THE Democrats of Burke are getting down to business. They are going to make a clean sweep this year unless all signs fail.

"Who is Exum?" was the question last week. Exum has answered it. He says he is a man who "would prefer negro rule to the rule we have had heretofore." Do you want to know anything more about Exum?

In the account of the proceedings of the Burke County Demo- Party flag and quit "playing 'poscratic Convention, published last week, an important resolution was overlooked. Among the resolutions adopted by the convention was one declaring "That we consider the third party ticket nominated in this State as but a Republican aid society, gotten up by Exum the good done in this State designing men for the purpose of under the past and present Demdividing the white Democracy, and thus securing the electoral vote of North Carolina for Harrison." That's just the size of it, and those and negro supremacy, received who were misled by the Waverites when they claimed that they would not interfere in state mat-
