

"The Mexican shepherd also has his dog, though not a true-bred, clear-cut, zles, and might at a little distance be mistaken for wolves. But, ugly and mean as they are, the Mexican shepherd has the art of training them so that they are as serviceable as is the collie to the shepherd of the Scottish mooorlands. The Mexican sheepdog is loyal to his master and quick to understand, Many a Mexican shepherd owes his life to his dog, who notified him of the sneaking approach of hostile Indians or of their ambush in his "Returning to the original subject, a pair of goats once led a flock on a long journey. A shepherd of Valencia

County, New Mexico, herding a flock of wethers on a range remote from the home camp had the misfortune to lose his dog through the attack of a mountain lion and to break his leg on the same day. Had the dog been alive he could have sent him to the home ranch to summon assistance. As it was, he had to see the sheep wander away.

while he dragged himself to the place where his provisions were stored, and waited for such help as chance might bring him. Five days later the sheep, path ahead.

two and not in either taken separate- again to be bossed by him; they want again to have to go through would be in the combination of the gro in politics; they don't intend ever Bellamy will be unseated in the Sixth District.

ernor Taylor, gathered in the legislative hall usually occupied by the louse of Representatives. Govern ing broken. Mrs. Jay Gould is a large stockholder in the concern.

A letter from High Point of the old, but if he is really a Christian he must believe as much of the old testament as the Savior and His s did. It was Ohrist who said cussion of the financial bill the Senate transacted only routine business and adjourned early to enable members

DAVAT ly, and of course both would have to the terrors which darkened their fall together." homes during the past two years of Farmer: "Well, really, that seems sections. Now, I would like to ask you If there is any probability of the two sections taken together being held to e unconstitutional?" .

Business Man: "None in the world. I am not a lawyer, but I have talked with a great many able lawyers about this matter and I have read pretty much all that has been about it, and I find that every lawyer of any standing who has investigated the amendment has reached the conclusion that it is constitutional. I know some lawvers who thought it was not constitutional when they first read it, but as soon as they investigated it they changed their minds. I understand that our amendment is a copy of the Louisiana amendment, and that that was prepared by two of the greatest lawyers the South has profluced, after long investigation, and that they prepared it so that it would not be open to valid constitutional objections.I know Butler and Pritchard say that it is unconstitutional. But neither of them has any reputation as a lawyer. Indeed, one of them has just got his upon this subject, it seems to me, ought to be accepted as settling this question. He is regarded as the biggest man the South has produced since the war, and is the ablest lawyer in amendment will bring 'about a new to me. the United States Senate, and he de- era of prosperity; because it will draw clared in a speech delivered in the to North Carolina both capital and Senate a few days ago that he hadcarefully investigated it and it was while there is danger of negro rule; clearly constitutional. In fact, he said the Supreme court of the United lot of mean, worthless white men who States had already, in a case from Mississippi, decided practically the are unfit to fill."

legal principle involved in favor of the constitutionality of the amendment. All this talk about the amendment being unconstitutional is simply to scare the people. Have not you noticed every time the people want to enact into law any great reform, the mere question of white man against opponents of the people raise the question of its unconstitutionality? If the people were to listen to these votes against the amendment will just demagogues they would never change simply be voting for the negro against their laws in any important particu- his own race." lars."

Farmer: "I never took any stock in the suggestion that the Grandfather clause would be struck out of the amendment and the educational clause would be kept in, because it was always plain to me that whoever voted for one of these sections would have to vote for the other, and that if in was not for the 5th section the people would not vote for the amendment at by providing that it shall stand or all, and that the court would see that fall as a whole, has struck a popular the people voted for the amendment chord. The Progressive Farmer has with the 5th section in it, and if it to say of it editorially: "It now seems should strike that out it would be fore- certain that the legislature at its June ing upon the people an amendment to session will pass an amendment to the their constitution, which they did not proposed Constitutional amendment, vote for and never would have voted providing that in case one section is for. But the Republicans are trying declared unconstitutional the entire to frighten the people by telling them amendment shall become inoperative. that the present Republican Supreme This in response to a just and rapidly Court of this State will have the de- growing popular demand." clding of this matter, and they will decide it with the Republicans. I always thought that when a question about it (the 9) which met here and dethe Constitution of the United States nounced the amendment, and who in not so?"

you are entirely right about that. The was falter to the words. When the North Carolina on this question would man Peace will discover his error. A of the United States alone can finally rule of "the nine."

to be clear from the reading of the two negro rule in North Carolina. It ton gives the following account of seems to me if anything we people in Congressman George H. White's the country are more interested in this speech there Monday: The negro Congressman White made question than you are in the town. You can rely upon the country to vote another exhibition of himself in the house in rising to a question of white this year." Businees Man: "My friend, I am personal privilege to reply to an editorial in a Raleigh paper (The News mighty glad to hear you talk that way. The white people living out in the and Observer). He again flaunted in country are indeed deeply interested the face of the people of North Caroin this question. The ratification of lina that white women are as immoral as negro women, and that white men the amendment means more to them, as you say, than it does to the people are more criminal than black men of criminal assaults. Among other living in the towns, but it means great good to all of us, whether we live in things, after having the editorial read, the country or in the town. Person he said:

"Mr. Speaker, I desire to give that ally, I am going to vote for it because. vile, slanderous publication the widest I believe it is a just measure; because possible circulation. I desire that it I believe it will be better for the acgro, as well as the white man; because shall go out through documents of this house that the world may see what I think the white man is entitled by right and by superiority of "intellect the poor colored man in the Southland and natural capacity to control the at-, has to undergo from a certain class. tairs of the State; because I do not In making this statement it is proper, want to see any such conditions again Mr. Speaker, that I should exonerate as we had in North Carolina in 1597 a very large percentage of the white and 1898; because I believe when the people of North Carolina, my native State. No better people live anynegro is eliminated from politics he will become a better citizen, more do- where on God's green earth than some license. Senator Morgan's opinion cile and more industrious, and will of them. But unfortunately men of cease to be an element of discord, the type of him who wrote that article are now in the ascendency. I desire to constantly breeding strife and con flict between him and the white man: repudiate as slanderous and wholly because I believe the adoption of this untrue the utterances there attributed

"I did, the other day' while my colleague (Mr. Linney) was speaking interject a remark to the effect that from immigration, which will never come because it will drive into obscurity & preyed upon the prejudices of the necity, I had found that less than fifteen gro that they may secure offices they per cent. of the assaults committed upon women, not in the South, but in Farmer: "Well, our talk has helped the entire United States, were chargeme mightily. I feel like every white able to the crime of rape. I repeat that utterance. I did not justify the man in North Carolina ought to put commission of assaults by black men his shoulder to the wheel for this amendment. It looks to me like a upon white women on the ground that white men did the same in regard to negro, just like it was in 1898. It seems to me that any white man who women and that they were not all committed by black men upon white women, but were also committed by white men upon black women, as evidenced the Southland. I said that then; I repeat it now; and if any man here or Proposition to Amend the Amend ment Favorably Rec. lved.

A GOOD SUGGESTION.

(Special Raleigh Correspondence.) The decision of the -Democrats to amend the constitutional amendment courts, not by infuriated mobs, such as the writer of that article would incite. "Mr. Speaker, this article is but the evidence of what we have got to contend with-un absolute perversion and shanderous misrepresentation of the truth-preparing for an election to be

A. S. Peace of the Populist State Committee, or rather of that part of was to be settled, that the Supreme fact himself prepared the address to been enfranchised, are to be reduced Court of the United States was. the the people containing the denunciation, only court that could settle it; is that said all the Populists, no matter how they voted in 1898, were now solidly Pusiness Man: "Why, certainly, against the amendment. The wish lecision of the Supreme Court of Populist convention meets committeenot be binding. The Supreme Court result is brewing now against the ring I want my colleagues in this house implicated. both Democrats and Republicans, with settle a question of this sort, and Sen- Josephers Daniels, Democratic na- Populists thrown in, to judge my char-White's Speech.

A special dispatch from Washing-there were two courses to be pursued. First, to sign the Louisville agreement; second, to guletly withdraw the troops, allow the legislature to reconvene in the capitol in Frankfort, to call off the session now being held in. agreement entirely.

Several speeches were made, and it was soon apparent that the sentiment of the gathering was very strongly in favor of the second course, and this was adopted. This action was decided upon at 1 o'clock, and the first information of the decision was given to the outside world by Governor Taylor, himself. He came rapidly through the doors unattended and locking nervous and haggard. He walked hastily toward the capitol stairway, repeating several times to the newspaper men who stood in the hall, "I don't sign," "I don't sign," "I don't sign." From the capitol he passed to the executive building, where he at once made up and signed the following proclamation, reconvening the Legislature at Frank-

"Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 10. "The excitement recently prevailing In this city having to some extent subsided and there appearing now to be no necessity for the General Assembly to the investigation which I made last remain in session in London, I do heresummer, as stated in a paper which I by, by this proclamation, reconvene read before a local organization of this the same in Frankfort, Ky., on February 12, 1900, at 12 o'clock noon. (Signed) "W. S. TAYLOR, "Governor." Orders were at once issued to General Collier to prepare for the departure of the troops, and in a very short time a large number of them were black women. I said that there were ready to leave. Six companies left assaults occasionally committed upon Saturday nightt, only a small detachment will remain. These will be retained only as a peace guard and willin no way be obtruded upon the pres-by the great numbers of mulattoes in |ence of the Legislature.

London, By Cable.-The War Office elsewhere desires to verify the truth fulness of that statement, he has but still maintains silence regarding the to make a visit through the Southland, situation at the seat of war, announcwhere I live. I repudiate as much as ing at 11:30 Saturday that no further any man can any one, whether he be white brute or black brute, who com- news had been received and none has come from other sources which would mits an assault upon any woman, whether white woman or black wo give a clue to General Buller's moveman. I think such a man ought to be ments since he recrossed the Tugela, or hanged-hanged by the neck until to the present positions of the forces. dead; but it ought to be done by the Telegraphic Briefs.

Richard Croker writes from Scotland that his broken leg is healing and he expects to throw away his crutches by the middle of this month.

The Atha Illingsworth Steel Works. at Harrison, N. J., were burned Sature held in August; and the world in notiday night. fied that those whom the Constitution

Information reached Norfolk Saturof these United States, by the fourday of a fatal shooting affray, which teenth and fifteenth amendments, have occured at Norfolk, Va. The . victim was Wm. J. Jenkins, a well known atonce more to the condition of goods torney, and John Wampler is named as and chattels if such men as the one the man fired the fatal shot. The who edits the Raleigh paper in question can have the control of affairs in shooting was occasioned by a dispute North Carolina. As I said before, I over a piece of land which Sam Wax want to give the fullest publication to and Wampler sold John Bates. Wax, the utterances of this vile sheet; and it is said, was wounded and Bates is Tobacco Hands Fight.

Taylor stated to the conference that at least 300 persons have left that city during the past week in order to escape compulsory vaccination.

Wm. Truesdale, colored, was hanged in the jail yard in Charlotte Thursday for the murder of his sweetheart a year ago. He had to be taken to the scaffold, being overcome with fright London and to ignore the Louisville He protested his innocence to the last, The Salisbury correspondent of the Charlotte Observer says that "the city has decided to help the county bear the expense incurred during the smallpox epidemic. The cost of the epidemic in this county will reach $5,000. Salisbury will likely pay $1,000 of this amount.

Julian S. Carr, Geo. W. Watts and L. A. Carr, all of Durham, applied to the Secretary of State to be incorporated under the style and title of the Durham Telephone Manufacturing Company. The business to be carried on is the manufacture and sale of telephones, switch-boards, electrical and mechanical appliances, and "all kinds of electrical supplies generally." The company also has the power to buy, sell, lease and convey lands, to hold and use patents and patent rights and to enter into contracts with inventors or owners for the purchase of such rights. The principal officers will be located at Durham. The capital stock is $12,000 and a charter of 50 years is asked for.

The "Independent Steam Boat Line" files articles of incorporation with the Secretary of State and asks that a charter be granted it with permission to construct steamboats and navigate the waters of Neuse and Trent rivers and the waters of Eastern North Carolina, to carry passengers and freight for hire, at a scale of tariffs to be fixed by the officers of the company. The principal officers will be at Newbern, N. C., and the charter will run 50 ---- ars. The incorporators are Jesse J. Lassiter, Ellen Lassiter, Nicholas W. Johes, and Emma Jones, all of Newbern, The capital stock is $5,000 with privilege of Increase to $25,000.

is $6,570,000, and the valuation of property is $269,867,000.

H. D. Cowles, clerk of the United States Dis ict Court's, has been at Washington trying to block legislation to give Charlotte a separate clerk for the United States Court, located there. Congressman Bellamy expects, despite Mr. Cowles' effonts, to get the same established in a very short time. He says it is an outrage that a city of the size of Charlotte is without a resident clerk.

A new vegetable canning factory is contracted to be built at Winston.

Congressman Small has introduced bill to increase the appropriation for does, there would be no object lessons from $50,000 to $80,000.

Through the efforts of Congressma request yesterday.

The State charters the Harriet Cotton Mills at Henderson, capital $150, 000, D. Y. Cooper, George Badger Harris and others stockholders. The mill will both spin and weave.

The report of miscellaneous factories in this State, which the labor commisston will make, will show a great in-

There are now 203 students at the Baptist University in Raleigh. It is a in the parable of Dives and Lazarus, "If they will not believe Moses and the prophets, neither will they believe though one rose from the dead." This is that Moses who predicted the coming of the Savior when he was giving the laws to the children of Israel-that Moses to whom God intrusted the tables of stone that contained the commandments, and who wrote the most beautiful song in the Psalms of David -that Moses who appeared in glory on the mount while the Savior was transhe was faithful as a testimony of those things which were to come after. References are too numerous to quoteall showing that Moses was the vicegerent of the Almighty, and was a prophet inspired by Him.

No, Mr. Abbott cannot uphold the new testament and pull down the old. He must sustain or demolish all. It is the same old attack of science upon miracles because they cannot be explained upon any hypobhesis of human reason; when the truth is that Mr. Abbott himself is a stupendous miracle, and cannot tell how he thinks or where the power of thought or the the chair (Mr. Frye), Mr. Allen confaculty of memory is located, nor how he can at will raise his hand or close his eye; nor how he took form and shape in his mother's womb. All naaughter. ture is a miracle; the leaves of the trees, the color of the flowers, the flight of birds, the infinite smallness of matter and germs, the infinite magnitude and boundless extent of the heavens and of space, and in all creation there is nothing that has pride. vanity and self-conceit save man-an agnostic or skeptic or an infidel-"The fool (only) has said in his heart, there is no God.'

I have recently visited the good old city of Columbus and received its hospitality and benedictions. It is just my age, and through all these years has moved steadily and surely forward. manufacturing with serenity and dignity the character its cultured men and women gave it in the beginning, How broadly beautiful it was laid out; how bountiful is its shade; how green The bonded debt of North Carolina the grass on its public grounds; how beautiful the river that girdles it. Not for a single year has there been any retrograde in the manners or morais of its people. Considering its climate, society and prosperity I do not know a city that I had rather live in. It is already large enough for moral safety, for Jefferson spoke a truth when he said that great cities were pestilential to good health and good morals. Of course, we favor the increase of an industrial population that keep the wheels and spindles turning and the wolf from the doorand the beggar from the streets and if every city cared for ks operatives in the mills as Columbus of misery to be carried before the the public building at Elizabeth City legislature. I visited the yung men's club rooms of the Eagle and Phenix mills. Yes, club rooms for factory boys where they can spend their eve-Klutts the postmaster at Salisburg will nings and read and write and bathe be allowed an extra clerk with a salary and exercise instead of going to the of $300, the department granting the galoons. The beautiful library has 2,090 yolumes of standard books and the reading tables are furnished with the best newspaper and magazine literature. I cannot enumerate the pleasant and attractive features of these rooms. They are all free or nearly so to the factory boys who become members. Colonel Gunby Jordan is the big-hearted promoter of this attachment to the mills and the mill crease in all save tobacco factories. owners pay all the expenses.

Shakespeare says: "The evil that to attend the obsequies of General handsome animal like the Scotch col-Lawton. Mr. Allison presented the lie. The dogs are mongrels, in all varcredentials of his colleague, John H. jeties and degrees, the only point of Gear, re-elected Senator from Iowa, uniformity among them being their exfor a term of six years from March 4, treme ugliness in appearance and in 1901. The credentials were filed. disposition towards strangers. Some Senator Jones, of Arkansas, introare shaggy beasts, with pointed muz-duced a free silver coinage substitute for the pending currency bill. The substitute provides that "from and after the passage of this act, the mints of the United States shall be open to the coinage of silver, and there shall be coined dollars of the weight of 412figured-that Moses of whom Paul said 1-2 grains troy, of standard silver 9-10 fine, as provided by the act of January 18, 1837, and upon the same terms

Forty-fourth Day .- A resolution ex pressing sympathy to rihe Boers in their struggle against Great Britain and urging mediation on the part of the United States between the belligerents, was adopted by the Senate in a fit of temporary aberration of aittention. The resolution was offered by Mr. Allen, of Nebraska, and went through without attracting the slightest comment from any one of the dozen or more Senators present. A minute later, however, at the request of sented to a reconsideration of the vote by which the resolution was passed and the incident closed, amid much The financial debate was continued by Mr. Ohandler, who up-posed the gold standard and strongly urged the double standard. Mr Money, of Mississippi, also spoke.

led by the corporal goats, appeared at HOUSE. the home ranch, eighty miles away. Fortieth Day-The Philippine question again occupied the attention of the They had crossed two mountain ranges by paths of their own finding, and out house, Mr. Williams, of Mississippi, of a flock of 1,900 sheep only seven presented an argument against the appexation of the Philippines, which were missing. There was, of course, attracted much attention. It was demuch good luck in this, for a dash of voted almost entirely to the commertimber wolves among them would not cial aspects of the acquisition, holding only have meant the killing of many that the absorption of the islands sheep on the spot, but would have would be ultimately ruinous to the scattered the rest of the flock far and American producers of cotton, rice, towide. The marvel was the intelligence bacco, hemp and sugar. After some remarks by Mr. Smith of of the goats in returning by an unfamiliar path to the place where they had Michigan, supporting the Boer side of the South African contention, the been bred, and the implicit faith of the sheep in their leadership. Of course, house at 5 p. m. adjourned. Forty-first Day .- The House finishthe arrival of the sheep at the home ed the diplomatic and consular approranch led to the sending out of a priation bill, passing it substantially as searching party for the shepherd. He it came from the committee. There was brought in on a litter rigged bewas some desultory discussion of the tween two donkeys, and, though his Philippines question and the war in South Africa, the principle feature be- injury had become very painful from ing the speech of Mr. Shafroth, in fa- neglect, proper surgical treatment vor if the mediation in the Britishbrought him around all right .- New Boer war under the provisions of the York Sun. Hague treaty. The diplomatic bill as passed carries $1,743,908. The House

The things accredited the cleverest passed the Senate bill authorizing the are often the result of accident. Southeastern railway to sonstruct a Fire Insurance. Life Insurance. Accident Insurance Steam Boiler Insurance. Employers' Liability Insurance-

We represent the leading companies of the world, and write policies at the lowest rates. Among the companies we represent are:

The Hartford, the Ætna, the Continental, the Hamburg-Bremen, the Phoenix, the Lancashire, the Caledonia, the Virginia Fire and Marine, the Virginia State, the Delaware, the Pennsylvania, and the North Carolina Home-all first class fire companies with assets aggregating $40,000,000.

We also represent the Penn Mutual Life, the Phonix Life, and the U. S. Fidelity and Casualty Co., and Standard Accident Co. Can write you any kind of Insurance you want to any amount; and we also represent Standard Guarantee Companies that will write all kinds of d is for public officers, contractors, receivers, and all persons who have to give

Has no Clew.

