Kin and all others in sympathy with him and them can make up their sweet minds to back out and down from the attempted nefarious scheme faster than they ever got into it. The people of the United States will do and will pay their debts, but they will pay them as agreed upon and in the coin of the realm of these United States of North America. De Baron Rothschilds had better consider that we elect a President in this country every four years, and have a habit of voting for a Congress to suit our notion every two years. Also that the effete body called the U. S., Senate is being rapidly disintegrated—made anew.

There is published in this issue of the PRESS AND CAROLINIAN a History of the family and their dealings.

The death of Col. A. H. D. (Baldy) Williams last week, takes away from North Carolina a gentleman of the old school. True in manhood and true to his State and people in politics and wise in counsel.

DO NOT GO; BUT COME.

What is the use of being un-businesslike in a purely business matter? With regard to this question of a Fusion, or rather absorption, by the Democratic party of the Populists, it is purely a business matter of a public nature. There are some persons who would, and do, say "let the Populists go." Now there are some mighty good people, some in fact as good as there are in North Carolina, who have gone with the Populist party. Some of them did so just to teach the Democratic party a lesson, and they taught it pretty effectually in showing that they would forgo their Democracy and could and would defeat the Democratic party. And they will do so again if the Democratic newspapers and the Democratic "leaders" persist in their untoward course of misrepresenting and villifying them all the time. Many of them, thousands of them, want to come back and will come back if they are not "forced" to remain away. They want fair play and they will have it, else they will "force" themselves into the majority in trying to obtain it. They are not acting upon "personalisms" only in the sense that they know what is what and what is right and like the "stingere" they will sting back when trod upon. It is a good idea in politics as in every thing else in life, not to goad a man too far; because if you do he is liable to turn and hurt you very badly before you know it. Just so with regard to the Populists in this State. If they want to fuse back into the Democratic party, which is in the minority without them, let them, come and be with the Democratic party. But if proscription is to prevail, let her go gallagher! But as for us, we are tired of it. Let them not go, but come, and a whole lot more with them. We can take them in under our silver wings. Let those who do not like it wade in grassy mire to their shoe tops.

A gold crank writing in a Charlotte paper under an alias, a deceptive and very foolish way of doing business, a way in which in some cases persons are or should be sent to the chain gang, or farther, gets it into his head that he "takes issue" with ex-Senator Jarvis on account of his utterances at Morganton recently. This sneak signs himself "Merchant." A kind of dark lantern "Merchant." This is all we have to say about the case. Let the great apostle of the people speak for himself as to the remainder that is necessary to be said.

Racy writing with a brush of breeziness makes rich reading and flows ideas into your own head. Read the one horse PRESS AND CAROLINIAN and knock yourself down with an argument that fits the case; or a case that fits. We have to publish every Wednesday afternoon in order for the people to get through reading by Sunday morning so they can go to Sunday School.

"The Hickory PRESS AND CAROLINIAN states that the Waldenses who settled in Burke county are contemplating returning to Italy—their old home.—Wilkesboro Chronicle.

The PRESS AND CAROLINIAN failed to make any such statement. Read it over again brother; read it again.

Jenks: Roloff, the Cuban General, is a Pole.

Mr. deSalol: Then Roll him on.

Jenks: Or, knock Simmons with him?

Mr. deSalol: Oh, Simmons is chunked enough. Let him alone.

CHRONIC MALARIA.

Three Forms of Chronic Malaria, But All Are Equally Difficult of Cure.

There are three kinds of chronic malaria, namely that form which originally was contracted in a malarial district as simple chills and fever—acute malaria—and when the swamps were improved and the germs became nearly extinct the disease became chronic. The second form is caused by continuing to live in malarial districts in spite of the malaria, and acquiring the chronic form, although taking quinine all the time. The third is that disease which many people acquire every fall when they are not entirely well in other ways. The symptoms of these three forms of chronic malaria are the same: chills rigors, coated tongue, bad breath, disturbed digestion, constant headache, constipation, biliousness, and many other symptoms which the malarial subject knows all too well.

Now, in nearly all of these cases the patients have tried quinine, expecting to be cured; but in every case have been disappointed. Quinine will not cure chronic malaria. How many failures have demonstrated this fact over and over again. But there is a remedy which rarely fails to cure promptly and permanently. It has cured thousands of cases of chronic malaria and is curing them right along. This remedy is Peruna. It can be procured at any drug store, and should be given a trial by every one who is suffering from chronic malaria.

A medical book devoted exclusively to the treatment, causes and cure of this disease—chronic malaria—will be sent free to any address by The Peruna Drug Manufacturing Company, Columbus, Ohio.

Second Edition of Historic Doubts.

The many friends of Rev. J. A. Weston will be glad to know that sales of his book, "Historic Doubts as to the Execution of Marshal Ney," have about exhausted the first edition and a second edition will be issued next month. It is also gratifying to know, as The Landmark does, that Mr. Weston has begun to receive a small royalty on his book, having received the first check from his publishers a few days ago.

This book has met with a most gratifying reception, too, from eminent critics. There have been few adverse criticisms, while favorable ones have been numerous. Our attention has been called to a lengthy review of the book by Mr. R. F. Putnam, a noted critic, which is published in a recent issue of the Brooklyn, (N. Y.) Home Journal. Mr. Putnam says: "The evidence to prove that Peter S. Ney, the North Carolina teacher, was the veritable marshal is voluminous and convincing." * * * "The mass of testimony in favor of the proposition that Peter S. Ney, the poor pedagogue, was none other than Michael Ney, the renowned warrior, is simply overwhelming." * * * "Most admirably has Mr. Weston accomplished his task, and most heartily should he be thanked for proving so conclusively that one of the world's most courageous and illustrious soldiers was saved from dishonorable death."—Statesville Landmark.

THE PRESS AND CAROLINIAN is also in possession of information to the effect that Rev. Major Weston has received a remittance from the Publisher, Mr. Thomas Whitaker, of New York, on account of his book for the First Edition. The book may be had in Hickory at Mr. O. M. Royster's drug store, where it is on sale at $3.00 per copy, the publisher's price. Also at all book-stores.

Are you taking SIMMONS LIVER REGULATOR, the "KING OF LIVER MEDICINES?" That is what our readers want, and nothing but that. It is the same old friend to which the old folks pinned their faith and were never disappointed. But another good recommendation for it is, that it is BETTER THAN PILLS, never gripes, never weakens, but works in such an easy and natural way, just like nature itself, that relief comes quick and sure, and one feels new all over. It never fails. Everybody needs take a liver remedy, and everyone should take only Simmons Liver Regulator.

Be sure you get it. The Red Z is on the wrapper. J. H. Zeilin & Co., Philadelphia.

Joseph A. Davis writes from Biloxi, Miss., to the New Orleans Picayune the following card:

"In the Picayune of the 2d I saw what seemed a dispatch dated September 1, which, mentioning the death of Mr. Payne, said he was a lifelong friend of Jefferson Davis, and that Mr. Davis owed him $100,000, which he forgot to pay. It is an infamous falsehood, as Mr. Davis never borrowed a cent from Mr. M. U. Payne in his life, and never borrowed a dollar which he did not repay. The lie told in the Omaha dispatch is made absurdly ridiculous in the further statement that Mr. Payne was sent for and came to New Orleans when Mr. Davis died to preach his funeral sermon. My impression is, the Mr. Payne mentioned was not a minister; he certainly was not sent for, nor did he come to the funeral of Mr. Davis. The absurd story of the kinship published in some Northern paper of Jefferson Davis and U. S. Grant has not the slightest foundation of truth. There was not the remotest relationship.

Miss Emma Bonney Sick.

Miss Emma Bonney returned to Hickory from Indiana last Sunday in a very sick condition. She returned here in order to be attended by her old physician, Dr. Baker. She had to be placed on a bunk made of the seats in the coach all the way from Louisville to Hickory. She does not now know how she got from the depot to her residence. Miss Bonney owns her residence here but is away most of the time teaching specialties, geology, etc., at large special schools. She is quite a scientist and is of the Van Renssalaer family of New York.

Ex-Mayor Cline's House Warming.

Ex-Mayor Edward B. Cline has just had built a fine new residence, and on last Friday night gave a reception to the young people of Hickory. The "house warming" was an elegant affair and all those present enjoyed themselves very much. It was a pleasant occasion.

The campmeeting at Mathews church was greatly enjoyed by all present. Friday addresses were made by Rev. Smith of Newton, H. J. Crooks, Esq. and Col. H. A. Forney. Saturday, Rev. H. M. Holsouser, Major S. M. Finger, Dr. Foil and Judge McCorkle. Major Finger, one of this congregation, made a good historical address. Rev. J. L. Murphy preached Saturday night, Sunday morning and night and Monday morning and evening, and confirmed eight members. The only original member of this church who is now living is Solomon Rudisill, Esq. of Iron Station. Mr. W. P. Reinhardt is one of the oldest members.

Killed by Corn Salve.

ANDERSON IND., Sep. 8. Phillip Væbinder, one of the oldest residents of the county, died to-day. His death was from gangrene, superinduced by a corn salve applied to a bleeding toe where a corn had been cut. The toe was amputated, but the poison, had been absorbed throughout the system.

FIRST-CLASS BOARDING!

MRS. MARY BONNIWELL owns one of the most comfortable and well arranged residences in the city, every room of which is nicely furnished, and persons desiring private boarding, with the best the market affords, are invited to call and inspect for themselves. #### Morganton Verdict Items.

"Tom Lowdermilk, the weather prophet says we will have twenty-eight snows this coming winter. He knows." Yes, it is an old saying that milk will turn to clabber in a thunder storm.

The stores are all open at night now. Most of our merchants closed their stores at 7:30 p. m. during June, July and August, but they are all open again now till nine p. m.

The 6th annual fair of the Burke County Fair Association promises to be a great success. New horses will run, and everything will be done to make the fair agreeable to everyone. Help it by making an exhibit.

We understand there is a movement on foot to purchase a rock crusher for the town. This is a hopeful step toward good streets, and we trust that our enterprising aldermen will see their way clear to purchase this rock crusher. It will indeed fill a long felt want. We are informed that if our aldermen will, they can buy a practically new crusher, engine and boiler for a few hundred dollars provided they do so before the offer is closed. We think it would be criminal negligence to pass this offer by, and we hope our aldermen will see this way. We need the crusher. We can then have good streets at a small cost.

Penelope Academy.

Penelope Academy has opened well, and new students are coming in almost every day. Quite a number of boarding pupils have entered and the number increases daily. Even some married men are catching on to the educational impetus. Two have already enrolled at Penelope and others will come in as soon as crops are gathered. The present session bids fair to excel any preceding one.

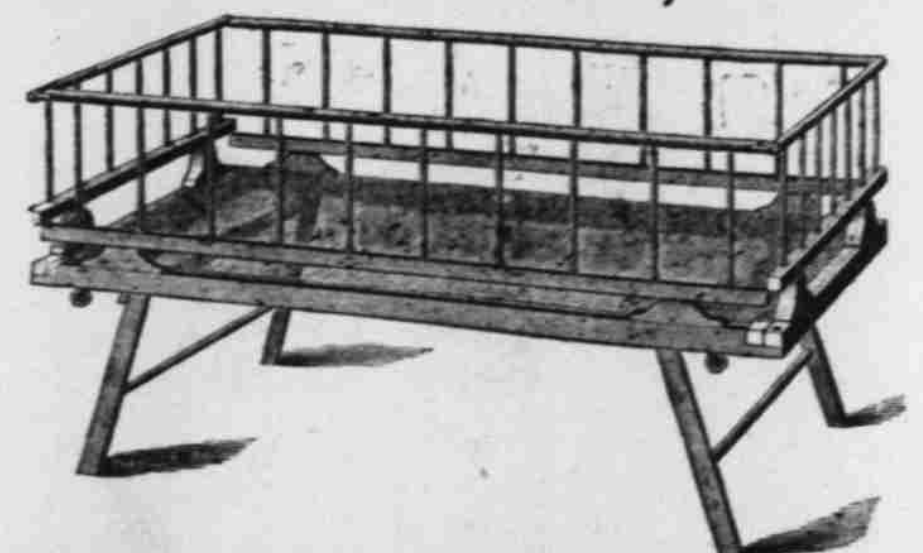

There is no place where young people of limited means can better secure an education than at Penelope. The principals, Rev. and Mrs. Murchison, will give their undivided attention, and will endeavor to make every thing as pleasant for each pupil as possible. Penelope is just west of Hickory.
