VOLUME II. NUMBER 30.

RALEIGH, NORTH CAROLINA, THURSDAY, MARCH 1, 1894.

PRICE $1.00 A YEAR.

Table of Contents.

THE NEGRO IN THE SOUTH. A WELL-KNOWN SOUTH CAROLINIAN CUTS HIS THROAT. FROM WASHINGTON. HANGED BY MASKED MEN. IN THE MATTER OF OBSTINATE CON-

PRENDERGAST IS TO HANG. THE MYSTERY A BIGAMEST. MAJ. HALE'S CHARGE IS FALSE

THE PEOPLE ARE STARVING.

DEMOCRATIC DOCTRINE. FREE TO OUR SUBSCRIBERS. A DEFAMER OF THE SOUTH MAN'S LITTLENESS AND GREATNESS. MAN, EVEN THE COLORED MAN, IS EVER FICELE THE GARDEN OF LIFE.

Third Page: JACK DAWSON'S PILGRIMAGE GARDENING A FARMER WHO FARMS. AN EDITOR'S ADVICE. SALE OF LAND FOR TAXES.

Fourth Page: MALERIN AND WAKE PERSONAL AND SOCIAL THE TURNER-HOLDEN CASE. SUNDAY'S SNOW STORM. ARRESTED BY NEGRO DETECTIVES. SUPREME COURT. MURPHY TO MANTEO. THE STATE I SIVERSITY. THE FOURTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT ELOPED WITH A MARRIED MAN. WITCHCRAFT IN BUCKEYEDOM. CITY MARKET REPORTS

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

The Durham San began its sixth volwish editor Robinson continued success, on all important party questions.

THE friends of Hon. Thomas G. Skin ner are bringing him forward as a suitable man for Collector of the Eastern District in case the appointment of Mr. Simmons fails to be confirmed by the

THE Southport Leader is just five years old, and we wish it many more years of prosperity and usefulness. It is well edited and descrives a generous support. There is good typographical style throughout the Leader and its columns are filled with interesting reading matter.

THE NEGRO IN THE SOUTH.

ern than in the Northern States.

From Washington.

PREVENTS TRANSACTION OF BUSINESS IN THE HOUSE.

Mr. Alien of Mississippi bas a few Eastern Carolina to Shoot Duck--North Carolinians at The National Capital.

Editorial*Correspondence. WASHINGTON, D. C., 1311 H STREET, N. W., February 27, 1894.

The President set sail Sunday afternoon, in the midst of a heavy snow storm. duck shooting. Secretary Gresham and Capt. Evans were his only companions House when commanded by the Speaker. on his outing. If I had known he was I saw gentlemen rise in their seats and going to North Carolina, I would have given him a letter of introduction to my friend Pierce Hampton, of Currituck, who would have taught the President a his visit more profitable.

hesitated to express openly his dissatisfaction with the present aspect of affairs in Congress and elsewhere, and his desire to get away for a time from his disagreeable environments and to go where no ame Monday. It is a clean, ably edited telegrams could reach him and no repornewspaper, and its columns overflow ters could follow him. He has spoken in with brightly written local news. We strong terms of the lack of unity displayed they believe, when the business interests > spending some time in Washington taking starvation; when they are looking to this vocal lessons from the famous Bischoff. Miss Wright, of Tarboro, is also here to nature of relief, we may turn ourselves take lessons in tapestry.

fering special terms and extra liberal inducements to bond fide prospectors to tion does not know the terms of the pave the way for immigration. They are people. Why, even Representative mobs in this country that mobbism is the going into the enterprise with a vim and Coombs, of New York, who is opposed to the income tax, returned from Brooklyn actually astonished at the popularity of the proposition in that city. The Demare for it. No, sir; I have no hesitation way that they have been doing. I say and to try to formulate a bill that will

Deputy Third Auditor George Washpreme Court sometime ago decided that terdaf he and Mrs. Sanderlin celebrated than the mobocracy that we are doing in Mr. Brice criticized the method of prethe Constitution of the State restricts the their silver wedding. Mrs. Sanderlin was right of suffrage to male citizens, and Mrs. Wooten, of North Carolina, before that it cannot be extended to women by sne married Dr. Sanderlin. Mr. Wooten, The Court of her father, was as prominent in the State talk in favor of a new rule in the House er unpleesant feeling that did not last Appeals the highest judicial tribunal in as Dr. Sanderlin. When these two old which will compel members present to long. It now seems certain that a tax were born up to the present, when you was told by the bridegroom to sit down New York, sustained this ruling. The families were to be happily united twenty- act, or at least to act enough to make a will be levied on sugar, coal, and iron; cut yourselves loose from the proud tra- and keep quiet, while the crowd was re-Court admitted that the Legislature may five years ago it was decided to have the quorum. A number of Democrats who that wool will remain on the free list; ditions of that party and set out to study quested to stand back. Suddenly Slaughauthorize women to vote for officers who wedding on George Washington's and opposed the Reed rules now say that the and that the income tax will be retained are created by statute, and not by consti- Mr. Sanderlin's birthday, and the affair Supreme Court having decided those as a part of the bill. It is believed that tutional provision, but it decided that was to be a large one. It happened that rules to be constitutional it is not wise to the changes will produce enough revschool officers hold constitution offices the twenty-second of February that year longer advocate the old Democratic policy enue. I think they will produce too much been brought up to believe in some of cut in the arm. Slaughter dashed for the and these who vote for them must have came on Monday. In North Carolina one of opposition to quorum-counting as and that the next Congress will find a friend from Topposition to quorum-counting as constitutional qualifications. Illinois has can't arrange a large wedding over Sun- practiced by Mr. Reed. There is a differ- surplus, Then there will be an attempt studied public questions before I came to captured next morning two miles away. a similar law and the woman suffrage day. So it happened that they put it off ence of opinion as to the decision of the capacity of the law and the woman suffrage day. So it happened that they put it off ence of opinion as to the decision of the law and the woman suffrage day. cranks now propose to change the consti- till the next day. And thus it is that Dr. Supreme Court, Mr. Reed holding that tax. In such a contest, if the Democrats cause I had studied them. This is why being slapped in the face. The feeling it comes my turn to shuffle off I want from the News and Observer and the gether. - The Capital.

February 22d, A. D., 1894, will go long way in rebuttal of the tirades of the down into history as having witnessed sectionalists who never tire in proclaim- the most disgraceful proceedings ever gro population of the South by the whites. Ever since the Biand bill has been up for It shows that the cost of education of a hearing, the opponents have resolved both white and colored children in the that it should never come to a vote. public schools devolves almost entirely Knowing that the majority favored the upon the white people. And besides the bill they have resorted to most dislegislatures of the Southern States from graceful scenes of filibustering that cul- Tennessee, made a speech in the House year to year make larger appropriations minated on Thursday in a most shameful in which he urged Mr. Bland to amend for colored schools. The following fig. tumult and uproar. It was nothing less his bill by striking out all the provisions ures show the provision made for both than an unbridled mob led by Mr. Cum- except that to coin the seigniorage. The mings and Gen. Sickles, of New York, other portion of the bill relates to retir-Total white enrollment in the Southern both of whom had been arrested and ing the silver certificates and coining the States is 2,821,551, colored 1,255,932; brought into the House and had resisted silver which now as bullion supports the per cent of whites to population 21.84, arrest. They created a bedlam by their issue. It is provided in the bill that this unwillingness to obey the rules, and all retiring of the silver certificates shall not And here is where our Northern crities day long until the House adjourned the go into effect for two years yet. Mr. make their mistake. The true attitude Sergeant-at-Arms was kept busy carry. Bland believes that this provision will of the people of the South toward the ing the mace, seeking to restore order obviate the necessity for a gold reserve; negro population is not to be judged by and bring quiet out of confusion; but it the Secretary of the Treasury believes Hewitt up to the ridicule of the House treat has begun at all. I do not believe the criminal records—the outrages per- was a hopeless failure and the House was that it would not obviate this necessity. petrated by negro outlaws and the law-obliged to adjourn without doing any In view of these differences of opinion said: less lynchings that swiftly follow-but work whatever. But this is nothing some Democrats hold that it will be best rather from the steady accumulations, new; the House has resolved itself of late to accept the amendment proposed by a few days ago in the public press that himself. I desire, so far as I am concernthe better education, the improved earning body, and the appear. Mr. Patterson, coin the seigniorage at the Hon. Abram S. Hewitt, of New York, ed, to repudiate that gentleman's apoloings and greater thrift and temperance ances are that it will usurp the place of once, and leave the other sections of Mr. of the mass of negroes. As a rule the senate in this respect, if in no other colored man is better treated, and is The opponents of the Bland bill seem to large and a senate that it will usurp the place of once, and seave the other sections of Mr. Slidell, Soule, and some of the Fourth North Caroname was Ella Thomas. She is an operation, in those men who preceded me. (Laughcolored man is better treated, and is making more rapid progress in the Southmaking more rapid progress in the Southin order to defeat it, and Mr. Bland and his associates have been warranted in the his associates have been warran A Well-Known South Carolinian Cuts
His Threat.

The bill ought to pass in its present shape been warranted in the extraordinary steps they have taken in their determination to secure a vote on Savage D. Trapholog of D. Tra Savage D. Trembolm, of Flat Rock, Henderson county, cut his throat and probably killed himself at that place last Thursday. The deed was dependent of the deed was dependent of the deed was dependent of the county of the county of the county of the counties of the Henderson county, cut his throat and measure can not pass it, then represenprobably killed himself at that place last tative government is a failure. Of course Thursday. The deed was done in a fit of desperation brought on by excessive the Republicans almost to a man refuse Monday when Mr. Pence, the eloquent to me, because I was to have spoken at the very dinner at which he delivered DISGRACEFUL FILIBUSTERING the Democratic party has been made to peal bill was up he had "obeyed the com- with him freely, I have never known any stand still because a minority have joined the Republicans to prevent action.

On Friday there was another scene, Words to say About Mr. Hewitt- though not so uproarous as that of the with bitterness that he had been influen-Work on the Wilson bill Progressing in previous day. Mr. Bland denounced in ced by the executive. the Senate-- The Bland Bill Ought to most scathing terms the actions of those be Passed -- Mr. Cleveland Gone to members refusing to make a quorum. ject, under any circumstances, with the vesterday a scene occurred in this House such as I have never seen before in my service. I saw in this House gentlemen House, refusing to obey the rules of the if that is not anarchy and revolution, what is anarchy and revolution? (Applause on the Democratic side). We are for the people of this country. If we re-The President's trip has been in con- solve ourselves into a body of anarchists templation for a week or more. In pri- and if some one in that gallery should vate conversation with friends he has not pour down a dynamite bomb and explode it among us, he would be no less and no more of an anarchist than members."

> This was received with mingled hisses and applause, in which the hisses predominated. Mr. Bland was not disturbed and proceeded as follows:

"And if gentlemen believe that in the condition of this country at this time, if of this country are not prospering, when when men are begging for bread; when Miss Lizzie Porter, of Tarboro, is they are in the throes of hunger and House and this Congress for relief; when they expect we will do something in the into a body of filibusterers and obstructionists, and of anarchists, despise our own rules, and set at defiance the laws of Capt Wm. R. Kenan, the newly ap- our country, can we expect that these mony. The Democrats seem to divide and set at defiance the laws of this country? They have had an example from us. I say, Mr. Speaker, the times are not propitious for the proceedings of this I see it stated in a New York paper, House. We were sent here to do our may be that wisdom will come out of to be doing our duty, when large masses of people are begging for bread. The prevailing rule in this House."

> Concluding his impassioned speech, he "Mr. Speaker, I thought that gentlerealize that they cannot afford to be rev- point Mr. Busbee. olutionists and anarchists in this House. and to block its proceedings. They cannot afford, when the country is in the throes of almost anarchy everywhere, to that as Democrats we must either proceed to business or surrender our power. (Applause). If an outraged people, impatient at seeing in this House this inmob and cast us down the steps of the this presence. bustering has been to cause considerable confederates. This occasioned some rath-Sanderlin's family has two holidays to- that decision gives the Speaker the right control, sugar will be made free again, I my people selected me out and sent me against him ran high and he narrowly to count a quorum of the members pres- am heart and soul opposed to re-imposent without a rule; Speaker Crisp contending that the court did not go so far, but that it only held that the House, not the Speaker, could adopt a rule to ascer- There was some discussion in the Senate tain the presence of a quorum.

will be held to determine what will be the free list, and the proposition carried and applause.)

On Monday morning Mr. Patterson, of tion, and it is a substantial gain.

There was a sensation in the House on Hewitt's remarks as somewhat personal drinking. His throat was horribly gashed with a case knife. Trenholm was about forty five years old, and has a wife best and oldest families of South Caroli- Republicans to prevent legislation, and sensation. On Tuesday morning, Mr. the approval of Mr. Hewitt is while Mr. na. being a nephew of the lamented George A. Trenholm. Secretary of the George A. Trembolm, Secretary of the Treasury of the Confederate States, and cousin of W. L. Trembolm, Comptroller under Cleveland during the latter's first term.

The sum of the Confederate States and the state of the st people will legislate them out of power. hornet's nest on his head. Mr. Cooper, myself and the great majority of my col- cision made in the House of Representa- objectionable to him.

ages of the world." Mr. Cooper denied

"I should differ from him on any subman having a financial interest in the result of pending legislation he would hesitate before he attacked the motives of other gentlemen, honorable men, who are serving their country, as they believe, in- son, is not in his seat, because I want to

At this juncture, Mr. Cummings jumpone to apologize for his remarks with remillions of people are out of employment; ference to the New York Democracy," learn a great deal by dwelling in Washington. But "whether it is worth the trouble to through so much to learn so little, that is the question," as Sam Weller was want to say on the subject of matrimade, they will "flop together," and it

March. There is no change in the situation. Senators Ransom and Vance urge Busbee, and Capt. Bunn urges Stronach. men on this side of the House would take It is said that the Postmaster General no exception to my remarks. They must will recommend that the President ap-come here and block legislation in the ators begun on Monday to hold a caucus cratic Senators. It is high time. The first sensation in the caucus was a condisposition to proceed, this condition of troversy between Senators Vest and currency. (Great laughter.) These oth- Alleghany county. Among those present revolution and anarchy should rise in a Brice. Mr. Vest took exceptions to a er men of the South are true Democrats was Slaughter, of Carroll county, Va., statement in a World interview in which and they love their country. copitol, they would exercise nothing more paring the tariff bill, stating that the tion. The effect of all this bedlam and fili- sub-committee was composed of three exthink it will make a grievous mistake. by a good majority. The Mississippi THE SILVER DEMOCRATS NOT RETREATING. Senators led in advocacy of this proposi-From all sections of the country comes them" and pass the bill in a hurry. It ought to go into effect April 1st.

Tuesday while the Bland bill was up their side arms." (Laughter.) for discussion Mr. Allen, of Mississippi, made a speech in which he referred to Mr. Hewitt's recent speech at the South- asked to be permitted to fire the last gun gle, the nominee was confirmed October day last he sprang up and ran through ern banquet. In his own humorous and of a retreating army. So far as I am sarcastic style the Mississippian held Mr. | concerned, I do not believe that the reand denounced him a common scold. He question.

Two whole weeks now have been wasted, of Indiana, who is quite as smart as Mr. leagues from the South who have incurred tives. The income tax is here and I filibustering, and the great majority of Pence had said that when the silver reHewitt for some years and having talked the Senate. mands and demands of the executive and man or set of men who entirely met his traded and swapped openly before the approval except Mr. Hewitt himself. (Laughter.) If he had lived in the days when common scolds were ducked, Mr. Hewitt would have been drowned long before this. (Laughter.)

Mr. Chairman, the people of the South have had a great deal to endure. I shall not refer to the fact that they passed He was dramatic in the extreme. Stand- greatest degree of reluctance," said Mr. through a terrible war, for I believe that ing in the aisle, raising his voice to the Cooper in concluding, discarding the has been referred to here once before, to his duties, his tather's condition does highest pitch, and trashing his arms like rapier and taking up the bludgeon. "But (Laughter.) But, sir, they have had a not cause alarm. a wind-mill, Mr. Bland said, and said I sincerely believe that the gentleman's great deal to contend with since that time. They have had drought, eyclones, utterances and conduct on this floor are simoons, epizootic in the horses, tuber-"Now, Mr. Speaker, I wish to remark prompted by an interest which has over- culosis in the cattle, cholera among the a little further in this connection that on whelmed him, and that if he would stop hogs and the chickens; they have had and think where he has placed himself various diseases and pestilences; they and where he is going he would speedily have seen their crops depreciate; they have had to contend with mortgages when for the North Carolina waters for a week's disobey the orders of the House. I saw retrace his steps. He is interested large-they had no money to pay them; but them in defiance of the Speaker of the ly in silver mines; he has stocks in silver throughout all these trials and tribulamines, and if he will read the statutes of tions they have exhibited something of a Congress and the laws of his country he just to think that the one thing cherished brave and courageous spirit; and now, boast that they had set at defiance the will learn that he has no right to vote most of others, the one sustaining prop writ and order of the House. Mr. Speaker upon this question, much less to speak that they had amid all these disasters, iary interest in the result of this legisla-away, and that, after all, Mr. Hewitt few lessons in duck-shooting, and made in this House, the fountain source of the tion and if he would exercise that degree does not approve them. (Laughter.) law-making power, that makes the laws of caution, of modesty, of common de- Why, gentlemen, rather than have had cency that ought to commend itself to a this cruel disaster come upon my people I would have paid a silver dollar out of my own pocket. (Laughter.) SHARP THRUST FOR MR. PATTERSON.

stead of their own personal, private gain." say a word to him. He is my neighbor and my friend. He is an honest, intelli gent, hard-working representative. I do ed to his feet and brought down a laugh not know that I would refer to the matby shouting: "If it is in order I suggest ter I am going to talk about now if it had that this is an opportune time for some not already been mentioned in this debate. I simply wish to repudiate, so far as I am concerned, the apology which the gentleman from Tennessee is said to good judgment. have made for me and my sort in re-I tell you these are great times and you sponding to ex Mayor Hewitt's speech in New York lately. I have here what purports to be a report of Col. Patterson's resentatives in Co... ress were generally opposed to the financial views of New York, he went on to make remarks. He was speaking in New York, and I pointed Collector of Customs at Wil- millions will not also become anarchists, upon most questions, and this division confess it is right hard for a man to been taken, and necessary compromises is acceptable in New York and one that could be acceptable to his constituents in

> He said: "For more than twenty years are on the spot and witness time wasted plank for the free coinage of silver. Bland bill will pass the House, These men have been brought up to believe in it without question. They believe it. They are bound to believe it, It is expected that Raleigh will have a just as the Baptist, the Catholic, or the Democratic Postmaster about the 7th of Presbyterian, without ever reading in the Bible, is one because his father was. So these doctrines have become a part of the and was well endorsed. Democratic belief there, and these fellows have followed them blindly. (Laughter.) I was in the same condition when I went to Congress. (Laughter.) I be- Slaughter, the Murderer of two Men at lieved in free silver and lots of other

Hardiman county, Tenn. (Laughter.)

I suppose the gentleman has ceased to The Senate is down now to hard work believe anything now. (Laughter.)

learned the correct principles of sound

harness. (Laughter.) ing the tax on sugar and if the Senate been sent. Laughter.) They sent me party were shot by the jailer. One of listens to those who advocate this tax I here to maiatain and carry out as far as the wounded men was not able to travel haps I am obtuse. Any way, if I am al-I could the great Democratic principles and was left behind by his brother mem- lowed any voice in the matter, I shall not shut up shop, it was out of cash, and a that they had received from their fathers, bers. He is now under guard and is not line up on the scaffold with the man who part of the money due Mr. Daniels for and I hope, by the help of God and the expected to live. Slaughter, who was killed Carter Harrison.' caucus as to whether machinery for cot- constituency in the First Congressional hanged, has five brothers, and it is fear-

Col. Patterson says further: "Mr. Carlisle has said that he did not mind having the seigniorage coined. If that bill becomes a law it does not mean disup the cry to the Senate. "Hurry up aster. I may be a mistake. It is only and pass the tariff bill." The solemn and the last gun of a retreating army. The grave Senators ought to "get a move on men in New York who dread free silver are unnecessarily alarmed." And elsewhere he says: "If the bill to coin the seigniorage passes it is merely to let these Southerners go off the field of battle with

Mr. Chairman, we have asked no terms.

I was pained beyond measure to read Patterson, as he is not here to say it for be surveyor of customs for Kansas City, that his name was David Draughn and stock have perished, the resources of the Now, I want to say a word for Col.

> Lamereaux, of Wisconsin. They decided is opposing confirmation of some post- The morning he left, his wife saw-him orce forwarded to Alice, the nearest that the debaters in favor of an income masters in Illinois; Senator Call is up in in Centerville, standing near Mr. Yoke town, for the sufferers. To add to the and worse than wasted, by this unseemly Pence, was very indignant because Mr. his displeasure, and that consolation grows don't think the lobbyists can defeat it in The Assassin of Mayor Harrison De-

The North Carolina colony was thrown into great anxiety early in the week by the announcement in the papers that Senator Vance was in a dying condition They were greatly relieved when his son that there was no ground for the report,

Mr. J. D. Helmes has been appointed gins will march to the gallows together postmaster at Monroe. Both the Sena- instant. and drop through the trap at the same tors endorsed Mr. McCauley for the posito appoint so old a man. Then it was that Mr. Helms was appointed Capt. Alexander had been backing him all the the ground that the proof did not corres-

Mr. W. C. Stronach, and his son, Alex. Stronach, Esq., of Raleigh, and Mr. J. prisoner staggered to his feet. He would upon it. He has a direct personal pecun- the idea, that Mr. Hewitt approved them R. Young, of Henderson, were among have fallen had not one of the balliffs the visitors last week.

> a position in the Treasury Department, a sheet of note paper covered with penhas been promoted to $1,600. This is cilled memoranda, which had been prehis second promotion since Cleveland had evidently anticipated the ruling of met a Miss Ella Mitchell with whom he Mr. Chairman, I am sorry to see that my friend from Tennessee, Col. Patter-

> > Mr. Paul V. Bunn, of Wilson, of the Civil Service Commission, has been pro- mitted to him in advance. moted to $1,600. He is an uncommonly bright young man, and has been charged of many delicate and difficult trusts which he has executed with wisdom and your duty in denying this motion. This

Mr. W. W. Long, of Warren, has been promoted to a higher position in the Agspeech. I will read a few extracts from ricultural Department, and, like all other come a juror, and that the same was true it. After stating that the Southern rep- North Carolinians here, is performing of another member of the body. Then, his duties efficiently.

> been appointed to a $720 position in the Geological Survey.

It is expected that a quorum will be said Representative Bynum, of Indiana, duty. We are here and we are supposed conflict. It is hard to think so when you every State platform has contained a obtained in a day or two, and that the right I should be justified. So far as con-

> Mr. Thos. J. Lowry was appointed was sane or insane. postmaster at Mt. Airy on Tuesday. He was formerly editor of the Mt. Airy News

HANGED BY MASKED MEN.

Daniel Slaughter, the man who killed John Bart, another white man, in Alleghany county, N. C., about two weeks It has not been proven.

a Wedding, Strung up in Alleghany

"But I soon began to study these things ago, was Saturday night taken out of the and, under the leadership of Grover jail at Sparta by a body of masked men country who could have piloted the ship jailor attempted to protect his prisoner but was overpowered

Just after the ceremony had been per-I thank him for that. He says furth- formed Slaughter walked near an old Ah, gentlemen, let me tell you that if the thought he was much of a man. when you separate yourselves from the Slaughter replied gruffly and cursed the ed and held them from the time you leave the house, but soon returned. He under some new prophet, you are very ter drew a knife and sprang at John liable to get tangled in your Democratic Bart, stabbing him to the heart. As Bart fell Slaughter tried to again stab him. I confess, Mr. Chairman, that I have but the bride seized his hand. She was friend from Tennessee, Col. Patterson, I him with one stroke. He fled, but was to school, as Col. Patterson seems to have | Two of the members of the lynching It is likely that a Democratic caucus ton manufacturing should be placed on district of Mississippi, to do it. (Laughter ed they will try to avenge their brother's result of the lynching.

IN THE MATTER OF OBSTINATE CONTESTS

Over Presidential Appointments the Present Congress has Broken the Record.

Washington Post.

fight was on the nomination of Van Alen remember his name or where he was We have not asked to be permitted to as minister to Italy, and was won by the from. He offered $150 reward to any carry off our side arms. We have not administration. After a protracted strug- one who would identify him. On Mon 20, only to resign later on. Next came the hospital wards shouting "Eureka! the attack on Hornblower, resulting in Eureka!" He had remembered his name, his rejection on January 15. The Com- which he said was Draughn, and that he that we are yet ready to capitulate on this mittee on Commerce was next supported lived in Winston. tion of J. Scott Harrison, nominated to by detective Casin. Here it was found have been raised, 80 per cent, of all live Mo., both the Missouri Senators opposing that he was a bigamist. the Executive. On the same day Kope | Draughn's mother is Mrs. Frank Darr, in Starr and neighboring counties are in "fellow-capitalists." (Laughter.)
On February 13, Benjamin Lenthier, nominated to be consul at Sherbrooke, The young men of Georgetown and Canada, was rejected, to be followed lived with her three years, when he left rion crows and coyotes is to be seen on Columbia Colleges debated on the Income three days later by the rejection of on a horse trading expedition. After many of them. Tax proposition a few nights ago. The Wheeler H. Peckham in the second bout several months he returned to Salemand | The country there is inhabited by Mex-

PRENDERGAST IS TO HANG. nied a New Trial, and His Execution Set for March 23-- What he had to say When Sentence Was Passed. Carter H. Harrison at his house on the report. evening of October 28 last, was denied a dence. The name of the lady he marand clerk, Mr. Chas. N. Vance, stated new trial by Judge Brentano and sen- ried in Asheville was Mattie Powell. In tenced to be hanged on Friday, March her reply to Mrs. Draughn, No. 1, she and that while still too unwell to return | 25. On that day, also, Thomas, alias expressed her great sorrow and regret at "Bluff" Higgins will also suffer the pen- learning of her supposed husband's faithalty for murder, and unless the Supreme straight-forward way, of their courtship

The decision of Judge Brentano overtion, but the Postmaster General declined ruling the motion for a new trial was August of that year. clear cut in style, and when the reading was finished a motion for arrest of judgment submitted by Attorney Wade, on pond with the statements in the indictment, was as promptly denied.

up!" said the Judge, and the miserable caught him by the arm and held him unstillness prevailed in the court room as Mr. L. B. Eaton, of Warren, who holds the prisoner drew from his breast pocket presence of W. S. and C. H. C. Powell pared during the morning in his cell. He the Court on the motion of his counsel, for, in his remarks, he dwelt upon one summer. The couple was followed by the or two points made by the Court as lucid- enraged father and brothers of the ly as though the decision had been sub-Prefacing his talk with the statement that he was not prepared at that moment by the Commission with the performance to properly respond, he went on in a rambling, conversational way. "I suppose you imagine you have done plea of insanity was set up without my consent." Then, after a pause, he went on to say that it was evident that Murray, one of the jurors whose bona fides different times to Draughn's mother, at had been attacked, was anxious to beafter repeating the statement that the plea of insanity was not of his own choos- and requested Mrs. Draughn to send her ing, he glanced around the court room. a picture of herself, promising in return Mr. Wm. Pippen, of Edgecombe, has and in a firmer voice continued:

"The question on was and is:-Did I nt or wrong at that particular tim Did I do duty or did I not? Did I do the will of God or did I not? That quescerns the doctors, they came to me with-

They say that Harrison was a great and good man. I deny it. A great and good man is generally faithful to his friends, and he was not. Harrison was not such a man. Had he been he would not have shown such hostility to me."

"If you consent to my death or execution or killing by due process of law"here his voice fell to a whisper, but he was understood to say-"you will keep up the grade crossing killing. I have been charged with being a vainglorious 19th, in which the charges made against man, a notoriety seeker. This is not true.

"The fact remains that if I hang their has seen things in Mr. Daniels that it names will be infamous throughout all does not admire his position in this concommand the support of all the Demo- Cleveland, who is the only man in the and hanged to a chestnut tree. The ages. Did I do my duty or not? Was I troversy is manly and will be endorsed by right or wrong when the shooting of Car- all Democrats. The letter follows below: ter Harrison took place? That right or The murder took place at a wedding in wrong still remains to be decided.

The prisoner ceased and slowly folded his sheet of notes Prendergast said as he rubbed his hands He denounced it as absolutely false, and man slapped Slaughter's hand and asked across his forehead and fixed his eyes on said that during the last week of the one of the empty jury chairs. The prisoner did not flinch when the within ten days.

gins thoroughly detests Prendergast. "I have a notion to commit suicide," said the murderer and burglar. "When

THE MYSTERY A BIGAMIST. death. Great excitement prevails as a The Man who Forgot his Name and Wanted Some One to Identify Him is Found to Have Three Living Wives, one in Salem, one in Asheville and one in Bryson City, Virginia. Grady Hospital, Atlanta, Ga., who was he made speeches in fifteen or more coununable to tell his name.

He had been picked up one night un-The Senate of the present Congress has conscious, having been sandbagged and broken the record for obstinate contests robbed. He was a great mystery. When over Presidential nominations. The first he recovered consciousness he could not by the Senate January 17, in the rejec- He was immediately taken to Winston ing condition of this section. No crops of Centerville, a suburb of Salem. He great destitution and absolute want last time the Salem wife has ever seen her faithless husband. In August of last year the deserted wife learned through John Taylor, of Salem, that her husband had married another woman at Asheville. Mrs. Daughn, No. 1, then wrote to Prendergast, who assassinated Mayor this second wife, asking her about the lessness and told, in a simple and Court interferes, Prendergast and Hig- and subsequent marriage.

She said that Draughn came to her father's house in 1892 and engaged board. passing for a single man. A courtship followed and resulted in marriage in

He lived with her about six months and during that time was as kind and affectionate a husband as could be wished. He promised to carry her to visit his relatives in Winston just before he left her for good.

His Salem wife showed the reporter a "Patrick Eugene Prendergast, stand letter from J. J. Mackey, Register of Deeds at Asheville, in which that official stated that the marriage register showed that D. D. Draughn was united in martil he obtained a firm hold. A deathlike riage to Miss Mattie Powell on August 17th, 1822, by Rev. J. C. Troy, in the and Fannie Goodsen.

When Draughn left his Asheville wife he went to Bryson City, Va., where he eloped some time in the early part of last eloping bride and were found in about two weeks stopping at a hotel in a neigh-boring city. Draughn, fearing the ven-geance of the relations of his deluded wife, escaped from the hotel and disappeared. The young bride was carried home by her father to learn that she had been badly deceived.

The second letter from the Asheville wife told of the birth of a child last August and of her having written three Centreville, but could get no answer. The letter asked a number of questions about her. She asked especially if his mother knew of her son's base conduct, a photograph of herself and baby. Miss Powell is living with her parents in Ashe-

Mrs. Draughn, of Salem, is anxious that some steps be taken toward the puntion has never been touched. If I did shment of Draughn for his base conduct. wrong I should be convicted. If I did | She says she has no money with which to prosecute him but can furnish all the evidence needed to convict him. Her out invitation. I did not ask them to aged mother, with whom she lives, come to see me in jail and say whether I stated that while Draughn lived with her daughter he was worthless and drank excessively. His wife and father in-law had to support him.

MAJ. HALE'S CHARGE IS FALSE. Mr. Daniels Denies that he ever Received Money from the Campaign Fund.

From the Salisbury Herald. The Statesville Landmark contains a special from Washington, dated February Josephus Daniels by the Fayetteville Observer are denied. While the Herald

"The statement in the Favetteville Observer that Chairman Simmons had paid Mr. Josephus Daniels $100 per week during the campaign in order to start and The Judge looked at him inquiringly. keep his paper on its legs, was seen by "If the Court is ready," was all that Mr. Daniels to-day for the first time. campaign the State Executive Committee furnished a large batch of names to doctrines of Democracy as you have learn old man. Thereupon he was ordered to day of his death fell from Judge Bretano's which it desired the NORTH CAROLINIAN sent. Mr. Daniels was paid less than Prendergast's attorney asked for and one-half the actual cost of the papers was granted until March 22 in which to sent out by him for campaign purposes, file a bill of exceptions upon which to and in addition contributed from his own take the case to the Supreme Court. The pocket $1 00 for every $1.00 paid by the bill of exceptions will probably be filed State Executive Committee. In addition to this he individually paid into the cam-Thomas Higgins, sentenced to be hang- paign fund $100.00 from his own pocket, ed March 23, with Prendergast, was dis- and he has never received a dime from gusted when he learned the news. Hig- that or any other campaign committee during his entire experience in journalalso purchased papers for distribution Irish harps and a green shroud, but I State Chronicle, edited by Ashe and draw the line on being compelled to pass Jernigan, respectively, and both these out with Prendergast. Somehow I can't gentlemen furhished their papers at cost, appreciate that fellow's greatness. Per- as Mr. Daniels understands it. When the campaign closed and the committee money actually paid out by him has never been asked for because he knew the committee did not have it. He would be perfectly willing to compare notes with the liberality of Mr. Hale towards his county committee. Mr. Daniels said that he has been charged with a great many things but it is the first time any North Carolina man ever charged him with having received money for his cam-For some three weeks a man lay in paign services. During the campaign to pay his expenses. THE PEOPLE ARE STARVING. Mexicans in Starr County, Tex., Have Lost Their Crops from Drought and

Their Cattle in a Norther.

ties, and would not permit the committee

The terrible drought that has existed in the lower Grande country, the Southern portion of Texas, for the past three years, and particularly during the last three months, has resulted in a distresspeople have been exhausted and hundreds turn as soon as possible. That was the cattle.