LIETENANT VICTOR BAIQUIER

Who went on a previous expedition of discovery to the island of Cuba.

Nihoa, June 18, 1898, from Rear Admiral W. T. Sampson, U. S. N., commander-in-chief United States Naval force, North Atlantic squadron.

Liutenant Blue just returned after a detour of 70 statute miles to the harbor of Santiago de Cuba.

The detour was made in order to make this simple cablegram and to give you the news of the success of your efforts in making the island of Nihoa a part of the United States.

The island belongs to Captain Foster, commander of a sailing vessel, and is situated between the Orient and the Occident.

The island is 244 statute miles long and 151 1/2 statute miles wide.

The island is a part of the United States and is situated between the Orient and the Occident.
