PIEDMONT SECTION.

grave I see the milch cows grazing vived.

Looking northward from the verandah while more distant mountains give a bors' chickens; I will hire a cussin man. at him. back ground of cerulean blue to the Of all the fools upon earth an English As Bill Arp would say, I have been the hammock not far away. There is Madagascar.

Here every prospect pleases And only man is vile."

morning paper, which has just been the poet, the sweetes of all composers of Dr. Whitsitt. banded to me. How shocking are the bymns, the man who wrote: big head lines that tell of a single day's misery and disaster! When, oh, when, will all these horrible things cease to be!

was a slave trader, and made big money day of his life he writes his mother a

Bears in Onslow.

"LEBANON, Fla .- My Dear Sir: Will orphan girls into their home.

Their mother is dead (died from a broken heart) and the father is in jail and has been sentenced to be hanged. "He is much distressed about his helpless children, and begs that you get them into some orphan home. The family are of no kin to me, but I sympathize with the poor little orphan girls in their very sad condition. Please answer me very soon and let me know if they will be shut out because they live out of your state.

"C. C. GAINES. "Postmaster at Lebanon." Now, Mr. Hemphill and Mr. Crumley, can't you make room for these children? May the good Lord have mercy upon

What is the world coming to? The old Mosaic law was; "I will visit the sins of the fathers upon the children," You may put it down, reader, that that but the new law is, "Suffer little chil dren to come unto me, for of such 18 the kindom of heaven." Sometimes I sigh like the poet, Cowper, and say, Oh, for a home in some vast wilderness," where rumor of oppression and the state that could read, and I would ment from the ladies. state read a page aloud every day to his pupils until he had read it all, and if he didn't read it to them, and read it well would turn them out—doggon him, confound him—I am tired paying tax says anything about it." The unwilling fact is that the negroes do not think it very much of a crime. And they

organton

Vol. XV.-No. 13. MORGANTON, N. C., THURSDAY, JUNE 22, 1899.

$1 a Year, in advance.

the north. They don't care a cent if it REV. SAM JONES TACKLES GREAT attorney, Major Stahlman, and congress does cause more lynchings.

And this thing has got all over near London, sent me a late copy of I returned home a few days ago after beginning with next Sunday, I believe: The London Chronicle, a paper as in- a month's absence and with my family I believe if the Methodist church will singing again, and seems supremely fluential as The Times, and the editor moved out into our country home five pray a week, it will be the best thing copies a batch of lies taken from the miles from town. I am enjoying se- possible for us all. Prayer will help us. last United States Howard association clusion and rest now from the constant Fussing and quarreling will never help report which says that slavery has been virtually re-established in the southern states, especially in Georgia and Florida, and that all the horrors pictured in tauquas all the way from Pennsylvania this year, we would land into the year Down in the pasture that fronts our "Uncle Tom's Cabin" have been re- to California. This is delightful work 1900, with a decline in numerical from that to 110 degrees. The better got my dose. during the hot season. I lecture only strength, but with a rousing gain and a peacefully. In our front yard there is a hydrant and the crystal water is allowed in the convict camps are kept in perpetual slavery, and that the female confice a clay and get up repetual slavery, and that the female confice a clay and get up repetual slavery, and that the female confice a clay and get up repetual slavery, and that the female confice a clay and get up repetual slavery, and that the female confice a clay and get up repetual slavery, and that the female confice a clay and get up repetual slavery, and that the female confice a clay and get up repetual slavery, and that the female confice a clay and get up repetual slavery, and that the female confice a clay and get up repetual slavery, and that the female confice a clay and get up repetual slavery, and that the female confice a clay and get up repetual slavery and that the female confice a clay and get up repetual slavery and that the female confice a clay and get up repetual slavery and that the female confice a clay and get up repetual slavery and that the female confice a clay and get up repetual slavery and that the female confice a clay and get up repetual slavery and that the female confice a clay and get up repetual slavery and that the female confice a clay and get up repetual slavery and that the female confice a clay and get up repetual slavery and that the female confice a clay and get up repetual slavery and that the female confice a clay and get up repetual slavery and that the female confice a clay and get up repetual slavery and the clay and get up repetual slavery and the clay and get up repetual slavery and the clay and get up repetual slavery a go, and never contend. Sometimes the amid jeers. The report say there were an agriculturist the year round but a account. The United States senate has anywhere from 25 to 100. peacock wants a drink and the birds retire from his magnificent presence and tire from his magnificent presence and to be the built and will show it to the battle of Manila. Well, I never want to battle of Manila. Well, I never want to battle of Manila. Well, I never want

to be the built and will show it to
the battle of Manila. Well, I never want
to be the built and will show it to
the battle of Manila. Well, I never want
to be the built and will show it to
the battle of Manila. Well, I never want
to be the built and will show it to
the battle of Manila. Well, I never want
to be the built and will show it to
the battle of Manila. Well, I never want
to be the built and will show it to
the battle of Manila. Well, I never want
to be the built and will show it to
the battle of Manila. Well, I never want
to be the built and will show it to
the battle of Manila. Well, I never want
to be the built and will show it to
the battle of Manila. Well, I never want
to be the built and will show it to
the battle of Manila. Well, I never want
to be the built and will show it to
the battle of Manila. Well, I never want
to be the built and will show it to
the battle of Manila. Well, I never want
to be the built and will show it to
the battle of Manila. Well, I never want
to be the built and will show it to
the battle of Manila. Well, I never want
to be the built and will show it to
the battle of Manila. Well, I never want
to be the built and will show it to
the battle of Manila. Well, I never want
to be the built and will show it to
the battle of Manila. Well, I never want
to be the built and will show it to
the battle of Manila. Well, I never want
to be the built and will show it to
the battle of Manila. Well, I never want
to be the built and will show it to
the battle of Manila. Well, I never want to be the built and will show it to forty-seven up to April of this year, of await his lordship's pleasure. A neightbor's parrot has left his cage and is cawing in one of our treep tops. A neighbor's chickens are scratching in the leaves nearby. Fleecy clouds are passing over head and give us alternates and any over head and give us alternates and an in their Sunday clothes going happily as grave as the expension of her empire boxes in town during the day and hoe old songs and pray her prayers and men. They thoroughly unterstood the over Cubs and the Phillippines, and their cotton on the farms, instead of preach repentance to sinners and holiand not far away is a row of flowering peas arrayed in rainbow colors and expeas arrayed in rainbow colors and exdisaster, and says the negro trouble has and muscle we'd have a sturdy set, but these great branches of Protestantism, I the larmers of this country to the disaster, and says the negro trouble has and muscle we'd have a sturdy set, but these great branches of Protestantism, I hostilities until you have experienced become so great that it is feared the the more a man talks the less he works. Apple, geranium and lemon verbenas difficulty cannot be settled but with If there is a man on earth whose job I country, sweeten the breezes at our window. blood. Well, now let's pause awhile—I envy it is a farmer. He cannot commust go out into my garden and let my plain of anyone except providence, and where I sit, the distant hills are piled choler down-I will pick the beans for those complaints are not heard, for God Atchison Globe npon each other in regular irregularity, dinner; I will throw rocks at my neigh- has told us to praise Him and not growl beautiful picture. Here I am rumination fool is the biggest. Whose fathers is ruminating a little since I came home. In the color talking about? England A man can think a little as well as arm chair. Half a hundred magnificent never freed her own slaves until 1845, farm. I have been thinking somewhat maks stand like God's sentinels in the but that editor doesnt know they ever about the three big church cases. The grove before me, lifting their leafy had any. Our southern fathers never Baptist church settled their difficulty on branches toward the sky in adoration of their Creator. The twining maderia vines and Virginia creepers interlace the trellis at my hand and shelter me slave trade in partnership until 1857. resign. Sometimes a fellow will argue will give a reception. nothing in sight this morning but peace A man told me he heard a Chicago against a fact but the fact remains after an beauty. Iunocence is in the air, the drummer say, not long ago, that another sky, the fields, the trees, the birds and drummer told him he heard of a Boston as it was before. Dr. Whitsitt was the wers and children-as the good Bis- banker who wrote to a Chicago broker right or wrong, one. If he was rightand asked him if he didn't want to put and no living man in his denomination some more money in New England rum knows church history better-then to ship to Africa. I expect they are at somebody else was wrong; but it is not Only man; not women or children, or beasts or birds or flowers—only man is business both in England and Massawile. What a contrast to the view be- chuetts just as long as they could find a I say about it. It is settled now and I fore the is found in the columns of the market for the slaves. John Newton, am glad of it, though I am sorry for

The big Briggs squabble was ended by the Episcopal church swallowing the Doctor from head to heels with all contents in the package noted. But if the leading Episcopal bishop in this coun-Only man is vile. If he was made in out of it. One thing is certain, New try thinks that the saloon is the poor the image of God, why should he be England rum is still made in Boston man's club I don't see why they should doing the deeds of the devil? The cost from Cuba molasses in large quantities, kick at Dr. Briggs. I had rather take and I would like to know where they in Briggs with all his heresies than to The cost of courts and prisons and guards and police; the cost in loss of is still buying slaves from somebody. put a club in the hands of every whitetime and labor: but this is nothing com-But, pshaw, we are all brethren now, to fight the good people who would with the cost in grief and misery. Here is a letter that is but a sample of what comes to me in my daily mail, for the poor creatures think that I can do some gether in unity—I'm loving everybody gether in unity—I'm loving everybody will do less harm than Bishop Potter's now-except some-I'm going to love liberal views on the saloon question. that yellow Dammers and French and Really, there is nothing out of perdiyou please give the name and address old mother Julia Ward Howe by proxy tion worse than a saloon, and when a of some orphan asylum in Georgia that if I can find the proxy. Maybe Joe would probably take three poor little Wheeler will take the job. BILL ARP. swallow and digest anything else that comes along. A church like that can take its place along with the alligators of Florida, which, when nothing else

We know of a young man, already appears, masticate and live on pine beyond his majority; who is a traveling knots. salesman for an important firm. Every The Methodist church with its bishops and book committee have decided that letter, long or short. And every day of the Publishing House matter shall reher life his mother writes to him. Is main in statu quo until the next genthat a bad sign? The young man is a eral conference meets; that it is not a trusted employee, having risen from the matter for any official or officials to lowliest position to one of high respondence or regulate, and furthermore discipline of the class. A man who has member, together with Company C Jud sibility. Reader, do you think that it that if the parties complained at resign, impairs that young man standing with they have no one into whose hands to that firm to have it known that every place their resignation, and no one has day he writes his mother, that his the right to appoint their successor in mother is his confidant, that he loves to office. Really, I have never seen the spend his time in her company, and kneel beside her in evening prayer? ence together on the subject. The genis not the sort of young man that turns know all the facts connected with the Young men, we have adopted a rule transaction. I am sure most of them that all of you who like to smoke can did know the whole thing from bottom deceit might never reach me. When I do so, but please do not smoke in com-read of murder and suicides and bur-pany with ladies. If you want to smoke, in session and a knowledge of all facts glaries and arson and horrible outrages it please go out on the porch or yard. Our before them, if they did not act then, makes me sad and then there is always rule is to stop smoking in the parlor what is the use in calling another cousomething in them the paper to make with ladies, for we think if a gentleman ference? I saw the Congressional Recme mad—some lies and slander or some has the respect for a lady that he ought ord with all the testimony and facts to have he would not smoke while in her published. It was being circulated at Governor Northen made a great speech presence. We have some nice young la- the general conference last May at Baidies who have a desire to be respected; timore. The thing was talked of a good In Boston, and I am glad it has been dies who have a degre to be respected; union. The tonig was taken or a good come prevalent in any civilized compounted in phamphlet form, and if I was therefore, we have made this rule to deal, and with all the facts before many munity. A British scientific commisthe state I would order enough of show our respect for them. Please fol-them to give a copy to every child in low the rule, or you may get cold treatcountry), they re-elected their book agents without opposition, and, if I Mrs. McPherson was attracted by the mistake not, the entire book committee following advertisement the other day :

without a change. "To the public.—A gentleman who was Now what is the use of talking about been done. If the officials in charge of plant there is a negro barber of the being the person of the person pending for thirty years and more, had been up time and again, and it took a The minister, with his little son We are informed by a correspondent from Onslow that bears in the neighbor-

The Methodist bishops have recomnended to the church a week of prayer, subscribe myself, a plain farmer in the SAM P. JONES.

As a Man Sees Her.

Another Atchison girl who gets $40 month for sitting in an office will recook for love and her board. When a girl has a new engagemen ing she finds many occasions for feeling if her back hair is in good order. Mean people say that the man widow selects to support her at her husband's funeral is the one she usually marries afterward.

grandchildren are merrily swinging in vessel with a mixed crew on the coast of or facts, the fellow that said it must they read in the paper that Mrs. Blank By the time a man has saved up enough money to have a palm and a brussels carpet in his parlor his girl has reached the "company" age and he is not allowed to sit there. Several years ago an Atchison man married a slender, modest little darling, hawk and dove. Now the wife weighs twice as much as her husband, has whiskers and talks bass. When a woman is old and bilious she explains it in a poetical way by eaying she is fading away like a lily. When a woman begins to admire man she begins to persecute him. There comes a time to every married woman when she has to use a sort of faith cure on her belief in her husband's affections.

It is a pitiful truth that women trust their daughters with men whom their husbands wouldn't trust to open an account. A certain Atchison woman is always invited to serve the brick ice cream at parties for the reason that she cuts it in were landed, about 1 P. M., the city such thin slices. Would something terrible happen if girl forgot to tie up those terrible buttons on the back of her skirt, and is it possible under present fashion conditions for a girl to dress without the assistance of the neighbors?

Reputation Helps Character.

Sunday School Times. Reputation helps to make character. To be continually telling a boy that he for the night. The next morning we is a bad boy is more likely to make him received orders to be in readiness at 3 worse than better. To give a class the P. M., with 200 rounds of ammunition reputation of being the "worst class in each, but we were to reconnoitre the school." and to keep noising it abroad, surrounding country, and at the time served out a term in prison for crime and one light battery, consisting of one finds it hard to show himself trustworthy, Hotchkiss and one Gatling, started out, becaue nobody trusts him. His repu- and we had hardly gone half a mile, tation as an ex-prisoner clings to him, when we were fired on from a large need of their calling a general confer-will, reform seems hopeless to him, and the enemy was concealed, and while he sinks back to the level to which his we were in column of fours. The first bad reputation has been depreciating volley wounded Corporal Sparks and

Soap an Enemy to Disease.

New York World. Cholera, once a pestilence in presen less, is no longer regarded with serious and we certainly made it hot for those apprehension by the health authorities of any clean city. Typhus and small-pox, subtly contagious as they are, have been literally washed out of the have been literally washed out of the health authorities black devils. Their bullets were as thick as hail, and I can't for the life of me understand how more of us were have been literally washed out of the health authorities black devils. Their bullets were as thick as hail, and I can't for the life of me understand how more of us were have been literally washed out of the health authorities black devils. Their bullets were as thick as hail, and I can't for the life of me understand how more of us were have been literally washed out of the health authorities black devils. Their bullets were as the control of the life doesn't die dat way. Et anybody the description of the one wanted for known of a Church dat died 'cause of its murder.' come prevalent in any civilized comsion has officially declared that scarlet fever, diphtheria and measles could be forever eliminated from the list of maladies if only perfect cleanliness the city, which we succeeded in capturcould be enforced for a single generation of men.

ARMY LIFE IN PHILIPPINES. Private Warren E. Sadier Writes

Warren E. Sadler, son of Prof. W. H.

Sadler, who is a member of Company A, Eighteenth United States Infantry writes from Jaro, Philippine Islands, to his brother, F. A. Sadler, as follows: been below 75 degrees, and ranging while returning to the firing line that if The natives look as though they were literally dried up by the sun, and are the homeliest creatures I ever saw. of the shoulder and was cut out of my mencement exercises. Along our gar-den fence the variegated cannas lift their proud heads in peaceful beauty, Howard Association appeals to humantwo months. You will never have an has but one suit of clothes. hostilities until you have experienced for a big black one. it. On November 2 we were sent to > where we remained unil Christmas looking wise and keeping his mouth Day, when we were loaded aboard the closed mmense transport Arizona and sailed for Iloilo, 350 miles distant. We remained on board the Arizona until the on it. assault and capture of Iloilo, February

>
> 11. That day I shall never forget. The > calify a bad man who goes wrong is in
>
>
> the $500.
>
> The Soc borning city will ever be vivid in my I ever spent were aboard that ship.
>
> Just imagine, if you can, 1,400 soldiers Worr aboard one boat. You can readily when the first shot was fired from the Callao the boys nearly went mad. February 11 two Pilipino officers, with The mere sight of one has been known their escorts, came over to our ship to to raise the hair of an editor. collect port charges, and they were rein command, but has since retired. gets there fails to arrive. They stated their business to him, and and returned to the city with blood in with him. their eyes.' About two hours later they fired on the Callao, which was lying about 200 yards from shore, commanding their fort and the entrance to the harbor. The Callao immediately replied with her 6-pounders, and in less been quite ill." than 30 minutes their fort was comhad it on fire in several places.

The Filipinos had made threats that before they would surrender the town they would lay it in ashes, and they certainly carried it out, for when we was a veritable hell. They had placed gasoline all over the town, and when they saw that we intended landing they touched it off, and today, with the exception of the water front, there is not a business house and very few resi-dences standing in the city. They tried to burn the water front, but we were too hot on their trail, so they 'vamoosed.' We did not attempt to follow them into the country, so we threw out outposts and went in camp although we could not see the enemy, at the same time throwing out a skir-mish line, which was very hard to do, as we had been fired on so unexpectedly that the men became demonslized for the time being but soon recovered.

The same time throwing out a skir-mish line, which was very hard to do, as we had been fired on so unexpectedly that the men became demonslized minister said to the people, "Brother for the time being but soon recovered."

A mulatto who gives his name as 10m Myers, aged about fifty years, was arrested at Winston on the 13th on suspicion of being Ed. Whitney, who shot and killed Policeman Moran, of Charland and killed P and we did not reply until they were within 1,000 yards of us. We could Ida Wells made big money out of her lies year ago, and now she and her partners have got up nother Sam Hose case, and have had hundreds of thousands of pamphlets of thousands of pamphlets perinted that contained that the claim sympathizing ear, ending with the relation of the look of the day of the congress of the United States was just. It was none of the business mark, I've had my nose held to the grindstone for thirty years."

Charlotte aldermee have passed an ordinance prohibiting spitting or throw in a while, is it, doctor?" "Well, that or in public buildings on the side of the country they can keep up this grindstone for thirty years."

Charlotte aldermee have passed an ordinance prohibiting spitting or throw mark, I've had my nose held to the grindstone for thirty years."

Charlotte aldermee have passed an ordinance prohibiting spitting or throw in a while, is it, doctor?" "Well, that depends a great deal on the spirit with depends a great deal on the spirit w

The Gatling and Hotchkiss shells burst right among a group of them, and I don't think one escaped. This fight lasted pretty nearly three hours, during which time nine of our boys were killed and 31 wounded, myself included. R. L. Grigsby, a good friend and 'bunky' of mine, was killed within three feet of me, and I helped to carry him from the field. One of those large Remington bullets hit him in the fore-"The thermometer here has never head, killing him instantly. It was "I was hit with a Mauser, which made a painful but not dangerous and it overflows to a little grass-hidden pool where the pigeons drink and bathe, and where the jaybids and thrushes and English sparrows come and sip and English sparrows come and sip and the pigeons drink and bathe, and English sparrows come and sip and English sparrows come Charity may begin at bome, but re orm begins elsewhere. The world owes every man an exist ence, but not a living.

There's no re-dress for A little white lie is always sidetracked Cavite, a city just across the bay from hard, but it's usually pretty smooth. The way of the transgressor may Manila, which we had to guard, and A man can make a good bluff by Literary men resemble hens. The Worry never cures an evil, but it When ording a new ribbon for your for her or for it. The poet possesses wonderful power.

The individual who spends his time ferred to General Miller, who was then in telling what he is going to do after he

The evil that men do lives after them. our noble General refused, with thanks. Even when an amateur cornetist dies They seemed very much put out, he cannot take the fatal instrument

> A Slight Mlounderstanding. "Nellie," said a mother to her little

In a few minutes Nellie came run. of it is northward. pletely demolished. While this was taking place the Boston was throwing shell after shell into the city proper and "Why, Nellie," said the astonished "Why, Nellie," said the astonishe mother, "what did you ask her?" "Just what you told me to," replied

> Branch-Tree, congratulate me, and come along and take something. Yes, you've got to go. It's a 10-pound hoy -my first, you know. Tree-Really, Branch, you must exnot insist now; I am in no mood for it.

Branch-What's the matter, old man? Tree-It's a boy at our house, too. My eighth, you know. Judge-Your face is familiar. I've seen you before. Prisioner-Yes, your Honor.

Judge-Ah! What was the charge the last time I saw you? Prisioner-I think it was 15 cents, your Honor. I mixed a cocktail for you,

A devout colored preacher, whose gave notice to his congregation that in the evening an offertory would be taken for missions, and asked for liberal gifts.

A solfab with missionary zeal, on the roof and set fire to the barn which was burned, together with a mule and a decree was granted. The land eral conference was in session after the transaction of the book agents and transaction of the book agents and largely upon their reputation, we should largely upon their reputation. every delegate, with every bishop, had ample time and opportunity to see and tion.

A selfish, well-tc-do man in his conjugate.

A malatto who gives his name as Tom comfortable fortune.

of which medical science stood helpfor the time being, but soon recovered, Jones told me I was gwine to kill dis made by Policeman Masten, upon reaid of a heavy cane, in vain search for givin' too much to the Lord, I'll be dashes, drop- fire six shots, fill magazines and make another 50-yard dash.

wery much obliged ef my brother will county, had a terrible fight with a mad form of her former husband she felt all dog Friday. The dog invaded his press.

BRING YOUR

JOB PRINTING

THE HERALD OFFICE

First Class Work at Lowest Prices.

Makes the food more delicious and wholesome

STATE NEWS.

Bishop Cheshire, the Episcopal bishop The navy is co-operating with the of this diocese, will be married July 19th army in the fighting near Manila, shellto Miss Mitchell, of Ellicott City, Md.

It appears to be settled that the First Regiment band will locate in Asheville, presentative Henderson, of Iowa, will that town having about raised the be elected Speaker of the next House of Rowan's court house for $9,770. Rev. Peyton H. Hoge, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Wilmin-ton, since 1885, has accepted the call to Warren Memorial church, Louisville, Filipino loss is estimated at 400. It is said that the assessors will this rear raise the valuation of the Vandermillion dollars. The valuation last year Hall, are said to have received intimabilt estate to a figure approximating one was about $600,000. Julian S. Carr, of Durham, offered erize of $500 to the county casting the argest percentage of its registered vote author lays a plot and the editor sits on it.

The good man who goes wrong is in the $500.

In gent percentage of its registered vote in favor of the levy of a special tax for public schools. Currituck county wins benefit of a pension fund for teachers.

The Southern has decided to run pas-seager trains from Mt. Airy via Win-cials of Chicago to do likewise. memory, but the most miserable days minds they leave out a lot of important ston, on and after July 1st. Mixed trains will be operated between Greensboro and Mt. Airy, over the old C. F. & House, is a famous singer, having a typewriter always specify whether it's drawing $1 per month from the county, singing is indulged in by members of Amanda Hall by name, and keeps the House.

> lightning near Neatman, Stokes county, no United States soldiers are quartered. on the 10th. She was sitting near a The so called bandits are mostly negroes window at the time. Her clothes were who come from the east with the Cutorn off. Her five children in the room ban army of invasion. They have taken

It is asserted by some of its prominent roads and are robbing at night. citizens that the negro exodus from Wilmington as that city's best sign of pro- Charlotte News. gress. It is said that at least 2,500 nedaughter, "I wish you would run over gross have gone, and it is hoped this

The Chatham Record says that Mr. A depression in a single industry James T. Myrick, of Bear Creek township, Chatham county, met with a sud- prosperity of the town. When other den death recently. While riding a towns are in the grip of hard times horse his hat fell off, and, suddenly these towns are enjoying the usual the little innocent. "I told her you checking his horse in order to recover prosperity. his hat, he lost his balance and fell to Washington Duke, the senior of the It says: noted Durham tobacco firm, has given "For the life us we do not know why Trinity College there nearly half a mil. a community wants to break itself to lion dollars, but it is said this gift is raise $75,000 to build a cotton factory cuse me this mo'ning, for I cannot enter into the spirit of the occasion. Do make that well-known Methodist instritution. His son Ben has given $50,. dozen spoke and handle or chair facto-> work of a little insect or worm. The day. It is full of furniture factories. Winston Sentinel says it is stated among old people that these insects always appear and destroy apples the year before locust year. Next year is locust year, ago Henry Ballantyne and wife, of this

Quite a queer accident occurred dur ing a recent thunderstorm at Burlington was burned. It is alleged that lightdash's, drop-fire six shots, fill magazines and make another 50-yard dash, using the same tactics until we reached the woods; then the general was wounded, and we made a charge for the city, which we succeeded in capturing and driving the natives way beyond its outskirts. We killed about 75 of them going through the streets of the town, as we had clear shooting, and words are the firm of the sister's young man.

"Is your sister at home, Willier" asked Willie's sister's young man.

"No; I heard her say she was engaged this afernoon—but don t be succeeded in the city, which we succeeded in capturing and driving the natives way beyond its outskirts. We killed about 75 of them going through the streets of the town, as we had clear shooting, and we had clear shooting, and the streets of the town, as we had clear shooting, and the streets of the town, as we had clear shooting, and the streets of the town, as we had clear shooting, and the streets of the town as feat as we had clear shooting, and the first as the first as the county, had a terrible fight with a mad dog Friday. The dog invaded his premises, attacked and bit a horse, cow and then dashed into the house after the farmer's wife and three children. Fuller ran into the room, while his wife and children stood upon a bed, and he met the dog's charge with a blow from a hatchet. The dog fought till the last but he was finally killed. It is said to Highmore together.

She: "Sometimes you appear really manly, and sometimes you are also lutely effeminate. How do you account for it?" He: "I suppose it is hereditary. Half my ancestors were males and the other half females."

The figure orders that the fighters and when beaten they retire to the mountains and concentrate again in our rear, when it is necessary for the American column to move on, or occupy the ground from which they have been driven if the Americans fall back.

Charlotte aldermen have passed an ordinance prohibiting spitting or throwing towns on the bay shore. It now appears to be settled that Re-

GENERAL SEWS.

Congress to succeed Reed, resigned. Rev. Dr. Talmage will deliver the an-

General Lawton, with 4,500 men, has moved from Manile to Las Pinas, driv-

John C. Sheehan and his friends, who are going to make war on Richard Croker for the control of Tammany tions from the Platt people of a wil-Superintendent E. Benjamın An-He has made the fund the residuary

A note from D. D. Anderson says that patriotic songs and rolicking choruses, in his neighborhood there is a pauper and always starts and leads whatever

A dispatch from Havana save beig-Mrs. Fannie Timmons was killed by a reign of terror prevails in towns where possession of towns outside of the rail-and see how old Mrs. Smith is; she has number will be doubled. There is no of the most prosperous towns in North abatement of the exodus. Nearly all Carolina. They owe their prosperity to manufacturing establishments.

his hat, he lost his balance and fell to the ground, striking his head on a rock, and instantly died. Speaking along this tine, Charity and Children, published at Thomasville, makes the following sensible suggestion.

000 and intends to give an equal amount ries that will declare 25 per cent. How ville doing that very thing, and with We noted last week that the apples the labor of men, not babies. High were falling off in some sections, the Point is rich and growing richer every so these people say, and these insects place, agreed to separate, having been are destroying the apples considerably. married not quite twelve months. Ballantyne was a prosperous grain buyer, the 13th. The barn of J. C. McAden more, which he deeded to his wife.