

LOCAL NEWS.

Local Passenger Schedule W. N. C. R. R. ...

Church Directory. ...

Let the farmers make preparation for the Burke County Fair.

Remember that no entries for the Burke County Fair will be taken after Tuesday, October 10th.

Married in Morganton township, at the residence of R. C. Whitener, on the 10th inst., Mr. R. L. Wagner to Miss Dovey White-

The management of the Burke County Fair promises the finest fair this year ever held in Burke.

We call attention to the new advertisement of W. H. & R. S. Tucker & Co., Raleigh, N. C.

Weldon Atkins, who some time ago killed his father, Charles Atkins, in Rutherford county, was before His Honor Judge Boykin

Died, in Burke county, on Sept. 6th, 1893, Mr. Charles E. Ross, aged 19 years.

Owing to the heavy rains of the past week the water courses have been swollen to a considerable height.

The Herald received this week the following proposition from a citizen of Burke:

Join the great procession! It marches to victory!

There is no excuse for any man to appear in society with a grizzly beard road into Mitchell county. This is a much needed institution and one that the merchants and business men of Morganton, as well as the people of Mitchell and upper Burke are vitally interested in.

Horace Payne returned home on Saturday from Marshall.

Mr. Uriah Cloyd, who has been working at the D. & D. school, is visiting his home in Lenoir.

Mr. E. F. Reid returned on Saturday from Athens, Tenn.

Dr. C. E. Ross returned last week after a three weeks' stay in Chicago.

Mr. W. C. Ervin spent a few days last week in Washington.

Mr. Walter Brem, Jr., left on Friday for the University.

Miss Beulah Wilson, one of Morganton's charming daughters, left on Tuesday for Peace Institute, where she will spend the winter.

Miss Cora Wilson leaves today for Fort Mill, S. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom McLee left last week for Lincoln.

Mr. M. F. Scaife returned on Monday from a delightful trip abroad.

Mrs. T. H. Bomar, from Asheville, is visiting at her father's, Maj. J. W. Wilson.

Mr. Plato Durham spent Saturday in the city.

Rev. and Mrs. Ed. Mack, of St. Louis, Mo., and their mother, Mrs. J. B. Mack, of Fort Mill, S. C., are stopping at Mrs. R. L. McConaughy's.

Mr. Alex. Hall, of Hickory, spent Saturday at the State Hospital.

On last Friday evening the young ladies gave quite an enjoyable "bal poudree" at the Floral Hall, complimentary to the young men.

Mr. Ed. Cline, of Hickory, is in the city attending court.

Mr. W. W. McConaughy, from Montezuma, spent several days in the city last week.

Dr. Bohannon, of Salem; Mr. Hall, of Hickory, and Capt. Sarr, of Asheville, spent Wednesday at the State Hospital.

Mr. Bob Williams, who has been spending the summer with his uncle, Dr. P. J. Murphy, leaves today for Davidson College.

Capt. J. C. Mills, of Brindleton, is spending this week in town.

Miss Estelle Kincaid leaves this afternoon for Baltimore, where she goes to buy her fall goods.

Misses Carrie and May Connelly, of Connelly Springs, N. C., are visiting Miss Edie Payne.

Mr. and Miss Wiley of Salisbury, and yesterday to join the World's Fair party from here, which was to leave to-day but owing to the washout between Old Fort and Asheville the trip will have to be postponed for several days.

Judge Cille, of Hickory arrived in the city to-day.

Mr. Z. T. Corpening returned from New York on Monday.

Miss Lila Dunavant, returned home on Saturday from a delightful trip to Chicago and Washington.

Mr. S. D. Dunavant is in town this week.

We are glad to hear of the promotion of Mr. Ralph Laxton, to chief dispatcher of the K. C. G. & L. R. R.

Miss Alice Sloan returned Sunday from a visit to Hopkinsville, Ky.

Mrs. Barcello, of New York City, is in town this week.

High art in designs and coloring effects in lace, silk and tapestry curtains, velvet, moquet and other carpets will be shown by Mr. Haincock on Friday and Saturday.

Fall Into Line.

Join the great procession! It marches to victory!

There is no excuse for any man to appear in society with a grizzly beard

In last week's issue of THE HERALD we gave the proceedings of court up to Wednesday noon, Sept. 6th. Since that time the following cases on the State docket have been disposed of:

Robert Lowman, larceny. Guilty. Three years in the penitentiary.

Walter Pool, carrying concealed weapon. Defendant pleads guilty. Judgment suspended on payment of cost.

C. E. Brackett, carrying concealed weapons, 3 cases. Defendant pleads guilty. Judgment suspended on payment of cost.

William King, Clarence McLane, Jonas Friday, larceny. Defendant King pleads guilty; McLane and Friday plead not guilty. Jury finds McLane and Friday guilty. Up to the hour of our going to press their sentence had not been passed.

Rufus Hart, assault and battery. Guilty. Four months in jail with leave for commissioners to hire out.

Jerry Gardner, Margaret Blye, assault and battery. Defendants plead guilty. Judgment suspended as to Gardner; that Margaret Blye pay a fine of $10 and cost.

Waits Erwin, Charlie Avery, affray. Defendants plead guilty. Judgment suspended on payment of cost.

Pete Roper, assault and battery. Guilty. Judgment suspended on payment of cost.

John Bailey, assault and battery. Not guilty.

W. A. Wilson, assault and battery. Guilty. Judgment suspended on payment of cost.

F. R. Mull, cruelty to animals. Defendant pleads guilty. Judgment suspended on payment of cost.

John Smith, assault and battery. Not guilty.

The case of the State vs. Larkin McGalliard for outrageously was called Thursday morning, and a jury of 12 free holders selected from a venire of 75. The case consumed all of Thursday, and after an examination of all the witnesses Judge Boykin instructed the jury to return a verdict of not guilty and McGalliard was turned loose.

The case of the State vs. Barto Brittain, charged with the murder of his brother, Julius Brittain, was called Friday morning. From a venire of 200 free-holders the following jury was taken: T. W. Keller, E. J. Hudson, T. H. Rudisill, J. B. Holloway, Silas Berry, P. A. Sisk, R. E. Patton, M. V. Galloway, R. F. Sides, J. J. McCall, Hugh Southland, L. A. Crayley. The defendant was represented by attorneys S. J. Ervin, I. T. Avery, J. T. Perkins, Chas. Price and J. F. Morphew, and Solicitor Newland was assisted in the prosecution by Col. W. S. Pearson. The trial was concluded Friday evening and the case given to the jury Tuesday evening about 6 o'clock. Up to the hour of our going to press the jury had not rendered their verdict.

T. C. Adams, Noah Williams, affray. Guilty as to Adams; not guilty as to Williams.

Joel Watts, Ida Lowdermilk, fornication and adultery. Watts bound to next term of court in $300 bond.

Badger Taylor, disturbing religious congregation. Not guilty.

Stonewall Peary, retailing, 3 cases. Pleads guilty. Judgment suspended on payment of cost.

Lewis Wilson, assault and battery. Not guilty.

John Brown, Abb Tate, Lewis Wilson, Robert Williams, disturbing school. Not guilty.

We have given the proceedings of the court up to yesterday at noon, and the State docket had not then been finished. The proceedings for the remainder of the week will be given in our next issue.

On Sunday morning, the 10th inst., Sallie, wife of J. A. Lackey, passed away and to rest. She leaves behind a husband and eight children to mourn a loss which none but the afflicted can appreciate. Mrs. Lackey was a woman of splendid physique and her friends were surprised when they heard that she was so suddenly and fatally called to her bed. A brave, loyal, loving wife, a tender, gentle, patient mother, she bore the burdens of life faithfully and well.

For the past few years a zealous member of the Methodist communion, she did all in her power to train her children in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.

Her death was a beautiful triumph of Christian faith. I never saw such perfect submission, such perfect resignation. In the full possession of her faculties she spoke of her sublime faith in the promises of God. She remarked to the writer that "she was a helpless baby in the arms of her God; that she could see her mother and little ones, who had gone on before, waiting to welcome her in the courts of heaven; that it might look hard to take her from her husband and children, but that God knew best and she commended them to His loving care."

There is a divine sweetness in the song of the night when the Comforter touches the chords of grief and assures us that our loved ones abide with Him and forever. This assurance the sorrowing husband and little ones have, and God grant that it may soothe and soften their pilgrimage here.

Go to see Haincock's display of carpets, curtains, &c., whether you want to buy or not.

Dr. W. H. Wakefield will be at the Walton House in Morganton at the afternoon of Wednesday, Sept. 20th, for that one half day only. Practice limited to Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat. Can see patients immediately after arrival of train from Salisbury.

The Herald Office for Job Work.

brother of H. P. I do not know whether he went to Utah or not. Benedict Bristol, dead, father of L. A. Bristol, born in one of the New England States and was long a resident of this county. He was respected by all who knew him for his honesty and upright character.

Isaac A. Pearson, dead, until a few years before his death a resident of this county; brother of R. C. and Jas. H. Pearson, seniors.

Thomas Carlton, dead, a well-known Baptist preacher; eccentric, honest and upright.

R. V. Mchams, dead, a lawyer and farmer, a native of Virginia, and married an heiress, the only daughter and child of John Perkins, one of the early settlers of Burke, on John's river. Mr. Mchams had fine social qualities, was very hospitable, and had a great deal of mother wit, frequently being called upon for his services by his neighbors. He was a member of the "Red Bank" in Georgia.

Daniel Lovett, dead, a tanner, honest and upright in all his dealings.

Benjamin Stacy, dead, a farmer, living on Sevier creek, sustained a good reputation.

William Walker, a good citizen, Alex. Hamilton, dead, never married. He was highly respected, as was all his family by those who moved among the frontiers of the county. W. W. Erwin, his father, being of that class.

Francis P. Glass, a leading Democrat, chairman of the meeting, was a man of sterling worth and integrity. I served with him and others as a member of the select court of Burke county. He died before the war.

C. Moulton Avery, secretary of the meeting, was mortally wounded in the battle of the Wilderness and died at Orange C. H., Va.

W. W. Avery, a leading lawyer and politician, a man of brilliant intellect and noted for his amiable personality. He was mortally wounded in the fight with the notorious Kirke at the mountains.

Thomas W. Wilson, a lawyer who moved from Burke county long before the war, and died (I think) in Arkansas. He was a brother-in-law of Judge D. F. Caldwell and a brother of Joseph Wilson. The latter had great notoriety as prosecuting attorney, which office he held for many years during my boyhood.

Geo. W. Jarrett, dead, a carpenter; a native of Lincoln.

Jacob Seagle, dead, a carpenter; the husband of Mrs. Seagle now living in Morganton, who was his second wife.

S. J. Smith, a carpenter and a native of Tennessee. He afterwards moved to Georgia.

William Wakefield, dead, a farmer and a native of Burke. He built the stone wall enclosing the graves of my ancestors in the Presbyterian churchyard in Morganton.

William Alexander, a good-hearted eccentric man of fine social character. At Colonel Isaac Avery's I often played the game of seven-up with him as my partner, when he would invariably propose playing for a stake of a handspan handkerchief, long before it was used as a badge by the Democrats. He died at his daughter's in Georgia.

Barnet Moore, a farmer on the Linville, who died aged about 90.

Nicholas Beck, dead, a farmer and highly respected. The father of N. P. Beck, Esq.

Levi Laxton, dead, a merchant and farmer on John's river and long a magistrate. He was a citizen of great worth and high respectability. He married a daughter of Joseph Perkins, Dr. Laxton, of Morganton, is his son.

Arnon Kerley, dead, a worthy and respectable citizen and a successful farmer; the father of Commodore Kerley, of John's river.

John M. Carson, dead, merchant and miner; son of Joseph McD. Carson, of Rutherford; uncle of Capt. J. C. Mills.

Philip Wick, dead, a farmer and magistrate, a man of worth and integrity, living in Lenoir township. His son is now the owner of the old Avery homestead, a portion of Swan Ponds.

A. B. Hawkins, farmer, head waters of Hunting creek; always has been and as long as he lives will be a Democrat.

Nelson Powell, respectable family and citizen of Caldwell county.

M. D. Brittain, respectable farmer, father of the late Sheriff Mark Brittain.

L. Dillinger, a farmer, who moved to Vance county.

Austin Smith, respectable farmer on Smoky creek. I think he is dead.

Jacob Corpening, dead, respectable farmer on Lower creek.

Ransom P. Cloud, dead, a respectable farmer on Lower South Fork. His son, Dr. Cloud, of Arkansas, is quite distinguished.

Dr. Jas. C. McDowell, dead, son of James McDowell, of Pleasant Garden. He married the young daughter of Col. James Erwin. Dr. McDowell had fine social and social qualities and, so far as I know, no enemies.

S. A. Lettis, a highly respectable and intelligent man, who acquired a handsome fortune in this county. He was a native of one of the New England States. The successful merchant I. I. Davis is his son-in-law.

Michael Spahnshor, dead, an upright, honest Dutchman. He was a farmer and for many years a faithful collecting officer. Prof. Patton married his daughter.

James Mc C. Erwin, dead, a half brother of Col. James Erwin and an old bachelor. He lived and died without an enemy.

Jacob Harshaw, a highly respectable citizen. He, by care and commendable economy, accumulated a large fortune, which he left accumulated to his children.

Hugh Connolly, dead, a farmer on Linville river, one of the best and his family have always up to the present time contained a good name.

H. P. Lindner—it is difficult to say of him that some years ago he joined the Mormons and went to Utah.

Newton Lindsay, a farmer and whereas, it has been the will of the all-wise Creator to remove from our midst our brother and colleague, Alex. Hamilton, never married. He was highly respected, as was all his family by those who moved among the frontiers of the county. W. W. Erwin, his father, being of that class.

Francis P. Glass, a leading Democrat, chairman of the meeting, was a man of sterling worth and integrity. I served with him and others as a member of the select court of Burke county. He died before the war.

C. Moulton Avery, secretary of the meeting, was mortally wounded in the battle of the Wilderness and died at Orange C. H., Va.

W. W. Avery, a leading lawyer and politician, a man of brilliant intellect and noted for his amiable personality. He was mortally wounded in the fight with the notorious Kirke at the mountains.

Geo. W. Jarrett, dead, a carpenter; a native of Lincoln.

Jacob Seagle, dead, a carpenter; the husband of Mrs. Seagle now living in Morganton, who was his second wife.

S. J. Smith, a carpenter and a native of Tennessee. He afterwards moved to Georgia.

William Wakefield, dead, a farmer and a native of Burke. He built the stone wall enclosing the graves of my ancestors in the Presbyterian churchyard in Morganton.

William Alexander, a good-hearted eccentric man of fine social character. At Colonel Isaac Avery's I often played the game of seven-up with him as my partner, when he would invariably propose playing for a stake of a handspan handkerchief, long before it was used as a badge by the Democrats. He died at his daughter's in Georgia.

Barnet Moore, a farmer on the Linville, who died aged about 90.

Nicholas Beck, dead, a farmer and highly respected. The father of N. P. Beck, Esq.

Levi Laxton, dead, a merchant and farmer on John's river and long a magistrate. He was a citizen of great worth and high respectability. He married a daughter of Joseph Perkins, Dr. Laxton, of Morganton, is his son.

Arnon Kerley, dead, a worthy and respectable citizen and a successful farmer; the father of Commodore Kerley, of John's river.

John M. Carson, dead, merchant and miner; son of Joseph McD. Carson, of Rutherford; uncle of Capt. J. C. Mills.

Philip Wick, dead, a farmer and magistrate, a man of worth and integrity, living in Lenoir township. His son is now the owner of the old Avery homestead, a portion of Swan Ponds.

A. B. Hawkins, farmer, head waters of Hunting creek; always has been and as long as he lives will be a Democrat.

Nelson Powell, respectable family and citizen of Caldwell county.

M. D. Brittain, respectable farmer, father of the late Sheriff Mark Brittain.

L. Dillinger, a farmer, who moved to Vance county.

Austin Smith, respectable farmer on Smoky creek. I think he is dead.

Jacob Corpening, dead, respectable farmer on Lower creek.

Ransom P. Cloud, dead, a respectable farmer on Lower South Fork. His son, Dr. Cloud, of Arkansas, is quite distinguished.

Dr. Jas. C. McDowell, dead, son of James McDowell, of Pleasant Garden. He married the young daughter of Col. James Erwin. Dr. McDowell had fine social and social qualities and, so far as I know, no enemies.

S. A. Lettis, a highly respectable and intelligent man, who acquired a handsome fortune in this county. He was a native of one of the New England States. The successful merchant I. I. Davis is his son-in-law.

Michael Spahnshor, dead, an upright, honest Dutchman. He was a farmer and for many years a faithful collecting officer. Prof. Patton married his daughter.

James Mc C. Erwin, dead, a half brother of Col. James Erwin and an old bachelor. He lived and died without an enemy.

Jacob Harshaw, a highly respectable citizen. He, by care and commendable economy, accumulated a large fortune, which he left accumulated to his children.

Hugh Connolly, dead, a farmer on Linville river, one of the best and his family have always up to the present time contained a good name.

H. P. Lindner—it is difficult to say of him that some years ago he joined the Mormons and went to Utah.

Newton Lindsay, a farmer and

whereas, it has been the will of the all-wise Creator to remove from our midst our brother and colleague, Alex. Hamilton, never married. He was highly respected, as was all his family by those who moved among the frontiers of the county. W. W. Erwin, his father, being of that class.

Francis P. Glass, a leading Democrat, chairman of the meeting, was a man of sterling worth and integrity. I served with him and others as a member of the select court of Burke county. He died before the war.

C. Moulton Avery, secretary of the meeting, was mortally wounded in the battle of the Wilderness and died at Orange C. H., Va.

W. W. Avery, a leading lawyer and politician, a man of brilliant intellect and noted for his amiable personality. He was mortally wounded in the fight with the notorious Kirke at the mountains.

Geo. W. Jarrett, dead, a carpenter; a native of Lincoln.

Jacob Seagle, dead, a carpenter; the husband of Mrs. Seagle now living in Morganton, who was his second wife.

S. J. Smith, a carpenter and a native of Tennessee. He afterwards moved to Georgia.

William Wakefield, dead, a farmer and a native of Burke. He built the stone wall enclosing the graves of my ancestors in the Presbyterian churchyard in Morganton.

William Alexander, a good-hearted eccentric man of fine social character. At Colonel Isaac Avery's I often played the game of seven-up with him as my partner, when he would invariably propose playing for a stake of a handspan handkerchief, long before it was used as a badge by the Democrats. He died at his daughter's in Georgia.

Barnet Moore, a farmer on the Linville, who died aged about 90.

Nicholas Beck, dead, a farmer and highly respected. The father of N. P. Beck, Esq.

Levi Laxton, dead, a merchant and farmer on John's river and long a magistrate. He was a citizen of great worth and high respectability. He married a daughter of Joseph Perkins, Dr. Laxton, of Morganton, is his son.

Arnon Kerley, dead, a worthy and respectable citizen and a successful farmer; the father of Commodore Kerley, of John's river.

John M. Carson, dead, merchant and miner; son of Joseph McD. Carson, of Rutherford; uncle of Capt. J. C. Mills.

Philip Wick, dead, a farmer and magistrate, a man of worth and integrity, living in Lenoir township. His son is now the owner of the old Avery homestead, a portion of Swan Ponds.

A. B. Hawkins, farmer, head waters of Hunting creek; always has been and as long as he lives will be a Democrat.

Nelson Powell, respectable family and citizen of Caldwell county.

M. D. Brittain, respectable farmer, father of the late Sheriff Mark Brittain.

L. Dillinger, a farmer, who moved to Vance county.

Austin Smith, respectable farmer on Smoky creek. I think he is dead.

Jacob Corpening, dead, respectable farmer on Lower creek.

Ransom P. Cloud, dead, a respectable farmer on Lower South Fork. His son, Dr. Cloud, of Arkansas, is quite distinguished.

Dr. Jas. C. McDowell, dead, son of James McDowell, of Pleasant Garden. He married the young daughter of Col. James Erwin. Dr. McDowell had fine social and social qualities and, so far as I know, no enemies.

S. A. Lettis, a highly respectable and intelligent man, who acquired a handsome fortune in this county. He was a native of one of the New England States. The successful merchant I. I. Davis is his son-in-law.

Michael Spahnshor, dead, an upright, honest Dutchman. He was a farmer and for many years a faithful collecting officer. Prof. Patton married his daughter.

James Mc C. Erwin, dead, a half brother of Col. James Erwin and an old bachelor. He lived and died without an enemy.

Jacob Harshaw, a highly respectable citizen. He, by care and commendable economy, accumulated a large fortune, which he left accumulated to his children.

Hugh Connolly, dead, a farmer on Linville river, one of the best and his family have always up to the present time contained a good name.

H. P. Lindner—it is difficult to say of him that some years ago he joined the Mormons and went to Utah.

Newton Lindsay, a farmer and ROUND KNOB HOTEL. ON THE HEART OF THE BLUE RIDGE. ON THE W. N. C. R. R., 5 MILES EAST OF ASHEVILLE. New management; house renovated throughout; cold spring water throughout building; springs of excellent mineral water; exquisite scenery; nearest R. R. point to Mount Mitchell, Black Mountain and other points of interest; 2766 feet above sea level. Open on and after June 1, 1893.

D. J. ETLY & CO., LIQUOR -- DEALERS, MARION, N. C. OLD KENTUCKY BOURBON, NORTH CAROLINA CORN PENNSYLVANIA RYE WHISKIES, BRANDIES, WINES AND BEERS. We Lead While Others Follow!

STATESVILLE MARBLE WORKS. We are here on hand the most complete stock of Marble in North Carolina, all bought direct from the quarries in large quantities. We handle all the different kinds of Marble and Granite known to the trade. There is nothing in the country like our work and what can be furnished by us. Our motto shall be: BEST MATERIAL, FIRST CLASS WORK AND LOWEST PRICES. Consult with Good Work. Consult your interests and give us a call or write to prove. Yours most respectfully, C. B. WELLS & CO., STATESVILLE, N. C.

SHILOH'S CURE. SHILOH'S CATARRH REMEDY. W. H. & R. S. TUCKER & CO. A NEW FEATURE! Artistic Dress Making! We respectfully beg to state that we have added and will open on Sept. 14th a Dress Making Department. This department has been thoroughly organized after months of careful preparation and after having at great expense secured the very best talent to be had in their respective capacities, thus guaranteeing perfect equipment, not being exercised in artistic merit by the dress making establishments of any Northern cities. Our importations of Dress Silks, Velvets, Dress Woods, &c., for Fall of '93 are now in store and makes one of the richest collections we have ever shown. Department Specialists—Bridal Trousseaus and Mourning Outfits. Samples sent and estimates given. W. H. & R. S. TUCKER & CO., RALEIGH, N. C.

I. I. DAVIS, PRETTY NEW GOODS. THE OLD RELIABLE SHOE AND DRY GOODS HOUSE. SHOES. We have just received an entirely new line of MEN, YOUTH AND BOYS' Brushes, New SOAPS, COMBS, and Razorcases, Greenwood and Lundborg's Perfumes. As we are "here to stay" our line of Drees, Mantles and Suits will be always complete. IF WIVES WILL BUY THEM. PRESCRIPTIONS our specialty. Accuracy, the substantial (ing.) Purity and Reasonable Prices, our motto.

W. L. DOUGLAS $3 SHOE. I have received and am still receiving large lots of Shoes of all kinds, sizes and prices. And don't forget—owing to the present stringency in the money market and the general hard times, I will sell you Shoes cheaper than you can than you ever bought them before in Morganton. Give me a call and I can convince you. I will take my regular semi-annual business trip to the Northern markets soon, and I propose to display and sell, as usual, a pretty line of Dry Goods and Notions. Respectfully, I. I. DAVIS, Aug. 25, 1893.

DAVIS BROS. KEEP COOL! The undersigned will keep Antacid for sale the remainder of the season. Also a full line of Groceries, Provisions, &c. Fresh goods arriving every week. Country Flour, Family Flour and Patent Roller Flour always on hand. Cut Lard and Powdered Sugar. Country Produce wanted. T. L. GASH, OWNER.

KARL'S GLOVER ROOT. KARL'S GLOVER ROOT. KARL'S GLOVER ROOT. KARL'S GLOVER