LOCAL NEWS.

The Masons meet next Monday night. Mr. B. F. Davis is learning to ride a bicycle. An eclipse of the sun this morning from 8 to 10. Remember the 'a' party by the Light Bearers this evening. Home raised watermelons are now plentiful and are selling cheap. A party of Morganton young men will probably soon go on a bicycle trip to Roan Mountain. Everybody is invited to the lawn party at Mr. B. F. Davis's this evening to help the children in a good cause. Burke Lodge, No. 64, K. of P., held their regular semi-monthly meeting Monday night, with work in the third degree. Rev. Mr. Falkner, of Philadelphia, who arrives to-day with Rev. Churchill Satterlee, will preach at Grace church next Sunday morning. The Light Bearers of the Methodist church will sell ices and cake on the lawn at Mr. B. F. Davis's this evening from 7 till 10 o'clock. The excursion to Asheville Tuesday did not stop at Morganton and several here who made their arrangements to go were disappointed. We learn that Morganton parties will run an excursion from Statesville to Nashville soon and that the rate from here will be $5 for the round trip. The Herald is one of Morganton's permanent institutions and if you think it worth the money hand or send us a dollar and the paper will come to you fifty two weeks. A lively stable is being started on King street between Mr. R. B. Brittain's residence and the S. B. Pearson dwelling. Mr. F. B. Brittain and Mr. Ballew compose the new firm. Mr. C. A. Spencer, of Linville Station, informed us that he took a tomato from his vines on Tuesday which weighed 1 3/4 pounds and that he had plenty of watermelons on the 15th inst. weighing 25 pounds. Pretty good. The general verdict is that crops of all kinds in Burke are better than they have been for several years, and the wheat and corn crops will be larger by far than the crops of any previous year, owing to the increased acreage in cultivation. A Connelly Springs correspondent of the Charlotte News says that Major William N. Jordan, of Rutherford College, is about to get into trouble. His bid on some U. S. mail contracts in Virginia and elsewhere prove to be too low. Hence a heavy forfeiture seems to be inevitable. Work on the new bank building of brick and stone, corner Union and Sterling streets, is progressing nicely. The walls are well up on the second story. The building will be three stories and the handsomest in the town. Mr. J. S. Zimmerman is the architect and contractor. The Morganton Cornet Band has kindly consented to make music in the grove at Erwin's Chapel, 2 1/2 miles north of Morganton, on Friday evening, August 6th, commencing at 8 o'clock. During the intermissions, ice cream and cake will be sold for the benefit of Erwin's Chapel Sunday school. Everybody is invited. Picnic at Burkemont. A number of young people will go to Burkemont to day on a picnic, among them being Mr. Jack Dunavant, Miss Malone; Mr. Bettis Malone, Miss Johnson; Mr. S. B. Collett; Miss Richards; Mr. Robert Pearson, Miss Baker; Mr. Frank N. Lazarus, Dr. and Mrs. Leslie; Messrs. A. C. Avery, Jr., Joe Tull, Alex. Wilson. A Probable Change. The Lincoln Journal hears that there is to be a change in the deputy collectorship divisions in this district—that Lincoln and Gaston county will form one division, Catawba, Burke and Alexander another, and that a kinsman of Congressman Linney will be appointed deputy collector of the latter division. NO CURE—NO PAY. That is the way all Dr. King's New Discovery and Cure for Coughs and Colds is sold. It is simply from Dr. King's New Discovery and Cure for Coughs and Colds. Children love it. DROWNED IN THE CATAWBA.

Cicero Franklin Meets Death in the River Near Rutherford College. On last Saturday evening near Rutherford College, Cicero Franklin, aged 18, and another young man were in the Catawba river bathing, when Franklin, in attempting to swim through a "suck hole," was drawn under and drowned. It is said that Franklin was a good swimmer and thought he could go through the "suck hole," a dangerous place, in safety, but he met death in the attempt. His companion quickly gave the alarm and search was at once instituted but the body was not found until Monday. The above was told to us by a young man who came from Rutherford College on Sunday. A Hickory correspondent of the Raleigh News and Observer, writing under date of the 27th, gives the following account: "On Saturday afternoon a man named Franklin, from Connelly Springs, went to Granite Falls, looking for a position as telegraph operator. Failing, he started home, when he reached Devil's Shoals, on the Catawba river, he decided to go in swimming. Franklin was drinking freely at the time. A man who was accompanying him urged him to keep out of the river. But Franklin, not to be dissuaded, leaped into the stream at a point where it is more than twelve feet deep. He sank instantly. His companion pushed out a boat to his rescue. He had reached a point within two feet of the drowning man, when Franklin sank for the last time." Miss Nannie Mayo Dead—Was Soon to be a Bride. Miss Nannie Mayo died Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock, at the home of her sister, Mrs. Louis Kraus, in East Salisbury, says the Sws, and the body was brought to Penelope, Burke county, Tuesday morning. The funeral service was conducted Tuesday afternoon and the body interred in the family plot beside the grave of the young lady's father. For nearly two months Miss Mayo has been ill and the dread fever to which she was slowly but surely succumbing, finished its work and the soul took its flight Monday. Miss Mayo was 26 years of age and it is said was a most estimable young lady. The Sws says she was engaged to be married and the wedding day was not far distant. The gentleman to whom she was engaged went to Salisbury some time before her death and remained at her bedside watching over and ministering unto her until she breathed her last. Marriage at Marion. Miss Camille Gruber and Mr. Will Cooper were married Tuesday evening of last week in Marion at the residence of Rev. T. J. Rogers, who performed the ceremony. The bride is a daughter of Prof. S. F. E. Gruber, who will be remembered as the head of the famous family of musicians, who have several times furnished delightful concerts to Morganton audiences. Miss Camille is the eldest daughter and is a charming and accomplished young lady. Mr. Gruber is now proprietor of the Fleming-Eagle hotel, at Marion. The groom is a son of Mr. W. M. Cooper, of Statesville, and comes of a most excellent family. He is associated with Mr. Bennett, reciter, of Marion, and is one of the most popular young men of that town. Summer Entertainments. The younger set of boys and girls in Morganton are greatly enjoying themselves this season. On last Friday night about 50 of them were gathered at the home of Mr. Louis McKesson and spent the evening most pleasantly with songs, games, dancing and refreshments. On Monday night they met again at Miss Jane Pearson's and tripped the "light fantastic." Of course they were served delightfully. These young people certainly enjoy life, and they said to their credit that they conduct themselves with great propriety and decorum. We think Morganton never grew a finer set of boys and girls. Railway Assessments—A Western Union Kick. The Western North Carolina railway, from Salisbury to Asheville, is assessed by the railway commission at $8,500 per mile; Asheville to Paint Rock, $9,000; the increase in each case being $500 per mile. The commissioners will on next Saturday hear objections to its assessments. The rate for the Western Union Telegraph Company is 10 words for 15 cents; other companies 20 cents. We learn that the Western Union will appeal. Thirty Years for Murder. Sheriff R. L. Nichols, of McDowell, passed down the Western Tuesday morning on his way to Raleigh. He had in charge the negro Ab Longery, who will serve 30 years in the State prison for the murder of Willie Brown, 10 years old, in Marion, several months ago, an account of which occurrence appeared in THE HERALD at the time. Longery was tried for the crime last week and sentenced by Judge Ewart to 30 years. Asheville on a Bicycle. Mr. S. J. Bean, who has been cutting stone for the new building here, left Morganton last Saturday morning at 4 o'clock for his home in Asheville on a bicycle. Saturday evening Mr. J. S. Zimmerman received a card from Mr. Bean stating that he arrived in Asheville at 12 o'clock noon. The distance is 62 miles, and considering the rough roads over which he traveled, we think Mr. Bean made remarkably good time. CASTORIA. The little child is in every household. "Poems Unwritten and Songs Unsung." Exchange. A St. Louis writer informs us that "there are poems unwritten and songs unsung." Yes, there are, and they are sung and clung and clung, hearts unbroken and rings unstrung, bees in the clover with stings unstung, and many a window with bangings unhung.

Salisbury World: Perhaps one of the largest consignments of soda that ever passed through Salisbury went through Thursday. There were ten solid carloads of keg soda, 125 kegs to the car. The soda was being shipped from New York to Nashville. The railroad commission last week placed the valuation of the railroads of the State for taxation at about $3,000,000 above the valuation of 1896. The rate on telegraphic messages was fixed at 15 cents for ten words, to go into effect September 1, 1897. Shelby Star: Rev. G. P. Salisbury World: The payroll of the railroads here this month runs up a grand total of $31,382.93. The payroll increases with each succeeding month, and it is safe to estimate that before another six months goes by the Southern will be paying out to its employes here half a million dollars per year. Oak Ridge Institute has trained over 3,000 of our best business and professional men. Instead of trying to be a college, for which it has ample equipment, it prefers to be a thorough practical, fitting school, concentrating its energies and efforts to the laying of a broad foundation for scholarship and for life. A paper on the maple sugar industry in North Carolina has been issued by the North Carolina geological survey. A copy of this pamphlet will be sent free of charge to any person who will write to the State geologist at Chapel Hill, N. C., and enclose a 2-cent stamp for the payment of postage. A fearful railway wreck occurred on the Raleigh & Gaston railroad near Weldon Saturday morning. A freight train broke loose and in coming together again fourteen box cars were thrown from the track and torn to pieces. It is said that several trains were on the train, and at last accounts it was thought that perhaps some were buried beneath the wreck. None of the train crew were injured. Lenoir Topic: W. D. Oxford and his son, William, live at the old Oxford homestead, where all of the Oxforths of this section sprang from. The house has been built 113 years and is a very good building of its kind yet. Its present occupant is the youngest child and was 75 years old the 5th day of this month, but he hardly realizes that he is anything but a boy, and if one were to accuse him of being old he would jump up and pop his feet together twice before striking the ground. Citizens of Greensboro were shocked Friday night by a severe explosion in the eastern part of the city. It was a dastardly attempt by unknown parties to blow up the residence of Job Thigpen, who lives at 436 East Washington street. The explosive was made of a piece of gas pipe. The missile was thrown into the corner of the house, and tore up that side pretty badly. No one hurt. One arrest has been made—Bob Newlin, colored, who was seen to drive away from the house just after the explosion. Marion correspondence Raleigh News and Observer: I consulted the tax books, and find that the Round Knob hotel, at which the Southern Railway trains stop to eat dinner, at Railroad Commission is the name of J. W. Wilson, and the furniture, etc., in the name of S. Otho Wilson. The property is included in a large tract of land of 709 acres and is listed at $2,500. There is a mortgage on the hotel of $4,000 against J. W. Wilson and the mortgage recites that J. W. Wilson owns three-fourths of the property and A. B. Andrews paid $2,000 for one-fourth interest in the hotel. Something to Depend On. Mr. James Jones, of the drug firm of Jones & Son, Cowden, Ill., in speaking of Dr. King's New Discovery, says that last winter his wife was attacked with a grippa, and her case grew so serious that physicians at Cowden and Pana could do nothing for her. It seemed to develop into heavy consumption. Having heard of Dr. King's New Discovery, and selling lots of it, he took a bottle home, and to the surprise of all she began to get better from first dose, and half dozen bottles cured her sound and well. Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds is guaranteed to do this good work. Try a trial bottle at John Tull's Drug Store.

Investigation Into the Death of Mrs. Cocke—Sensational Rumors. Asheville Gazette, July 28th. An inquest was begun yesterday by the death of Mrs. Minnie L. Cocke, the wife of ex-Mayor William J. Cocke, which occurred on Monday as the result of a self-inflicted wound. The inquest was ordered by G. W. Reed, the coroner, to set at rest various rumors that had gained circulation. It is needless to say that the investigation yesterday revealed no facts that were not known to the physicians who attended the body after Mrs. Cocke's death. The body was exhumed at the Riverside cemetery and a careful examination made of the fatal wound. The ball entered above the left ear, where the hair was singed and the flesh burned, and passed almost directly through the head to the right temple, where it lodged. After the examination the body was reinterred. Testimony will be heard in the inquest at 9 o'clock to-morrow morning. Mrs. Cocke and her friends desire, in view of the sensational gossip that has been set afloat, that the investigation should be made as complete as possible. Moses McCowan, mayor of Durham, was challenged formally Saturday to fight a duel. The challenger is Joseph H. Shields, a respected farmer in an adjoining county. No answer has yet been made to the note and it is not known what McCowan will do. The challenge grows out of the damage suit of Shields against the city of Durham. McCowan, who is related to Shields, was put on the stand to testify as to Shields' character. In giving his testimony McCowan answered certain questions in such a way as to cause Shields to lose his case. This infuriated Shields, and the challenge is the result. Mr. F. M.
