

JOTTINGS.

Mrs. R. L. Meyers, of Asheville, is at Mrs. Grady's this week.

Mr. J. S. Parsons, employed at the Hospital, is quite ill with fever.

Mr. Hugh Hemphill left Morganton Tuesday for his home near Marion.

Mrs. Harriet W. Blackwell left Tuesday morning for a visit to New Bern.

Mr. Ernest Woodson, of Salisbury, spent Sunday with his sister, Mrs. Horace Payne.

Mrs. J. K. Ervin and family left Tuesday morning for Lincolnton to spend the summer.

Mr. Joe Grady, of Orange, was in town the first of the week to visit his mother, Mrs. Martha Grady.

Butter, eggs and poultry continue scarce in the market, and prices remain about the same as when plentiful.

An ice cream supper will be given by the ladies of the Church, on the grounds around the church, Tuesday, July 13, from 6 till 9 o'clock, p. m.

Mrs. T. M. Webb and family left town a few days ago for Piedmont Springs for the health of the little girl. They will be away about a month.

Mr. W. F. Camp swung to the breeze, Thursday evening last, on a neat pole placed on the lawn near his residence a handsome specimen of the Stars and Stripes. It is 120 feet in size.

Mr. H. B. Sprague was stricken with paralysis Tuesday. The Herald shares the hope of many friends that this venerable and estimable citizen may soon be favored with restoration.

The Burke Junior Reserve had an enjoyable time Friday night on the lawn of Capt. L. A. Bristol, when the privates were regaled with ice cream and cake by the officers of the company.

Rev. T. M. Lowry, of Shelby, preached in the Presbyterian church on Sunday last, in exchange with Rev. Dr. Rose. He has also been holding special services in the church this week. Much interest is manifested.

In another column may be noticed the new advertisement of the Morganton Male Academy, Bruce R. Payne principal. This educational institution has a reputation of a high order, and parents desiring to send their boys to school excellent in every respect will not do better than place them in this academy.

On Sunday last, Mr. Hugh W. Tate, M. D., of Bolivar, Tennessee, arrived in town and is stopping at the home of Squire Powe. Dr. Tate is a prominent and successful physician of Tennessee, being a member of the Board of State Charities. He is pleasantly remembered by many of our older citizens as he resided and practiced his profession here some years ago. He is a brother of Mrs. Powe.

The new Mountain View bicycle way is about ready for the pleasure of bicycle riders. The road begins at the summit of the hill on West Union street, and makes a circuit of the Waldorf residence, now the home of Mr. Every, esq., who, from philanthropic motives and at considerable expense built the track. It is almost level the entire length, and winds about through the orchard and field until it emerges on Friday avenue, about midway between Union street and Mr. Friend's home. This will undoubtedly be a popular resort for riders of the wheel, as the scenery presented in the tour is grand.

According to reports from various parts of the county by the farmers and others who have been in town this week, there is general interest in the celebration here on Monday next, and large numbers of people from the surrounding country expect to be with us on that day and enjoy the sports and scenes that will be presented.

At a meeting of Burke County Farmers, as a rule, are hard working people, but they propose to arrange their affairs so that they can have at least one holiday this year and get the recreation and amusement necessary for the health and happiness of themselves and their families. Monday next they will find in Morganton a free entertainment that will excel anything of the kind ever before seen in this section.

Evidently young Theo. Perkins, the 5-year-old son of John T. Perkins, esq., isn't destined to leave this world as the result of violence. On Friday last Theo. met with an accident, which was the first in his brief existence that had a fatal appearance. His propensity for climbing is the primary cause of his latest misadventure. At the time stated he perched himself upon the railing at the top of the stairs at his home, and losing his balance fell through the open space at the side to the floor below, a distance of about 15 feet, striking on his head and receiving an ugly cut on the forehead. Dr. Laxton sewed up the wound and the young man, though somewhat disfigured, is still in the ring.
