RALEIGH, N. C., Oct. 4, 792. The great event of the past week was the termination of a case which had within the past few years began to cause a great deal of trouble and which would have caused more in the future. Really there were two cases, one being that against the Raleigh & Gaston railway and the other that against the Scabourd & Rosmoke railway, both being for taxes. The Federal court gave judgment against the latter for $61,500, being the sum due for taxes on 14,000 shares, at 20 cents a share, from 1866 to 1892. Against the former road there was no judg-ment, the State and Federal courts ment, the State and Federal courts both having decided that its The white people's State fair charter gave it absolute exemption will, as for as can now be judged, from taxation.
