oceedings of the Legislature

[Continued from Page Ten.]

d (the bill giving it to the Legisla-"Vote it down," screamed Perilken said he got his information Judge Allen. of Wayne said Allen served in Legislature on a certificate to which ilken said that the Populist party for the rule of the majority. ekburn asked him why he had for outed that he was glad that helped to put this question before ilken went on the speak of the exgovernment and schools of Golds-nator Grant, the author of the bill. in the House during the discussion, disposed of:

bar vielded to Person of Wayne, passed. the previous question. It was For relief of land owners in Chatham. Passed. The vote was on Schulken's It was yeas 43, nays 30. was applause at this. The next on the amendment of Parker of that the matter be not of effect son's amendment was then adopted. vote was then on the passage of the

Sutton moved to table the bill. was a burst of ayes, and on moout on it, while Democrats and Popu-

Dockery brought up the Senate Passed. ndments to the school law that approted $50,000 to public schools. had appropriated $100,000. Dockery stated that the Senate. To amend section 5, chapter 214, laws the House concurred.

protect mocking birds. Passed. meinde names of certain ex-Confed- al Association. Passed.

the omnibus bill including many marle Sound. Passed. ildings and Grounds committee, that buildings were well kept. $600 for repairs and buyfurnishings for the Govern-

Adopted. construct a public highway in Cra-amend section 3747 of The Code, to Wanted counties exapropriate $500 to the Elizabeth tv. Passed. formal School. Passed, when they McLelland moved to table the bill To repeal the charter of Sunset Park nish convicts for Winston South- in Buncombe county. Passed.

Railroad, and take stock for work viets at rate of $125 per year. t. Walters opposed the bill; said the Dallas to Gastonia. Passed. would be worth nothing. This

'rary said it provided "may" have Lyle moved to amend by saying ningham advocated the bill; thought itenant-Governor Reynolds was on or lobbying for the bill. abled. Ormsby moved to reconsider. Passed. es moved to lay that motion on the nolds got in his work. Walters lters proceeded: "I will be heard.

McKenzie said the omnibus liquor. mitted many churches that passed ry Committee had unfavorably ik advocated the bill, saying often were swindled because the tiffied a bill to increase eath as to sum invested, and the motion to reconsider was tabled.

ed towns. Adopted.

and had just passed Maultshy's) came over eman of county commissioners; Passed.

appeals to lie to the Superior and Su- To repeal chapter 297, laws of 1895, preme courts, and to take precedence of relating to Stokes county. Passed.

Cook explained the bill and spoke in fa- Wilkes county. Passed. vor of it, saying it repealed the provision of the bill requiring the filing of expense county. Passed. accounts; gave the courts jurisdiction; cured defects in the law of 1895, and gave Asheville. Passed. all parties a fair law.

Ferguson offered an amendment that the board of aldermen could order a new registration, to be conducted in the same to animals, giving jurisdiction to justices way and under the provisions for the registration of voters under their several charters, or in their absence, under the general law.

Cook said Ferguson's amendment would disarrange the bill. It was lost. The bill passed its second reading. On this floor voted for minority its third reading, McKenzie demanded the yeas and nays. The vote was yeas 64, uays 19, Democrats voting no. Dixon, Populist, voted no. So did

Johnson and a few other Populists,

SENATE. The following bills and resolutions were Resolution for final adjournment Tuesmiken went on to speak of the ex-day, March 9th, at 12 m. Passed. Mr. Grant lodged a motion to reconof New Hanover started to sider the vote by which the resolution > county. Passed. To provide for the regulation and inspection of mines. Passed.

> To protect land owners in Chatham county in relation to stock running at large. Passed.

To amend section 7, chapter 98, laws of 1893, strike out all after Railway. Passed. For relief of Currituck county, to ex-of l'arker of Wayne, the "clincher" tend time of settling taxes. Passed. Resolution in favor of witness in case of Robert L. Douglas, of Iredell county.

To assist in the maintenance of Pick-The ford Sanitarium for treatment of consumption. Passed.

not give more. On Dockery's mo- of 1893, prescribing the salary of Supervising Board of Health. Passed. establish a public ferry in Cleve- For relief of commissioners of Pender county. Passed.

To amend chapter 61, laws of 1877, in re-enact laws of 1881 in relation to relation to weighing cattle. Passed. To incorporate the Chowan Educationsoldiers in pension appropriation. To regulate the setting of nets in Albe-

> To regulate gunning and Currituck county. Passed. To amend chapter 251, laws of 1895 after county in section 1, add "and of

To prohibit co-habitation between the races. Passed over on account of a quorum not voting. For relief of clerk of the Superior court of Burke county. Passed.

Chatham county." Passed.

To keep the Catawba river open as a amoned on special venire. highway for floatage. Passed. To build a road up Cullowhee mounand move House do not concur: tain, in Jackson county. Passeed.

lied only to Durham county, and To establish a school district in Bald mountain settlement in McDowell coun-To restore to the citizens of LaGrange the right to vote on local option. Passed.

> To allow Gastonia to make a donation on the removal of the court house from

To amend chapter 106, laws of 1895, d make the penitentiary a burden. relative to the stock law in Edgecombe county. Passed. To amend section 1, chapter 362, laws of 1889, relating to incorporation of a church. Passed.

To amend chapter 287, private laws of 1895, relating to the town of Berryville. To repeal chapter 274, laws of 1895.

Passed. motion of Capt. Walters, the bill To pay special venires in capital cases.

The bill to create a State Board of Equalization, which was tabled Saturday asby called the previous question, night, was, on motion of Mr. Ray, taken from the table and passed.

To authorize the commissioners of Reynolds ran up and Buncombe county to elect an auditor.

To amend chapter 2062 of the Code. s the nest-egg of a big job. I know add in line three before "church" the To pay C. F. Lumsden for ventilating

House of Representatives. Passed. Mr. Barker moved to reconsider the Nothing could be found out vote by which the bill to amend the charhe clerks in the Senate, whether ter of the Farmers' Mutual Fire Insurhad been pocketed or pigeon tance Company passed third reading Sat-after the bill had passed, it was stated collections in excess of $1,000. lenzie said the Senate clerks would lopenly that there' were at least two no questions or give any informa- Senators (one of them being myself), A. G. Bauer and Rachel Blythe. were paid by other fire insurance companies to oppose this bill. This is a grave charge to make, and I say that the charges in so far as I am concerned ps to be registered under pen- are false and without a semblance of misdemeanor ($100 fine provided). truth in it, and I want to say that the cary opposed the bill, saying the person or persons who made these statements are a low down, contemptible set of liars, and I am responsible for all I say. I will file a statement with the law. There is law to cover any any consideration to oppose the measure. complained. He moved to table. McCaskey moved to table the vote to loved Vance, but that appropriations Surry county, thereby repudiating $20,reconsider the vote by which the bill must stop. ary said The Code provides for passed. Roll call was demanded. Ayes, from moved to amend by provid- trict, and Yancey and Davie in the true North Carolinians. (Applause). is shall not apply to any but se- Eight Congressional district. Passed. and to none outside of in- The Republicans and bolters voted for ing for the whole of North Carolina, and (Ashburn) send forward an amendment

'the bill, and the "clincher" put on. the bill, and the chincher put on.

To change the Fourth Congressional he last saw him; that he was sure no man Brogden. district by putting in Orange county, e to a question of personal and change the Fifth Congressional dis-McCrary's charge that trict by putting in Vance and Surry of this bill were voting to counties. "Pabled with "clincher" on.

To incorporate the Oxford Orphan dings in the Senate. Asylum. Passed.

To work public roads of Northampton artist the South has ever produced, should self; this applies to public school teach. He wanted the convicts put on the roads, compromise on the county by taxation. Passed. bills). It was read, It To authorize the Treasurer of Bladen the South's greatest son. He wanted to To repeal chapter 402, Laws of 1893, ed them. McKenzie and Walters voted changes in the law of county to pay election claims. Passed know why Randall had not been consult-Volves their duties upon F. and A. M., of Henderson. Passed. | Johnson said he felt that the vote would | If the system is fortified by Hood's first mistake was in locating the farms

For the relief of J. C. Parker, of district and Surry in the Fifth.

To protect squirrels in Perquimans To repeal the corporation

To protect deer and turkeys in Pender county. Passed.

To amend the laws in regard to cruelty of the peace. Passed second reading. For the relief of certain citizens of Davidson county, allowing those living outside of Lexington corporate limits to vote for annexation. Passed. To repeal chapter 96, laws of 1895. To charter Gladstone Academy in Stanley county. Passed. To incoporate Hannibal Lodge, I. O. O. F. of Wilson. Passed. I. O. O. F., of Asheboro. Passed.

instead of mandatory. Passed. To incorporate the Central Industrial Institute of Polk county. Passed.

To amend the game law of Vance county. Passed. To change land grant in Swain county.

To drain lowiands of Buttermilk Creek. in Alamance county. Passed. For relief of John P. Leach, ex-sheriff of Montgomery county. Passed. To amend land grant No.

To prevent obstructions in certain streams in Montgomery county. Passed. To make an account itemized, prima! facie eveidence of its correctness. Pass-

To prohibit live stock running at large in Cross Creek township, Cumberland county. Passed.

To increase the power of Railroad Commissioners in regard to Inter-States Commerce. Passed. To satisfy certain claims against the University of North Carolina in favor of D. L. Swain, deceased. Passed over until the afternoon session. To authorize the Treasurer of Haywood county to pay school claim. Pass- Raleigh, and to put in another boiler. It ty, the alternative road law system.

To change the charter of the town of to third reading. Apex, in Wake county. Passed second To provide for working Wilson's roads reading, and placed on calendar of third by taxation.

Richmond counties. Passed.

tory in Nash county. Passed second ment paying each of the four persons teachers from peddling books.

Dunn. Passed.

stenographers. Passed.

roads in Greene, Wilson, Warren, but later he withdrew it. The resolution Wayne and Pitt counties. Passed. To prohibit the sale of liquor in certain distance of incorporated churches. To authorize the commissioners of Tyrrell county to liquidate and settle debt and levy special tax to build bridges.

To amend section 645 of the Code, relating to criminal process. Passed. To incorporate the bank of Littleton.

To allow commissioners of Mitchell county to levy special tax to build a jail.

Passed second reading. For the relief of Lexington and Cotton Grove, in Davidson county. Passed.

HOUSE-AFTERNOON SESSION.

The House concurred in Senate amend-Lyle moved to investigate, to ap- Mr. Ray arose to a question of person- ments to the Revenue Act; the chief of from taxation. three to find the om- al privilege, saying in the debate on Sat- these being the striking out of the drumuor bill, and to follow up the bill, urday on the above bill there were in- mer's tax; also to increase the amount of ed adding at the end of section 67 the folten said the other bill had been timations made by some Senators that liquor to be retailed from one gallon to lowing: "The conditions of 64, 65 and 66 some of us who opposed the measure five gallons; making the tax on lawyers, shall not be required when any county a said churches incorporated in his were influenced by other fire insurance doctors and dentists $5, and making one shall become the purchaser.' by the House and omitted from companies and on Saturday and Sunday -half of one per cent. the tax on all gross portrait by Guerry came up. Hancock said Mrs. Guerry agreed to ment lost. take $1,000 for the portrait, and that Mrs. V. S. Lusk agreed to give $500 in adopted. case the State appropriated a like sum. mously adopted the resolution. He eulo- third reading. Secretary of State setting forth an oath gized Senator Vance amid applause, and The calendar was taken up. of Cumberland said this bill by me that I have not opposed this said men of all parties revered his mem- To drop Moore's History of North Car- to be brought into politics in the west. of registrars. It would cause men, but for the good of the people of citizen and as Governor. He said the The Senator from Surry (Ashburn), nation and costs. No State has the State, and have never been offered portrait was to be placed in this hall, the one who got in his little work during of the convicts in this State was better, ring limited partners. This bill 22; noes, 22. The chair voted aye, and said all the appropriations were made in tory in the public schools; he said the the country stores to heavy ex- To place Cleveland and Gaston counian, he favored the purchase of the por- den did not appearin the book, and it was ties in the Seventh Congressional distrait of Vance, who was the pride of all partisan because these names were omit-is inseparably linked with Vance. be consulted in regard to a portrait of ers. Passed.

Bills passed validating the marriage of To amend the charter of Dunn. To extend the Raleigh road district.

Walters paid Vance a tribute as standhere would vote against this appropria-

tute placing Orange county in the Fourth Passed.

Young objected to its consideration. Bryan of Chatham submitted a minor-ty report. Dockery called up the penitentiary bill, and said the fact had leaked out that tickets. Passed. $50,000 was necessary to run it even for a ing resolution, which was unanimously members. l'assed. and by a rising vote (on motion of Parker | Resolution for the relief of J. W. Set-of Wayne), adopted: "That the thanks of this General As- fice. Table!. sembly and of North Carolina are hereby tendered to Mrs. V. S. Lusk, for her generous and patriotic contribution for the Vance portrait." Brewer moved to suspend the rules and take up the bill putting Orange in the Fourth and Surry in the Fifth district. Young moved that it go to the table, and to the table it went by an overwhelming To incorporate Diamond Star Lodge, vote. But the clerk announced that the vote was the other way. Young at once To make chapter 494, laws of 1893, denied the accuracy of the count, dediscretionary with the State Treasurer manded a recount and tellers. Another vote was taken, the result being ayes, 41; noes, 40, said the clerk. (Young said 41 to 37.) Then the yeas and nays were demanded. The result was announced as yeas, 44; nays, 50. Young said there was no Republican caucus on the bill; that an effort was being made to put To provide for working convicts on Brower in Congress, but he did not want public roads of Caldwell county. it done at the expense of the Fourth district. The bill passed, and the Speaker said it was third reading. Young protested that it was only the second reading. It was found that he was correct. Brower made a motion to suspend the rules and put the bill on third reading, and on this Young demanded the yeas and nays. The result was, yeas, unexpected honor, and said he proposed pended, 61 being necessary.

> Bills passed: To incorporate the Bank of Pitt. To protect wild turkeys in Macon county. To add Nash and Wilson counties to the Eastern Criminal Court Circuit. (The disorder was so great the Speaker said, "For God's sake, sit down gentle-

To provide for working Hertford's public roads. To appropriate $5,000 for building a Bills passed:

passed second reading. Fagan objected To clear Genaja creek, Rockingham

To prevent the careless rafting of logs committee in regard to paying election burg county. down Lumber river in Robeson and contests of Carter vs. Reed and Williams To protect squirrels in Perquimans For protection of turpentine workers. vs. Ranson, from Mecklenburg, allowing county. inserting Board of Commissioners, asked what provision was made for Reed ance Company of Goldsboro. and Ranson, who only asked for $189. To extend time of organizing the Bank To amend section 3, chapter 375, laws The resolution failed to pass. Cook of Maxton. Kenzie moved that the House reconsider. watcher of the proceedings. of Asheville to collect arrears of taxes. take $189. McKenzie asked if ever, pre- urer Benson. To amend the charter of the town of the payment of a greater sum to one than lands in Onslow. another. McKenzie's amendment was To regulate sale and manufacture any tabled.

To cheapen and expedite the trials of adopted and the resolution was adopted. liquor in Columbus county after July 1 To amend section 2, chapter 355, laws testants came up. To pay Reed and towns, Kenzie said Alexander ought to with rears of taxes of 1889-'96. To provide for the working of public draw this. Alexander said he would not, was adopted.

SENATE-AFTERNOON SESSION. The Senate re-assembled at 3:30

To amend chapter 39, Private Laws Olive. Passed.

olent association. The amendment was lost and the company will be exempted An amendment was offered and adopt-

Mr. Atwater offered an amendment to persons and corporations list all the priate $49,000 for the penitentiary. Lusk said as it was now, no one gave in all they tiary had no cash in the treasury. Mc should; that the rich were not taxed as Kenzie said 831 bales of cotton were on The Senate resolution appropriating they should be, but the poor man had to hand. Lusk said this could not be sold. $500 for the purchase of Senator Vance's pay on everything he had, because he Freman said he was opposed to placing

Hancock said the Senate had unani- 5 o'clock, and the Machinery Act passed

Person of Wayne said all the people this session creating new townships in 000 worth of honest bonds, spoke in favor Blackburn took a different view. He of discontinuing the use of Moore's histhe right direction. As a North Carolin- names of Governors Caldwell and Brog-

Mr. Parker suggested that the Senator said the portrait would represent him as putting in the names of Caldwell and

Mr. Scales offered an amendment: To amend the charter of the town of Salisbury. Tabled.

To abolish lay days on Rowan river.

To protect educational and other institutions; bill makes it unlawful for a Cunningham said he was opposed to

there is little danger of siekness.

Brower brought up the Senate substi- and re-enact chapter 381, Laws of 1889.

read trainers county. Passed. nett county a lawful fence. Passed. To require railroads to redeem mileage amendment had been cut off.

To authorize the Secretary of State of clerk to Attorney General to $900 and to have 10,000 captions of the laws of the of clerk to Auditor to 1,500 was not cop-At this point Walters offered the follow- present General Assembly printed for the curred in, 17 to 29. McCrary made the zer, cush n of Engrossing Clerk's of-

HOUSE-NIGHT SESSION. The House met at 8 o'clock. Bills passed to allow Lexington to levy special tax. To appropriate $5,000 to the colored

A. and M. College. To allow Charlotte to issue waterworks bonds and also to inforce the collection of taxes. Bill to appropriate $6,000 for the Pigford Sanitarium for negro consumptives was tabled. Cook notified the House that he was advised by Speaker Hileman that the later was too sick to attend any further sessions and that a Speaker pro tem. would have to be elected to sign ratified bills. On his motion the election of a Speaker pro tem, was held. He nominated Lusk, and Aiken nominated Blackburn. The old fight over the railway lease was plainly shown in the vote, Blackburn getting 50 and Lusk 43 votes. Blackburn was loudly applauded when he took the chair, which Lusk vacated. Associate Douglas was sent for and administered the three oaths necessary. The galleries and lobbies were packed with people. Blackburn made a neat speech expressing his pride and gratitude for the 47; nays, 43; so the rules were not sus- to be impartial and fair to all parties. Crumpler said he had a watch purchased for presentation to Speaker Hileman and a committee of three, Crumpler, Freeman and Dixon, of Cleveland, were appointed a committee to present the watch to Hileman. The committee went to his room and made the presentation. The machinery act came over and the House concurred in the Senate amendments. One of these amendments was to use the word "conclusion" in connection with tax titles. Lusk voted "no."

hospital at the A. and M. College at To give Sanford township, Moore coun-

To provide fish ways in Catawba river. To facilitate improvements of public county to pay school claim. Passed. Cook called up a resolution offered by roads in Charlotte township, Mecklen- For protection of deer in Moore county.

To amend section 758 of the Code by the contestants $290 each. McKenzie To incorporate the Underwriters' Insur- To create Rose Hill township, in Du-

To levy special tax in stock law terri- It reconsidered. He offered an amend- Bills passed to prohibit public school ses in visiting the different counties.

To allow the tax collector of the city liams and asked if they were willing to settle with the sureties of the late Treas- examiners to go over the State and infuse vious to 1895, Hancock had heard of To construct a road through the public State in regard to public schools. Mr.

An act relative to A. and M. College, Ranson $189 each. Alexander offered and For relief of Sheriff John H. Hunges, Dixon, of Cleveland reported that the To amend the charter of the town of committee to present the watch to Speak- Jacksonville. Passed. the Speaker desired to express his sincere of Maxton. Passed. thanks for the handsome gift.

On Johnson's motion a Senate bill in re- county. Passed second reading. o'clock, and the following bills were dis- gard to taxes in Hertford county was To provide for working pu...c roads tabled. It was a "sneak bill," intended of Alamance. Passed. to repudiate bonds issued there owned by ' To re-enact chapter 193, laws of 1895 a Baltimore man for building a railway. Passed. To extend the corporate limits of Mt. It was the second bill of the kind tabled ! To appropriate $6,000.00 or repairs to

to-day. At 3.40 the Senate resolved itself into The bill to provide for the maintenance | To incorporate the town of Farmers Committee of the Whole to consider the of the penitentiary came up, making a in Randolph county. Passed. Machinery Act. When the section was conditional appropriation of $25,000 for | To amend section 3, chapter 270, laws reached exempting fraternal and benevo- 1897, and a like amount for 1898. John- of 1895, requiring all surety companie lent societies, Mr. Maultsby offered an son said that the ex-superintendent, Mr. doing business in the State to densit amendment striking out the Farmers' Leazar, had informed him the peniten- $10,000 with the State Treasurer, as Mutual Fire Insurance Company. He tiary had not cost the State a cent last surety against loss, and to keep an arent To extend time for the organization of said it was a regular gold mine for the year. McLelland said Mr. Leazar, who in the State on whom process of behind the bill." He was cut off words, "school house," to apply only to Lumberton and Lumber River Railroad men running it (J. C. S. Carpenter); sat by him, said that the supplies on may be served. he wanted to get out of paying any tax hand were as large as they were last | Mr. Grant opposed the bill, as people To inprove the roads of Wake county, at all; he was making a great deal of mon-year. Johnson said Mr. Leazar had told who were elected to office (Populist of ey out of the poor farmers of the State, him he would give bond to take the conand not paying one cent of tax for doing victs and maintain them without any business in this State; he should be made cost to the State for ten years. Hancock The House met at 4 o'clock and took up to pay, because it was in no wise a benev- said the appropriation was desired to guard against a contingency. Duffy thought the State should not provide for contingencies; that the fact that the con- the "blues," caused by indigestion, tingency was provided for might cause biliousness added on as an extra hor the contingency. He moved to table, and Abernathy seconded it. It was tabled sure the departure of those abomin with only one vote in the negative. The

'clincher" was put onlit. section 10, to provide a way to make Dockery introduced a bill to approbonds, stocks, solvent credits, etc.; he said Treasurer Worth said the penitenhad no bonds or money to hide. Amend- convicts in mud-holes on the Roanoke toms of chills and fever, kidney trouble, and was in favor of putting them on or rheumatism, summon the Bitteres to The Machinery Act, as amended, was roads. (Applause.) He said that tothe rescue without delay, "lest a won night a bill had been tabled which would thing betall you." A feeble condition of The Committee of the Whole arose at have allowed the use of convicts on the the system is more speedily changed to-a roads when they were not engaged in vigorous one by this fine tonic than by can making crops. He declared that this other medicinal agent in existence. convict road working question was going He added that he convicts died sheep. Lusk, in reply, said the health than in any other. Duffy said there was a cash balance of products worth $50,000. He added that the convicts died . like drew $5,000 from the contingency fund and received $6,000 and the 3rd day of this month was out of debt. He said the management of the penitentiary was mimirable. Hancock said two years ago Gov. Carr asked for a contingent appropriation, and this was asked for on the same ground. Duffy called for the yeas and nays on the passage of the bill. Alexander said Treasurer Worth told tion; the best part of the State's history "Provided this act shall not go into effect him the penitentiary had sold out closer until a perfect history has been prepared than ever before. Bryan said but for Dixon of Cleveland expressed the hope by the Senator from Surry" (Ashburn), keeping the new administration from get-that no member would vote against the Amendment adopted, and the bill, as ting into a hole he would vote against dead Senator, but a shaft as well. He school teacher or superintendent to be working convicts on farms, as this put said he thought W. G. Randell, the best agent for any books, or to deal with him- them in competition with free farm labor. and said counties like Mecklenburg wantfor the bill, saying there might be a contingency. Parker, of Wayne, said the the court, register of deeds To protect game in Tyrrell county, be unanimous. The resolution was then Sarsaparilla, which makes rich, red bleed, en the Roanoke. The vote on the bill was, yeas, 47; nays, 14.

Many bills were ratified. One the lie to be ratified made an apropriation of To fix the compensation of the Treasu- $5,000 to "North Carolina on Wheele," This was when it passed the House was To declare the Cape Fear river in Har- so amended that there should be no cost to the State. It was found that this

The Senate amendment raising salaries point of no quorum.

SENATE-NIGHT SESSION. Mr. A. L. Swinson, the deposed enrelling clerk, presented a bill for services amounting to $125.00, also two from his son for $82.50. The following bills passed: To allow the trustees of St. Peters A. M. E. Church in Randolph county to sell church property. To protect fish in Bladen To protect fish in Bledsoe Creek, in Alleghany county.

For the purchase of Moore's Creek battle ground. To repeal chapter 297, laws of 1895, in relation to Pender county. By leave Mr. Lyon introduced a bill requiring all surety companies to deposit surety with the State Treasurer. The calendar was again taken up, and the following bills disposed of:

To authorize the Treasurer of Alleghany county to pay certain claims. To amend chapter 27, private laws of 1873-'74, relating to a ferry over Pasquotank river. Mr. Scales moved to

To validate the marriage of A. G. Bauer and Rachael Blythe: Passed. To prohibit live stock from running at large in Hertford township, Perquimans county. Passed.

To amend stock law of 1895 to apply to Randolph county. Passed. To provide for keeping up public roads of Wilkes county. Passed. To aid the Normal and Industrial School at Elizabeth City. Passed. To forbid hunting on lands in Person county by non-residents. Passed.

To incorporate Swain County High School. Passed. To incorporate the Scotland Neck Training and Industrial School. Passed. To establish an independent school district composed of part of Burke. Mitchell and McDowell counties. Passed. To authorize the trustees of school district No. 13, in Yancy county, to use the public school fund. Passe To authorize treasurer of Yancy plin county. Passed. To extend the duties of the State Board of Examiners. Mr. Atwater opposed the of 1895, relative to road in Nash county. lodged a motion to reconsider. Mc- Senator Butler was an interested bill on the grounds that it carries an appropriation for the examiner's expen-

Mr. Utley spoke favoring the bill as it $189. Cook called to Clanton and Wil- To allow commissioners of Bladen to would be a good measure, to have the some life in the different locallities of the Atwater moved to table, and the bill was actions in Superior courts, allowing Then the resolutions to pay other con- next, by confining it to the incorporated of 1887, to allow Durham county to work convicts on farm, etc. Passed. To amend section 3, chapter 121, laws at Raleigh, appropriating $5,000 to put amendment to cut down to $89 Mc of Orange, by allowing collection of are of 1895, by extending time therein mentioned to 90 days. Passed.

> er Hileman had performed that duty and ' To extend coporate lines of the town To improve the public roads in Wake > > the Governor's Mansion. Passed.

[Concluded on page 12]

"AWAY WITH MELANCHOLY

And bid dull care avaunt," sounds ver well in verse, but if you have a case you cannot say, hey! presto! and thes twins. The "proper caper" when troubled, is to seek the aid of Hos ter's Stomach Bitters. Thereafter will speedily digest with ease and eat w appetite, and your liver will reassert right to regularity. Not only this, yo can retire without a horrible dread th the Washington monument will-in you dreams-impose itself upon the pit of your stomach. If you feel premonitory symp wineglassfull three times a day.

t torturing and disfiguring of itching bring, scaly skin and scalp humors is insamily relieved by a warm bath with Curi-CURA SOAP, a single application of CUTICURA (cintment), the great skin cure, and a full dose of CUTICURA RESOLVENT, greatest of blood parifiers and humor cures, when all else fails.

NUDE IN ART 18 beautiful pictures, taken from nature. Send Zie in stamps. ART PUB. (O., -12.9

Arch St., Philadelphia, Pa.