Sleep is one of the things that cannot be put off from night to night. The punishment for sleeplessness is worse than pain. It means a shattered mind. It often happens that a sudden stress of work or anxiety robs one of the night's rest. The effect is soon apparent in the languor, headaches and listlessness that ensue. If rapid and abundant means are employed to repair the exhausted parts the nerves regain their elasticity. But if an unnatural privation of sleep is carried beyond the stretching power of the brain the whole nervous system becomes undone, and prostration results.

Thousands of men struggling under great responsibilities or tedious work, anxious, overworked mothers and wives, shop girls who are forced to stand on their feet all day long, have little difficulty in convincing their friends of the remarkable power of Paine's celery compound to restore their energy, renew their vigor and make them strong and well.

Here is a letter from Mr. Max Burgheim the well known president and manager of the Cincinnati Freie Presse Company. Mr. Burgheim writes:

"The following statement may be of interest. I have been suffering from sleepiness, insomnia, for many years, and although I have tried almost everything to get cured, consulting the best physicians and even going several times to Europe, everything was in vain.

"I did not have a night's rest for almost six years, that is to say, I could not sleep for two hours in succession in a single night; you can easily imagine what the effect on me had been.

"After spending a fortune in trying for relief I had given up almost all hope, and when I first read about Paine's celery compound I did not have much faith in anything. But after having used so many remedies and consulted so many physicians in this country and abroad I felt like giving the compound a trial. The result was truly wonderful.

"The very first night about six months ago that I tried Paine's celery compound you can imagine my joy when I found that I had slept six hours in succession, a thing that I had not been blessed with for so many years. I continued the use for over three months with the same happy result, and although I was fearful lest the malady would come back on me, I can now say that although I have not taken the compound for months I do sleep every night peacefully and without interruption.

"You can easily imagine what this means for a man who works fourteen hours every day in the year and has charge of two large newspapers. I consider my case a most remarkable one and I should be glad if this statement should be the means of helping others who have suffered like I in the same untold agonies, and for this reason I give you full permission to make use of this statement in any way you choose."

Important Items Clipped From This Week's Topic of Lenoir.

Mr. W. W. Sherrill, of Globe, sent a big lot of cattle to Charlotte last week. He went down on Friday.

Mr. L. P. Henkel had a number of his fine horses at the Morganton Fair and brought back quite a number of premiums.

Last Wednesday, Oct. 16, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. D. R. S. Frazier at Riverside, on the Yadkin, Miss Hattie Rainey, daughter of Mr. W. H. Rainey, was united in marriage to Mr. Sohn Woodville Horton, Rev. R. L. Isbell performing the ceremony.

Mr. W. T. Wilson, of Va., the new Superintendent at the plant of the Caldwell Land and Lumber Company, who has been here about two weeks, has moved his family here and is living in the Shell house near the depot. We welcome these good people to our town.

Married last Wednesday in Hickory, Mr. Dorius Cline and Mrs. Lucinda Tucker, both of Caldwell, S. E. Killian, J. P., performing the ceremony.

Sheriff Calaway, of Watauga, went down to Raleigh last week, taking two prisoners to the penitentiary, who were convicted at the last term of Watauga court.

The fourth quarterly meeting for Lenoir circuit will be held at Littlejohn's church, 7 miles from Lenoir, next Saturday and Sunday, October 26 and 27. President Elder Rowe will be present.

The fall of the year, when the sear leaf begins to fade, and nature is putting on her wintery garb, it is necessary to start fires of frosty mornings. It would be well, especially in dry weather, to look after the stove flues, and see if they are in good condition, and the mortar in outside chimneys often wash out during the summer and leaves a place for fire to start near the coping. This should be looked after with a little care. Your home may be saved. Attend to it.

The stockholders in the Caldwell Land and Lumber Company and the Caldwell and Northern Railroad Company held their meeting Wednesday, the 16th. The parlor car, "Ethel," of the C. & L. Railroad, was chartered by the stockholders, and came down to Hickory Tuesday morning to meet them and carry them to Lenoir. From there the stockholders took a trip to Collettsville in the "Ethel." The stockholders in attendance were: J. K. Ralston, Norristown, Pa.; Geo. B. Collier, E. T. Mockbridge, Rev. Dr. Smith, Mr. Perkins, Geo. W. Lex and W. H. Harvey, of Philadelphia.

BURKE COUNTY NEWS.

Clipped from The Morganton Herald for Our Good Readers.

Lawyer Gus Self, of Hickory, is taking in the Fair.

Mr. Chas. Geitner, of Hickory, is in town.

Mr. Caleb Gibbs is home from New York.

Mr. Watt Shuford, one of the Fair's regular patrons, came in from Hickory Tuesday.

Pat Hennessee is making his old home a visit. He was bookkeeper for the late firm of Wallace Bros., Statesville.

Dr. Moran took some of his children up to Asheville last Saturday to see Buffalo Bill's show. The Doctor says it is a great show.

Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Cobb were called to Bridgewater suddenly Tuesday, by the news that Mrs. Cobb's sister, Miss Mary Kincaid, was dangerously ill.

What would a Burke Fair be without Capt. Gordon? All honor to him! He is a six horse team within himself—sharp as tacks and funny as a fiddle.

Uncle Eastman's cow of the Haney stock took the cake as a milker. He used a bag of wet sand placed on the small of her back to make her give it down. This was a novelty to many bystanders, who witnessed the milking process.

J. Ernest Erwin, Superior Court Clerk Patton, Todd Robinson and Caldwell McGimpsey are in lead in the hog line. If their examples shall be catching even our jail birds will have eaten their last ration of Baltimore bacon. They are doing more for Burke than all the politicians can do.

HORRIBLE ACCIDENT.

JOHN T. PAYSEUR, CONDUCTOR ON THE C. AND L. MEETS INSTANT DEATH.

He Was Coupling Cars at Lenoir When a Projecting Plank Struck Him on the Side of the Head and Crushed His Skull.

We take the following account of the most sad and untimely death of Conductor John T. Payseur from yesterday's Lenoir Topic. Capt. Payseur was very popular in Hickory and in fact everywhere he was known. The Topic says:

Last Thursday night about nine o'clock, Capt. John T. Payseur, the conductor on the night freight train on the C. and L. Railroad, which runs between Lenoir and Hickory, was almost instantly killed while in the act of coupling cars. The way the accident occurred is as follows:—Capt. Payseur, with two or three of his men, were making up the train. Some of the men were pushing a car loaded with lumber up to a box car and Capt. Payseur intended coupling them. Just as he was in the act of coupling he was struck on the side of the head, about one inch above the left ear, with a projecting plank on the lumber car which pushed his head against the box car, crushing his skull. The space between the box car and the projecting plank was only four inches. When the plank struck his head, some of the men who were standing near him saw his lantern fall to the ground and ran at once to him. Mr. George Connelly was about the first man to get to him, Capt. Payseur dying in about two minutes, Mr. Connelly holding him in his arms. The only word uttered by Capt. Payseur after he was hurt was "Oh!" and he gave three gasps and was dead. Dr. Ivey was sent for just as soon as the accident happened, but life was extinct when he arrived.

Capt. Payseur's body was taken to his room at the Merchants' Hotel, where it was dressed and placed in a casket and, on Friday morning at 6 o'clock, was taken to Lincolnton for burial, being accompanied by Capt. Payseur's train men and Major Harper, Mr. Edmund Jones, Mr. E. F. Reid and Capt. J. T. Grist.

The sudden and unexpected death of Capt. Payseur, who was 28 years of age and in the prime of life, and one who was so popular with our people, cast a deep gloom over Lenoir. For eight or ten years he had been on the railroad and was held in high esteem by the officers of the road as being one of the most faithful men in their employ.

BARN BURNING.

Some Miscreant Set Fire to the Barn of Noah W. Propst and Nearly Ruined Him.

About one o'clock one morning last week Mr. Noah W. Propst, who is a farmer residing near the river a few miles northeast of Hickory, was awakened by fire in his barn and cribs. He and others did all they could to save the property, but in spite of all they could do the barn burned to the ground with all the roughness. Also three head of horses, two milch cows, another cow being badly burned; one mow and one rake, a two horse wagon, five plows and two sets of plow gear, one set buggy harness and one set of wagon harness, one feed cutter, one wheat drill and monitor, one man's saddle, 20 bushels of corn, about 15 bushels of sweet potatoes, some shelled oats and some sheaf oats and seven bags of guano. Mr. Propst was in Hickory last Monday in a borrowed wagon with borrowed mules and brought three fine pigs to sell, showing some pluck instead of all grief. Col. Thornton bought two of the pigs from him, paying $1.75 each.

It is reported that Hon. Walter R. Henry contemplates locating somewhere in Western North Carolina for the practice of law. Let him come to Hickory, the metropolis of all this part of the State. Our people are law-abiding and it's a risky place for lawyers, yet we sometimes need a good lawyer and need him bad.—Mercury, 16th.

A Wonderful Conqueror.

No disease is more common among the people than scrofula. Handed down from generation to generation, it is found in nearly every family, in some form. It may make its appearance in dreadful running sores, in swellings in the neck or goitre, or in eruptions of varied forms. Attacking the mucous membrane it may be known as catarrh, or developing in the lungs it may be, and often is, the prime cause of consumption.

In whatever form scrofula may manifest itself, Hood's Sarsaparilla is its inveterate foe and conqueror. This medicine has such powerful alternative and vitalizing effects upon the blood that every trace of impurity is expelled, and the blood is made rich, pure and healthy. 41-4t

President Cleveland in Atlanta.

President Cleveland and his entire Cabinet, except Mr. Olney, visited the Exposition in Atlanta Wednesday. They met with a grand reception in Charlotte as they passed through, it being the first place where they saw daylight after leaving Washington. After a grand reception in Atlanta the party left at midnight last night for Washington. The Presidents visit was brief. But the whole city of Atlanta turned out en masse; stores were closed and business. Thousands upon thousands of people from everywhere were there.
