Miss Eugenia Van Whitt Marries Rull Hayes Gentry In Sunday Rites

Miss Eugenia Vann Whitt, daughter of Mrs. Mary Maude Whitt and the late James Henry Whitt, of Academy street, Roxboro, and Rull Hayes Gentry, of Wooddale and Roxboro, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bedney Gentry, of Wooddale, were united in marriage Sunday afternoon, April 2, at two o'clock in impressive but simple home rites at the Whitt residence, with the Rev. J. Boyce Brooks, of Roxboro First Baptist church officiating.

Decorations in the home were in traditional green and white, with an improvised altar in the living room at the fireplace where the vows were spoken. Seven-branched candelabras, fern and white gladioli were used to form the background and other flower arrangements were used throughout the lower floor.

Music was by Miss Frances Whitt, pianist, a sister of the bride, of Martinsville, Va., and Roxboro, whose selections included E. Koven's "On Promise Me" and Bond's, "I Love You Truly", the last played during the ceremony. Processional and recessional were from Wagner and Mendelssohn.

The bride and bridegroom entered the living room together and were unattended. Costume of the bride was a white silk, street-length dress, with which she wore a small white straw hat with a veil. Her only ornament was a string of pearls, gift of the bridegroom. Her corsage was of white carnations.

The bride's mother wore an aqua blue dress, with pink carnations, while the bride's sisters, Miss Whitt, of Martinsville, and Mrs. E. E. Abbott, of Asheville, both wore aqua suits with pink carnations. Only others witnessing the ceremony were Miss Millie Phelps, of Roxboro, who wore a light tan costume with pink carnations, and the bride's brother and brother-in-law, James Whitt, of Roxboro, and E. E. Abbott, of Asheville, with the Abbott children, niece and nephew of the bride.

The bride, a graduate of Roxboro high school and an alumna of a Toledo, Ohio, business college, is a native of Roxboro and popular here, where she is connected with Person Furniture company as book-keeper. The bridegroom, a graduate of the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, and of Bethel Hill high school, is secretary of the Person County AAA, with offices in the Court House.

After a brief wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Gentry have returned to Roxboro and are at home at the residence of Mrs. Gentry's mother, Academy street.

Mrs. Roy Rogers delightfully entertained members of the Ladies Aid Society of Mt. Zion church Saturday afternoon at her home. Beautiful arrangement of pinks, rosebuds and peonies decorated the home.

The meeting was called to order by the vice-president, Mrs. Claude Moore. Mrs. Rogers had charge of the devotional, and the Rev. Floyd Villines read the scripture. With Mrs. Bannie Rogers at the organ, the group joined in the singing. Mrs. Rogers then gave a reading on "How To Be Happy" and a poem "Magic Life."

The business hour consisted of a discussion of the afghan being made for the Camp Butner hospital. Each member is to make as many squares as they wish and bring them to the next meeting. Report for the month showed a total of $31.60 paid in and a total of $17.18 paid in Saturday.

Mrs. Irvin Blackard is reporter for May and June. The May meeting will be at the home of Mrs. John Moore on May 26th at three o'clock, at which time a quilt which was made by the Aid several years ago which brought a total of $80 to the treasury will be on display. The business hour was closed with a talk by the Rev. Mr. Villines on the building of the new church at Mt. Zion.

The group was invited into the dining room where a salad course with pickle, cakes and grape juice was served. Visitors were Mrs. Walter Rogers, Mrs. Bannie Rogers and the Rev. Floyd Villines.

Miss Mary Powell Wilkerson and J. William Bowen, both of Wooddale, were united in marriage at the home of the Rev. B. B. Knight on High School Drive on Saturday evening, April 21st.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Warren, a son at Watts Hospital, Durham, Thursday, April 19th. Mother and son are getting on fine.

Miss Mammie Love Barnette, who has been ill for several weeks, is now much improved.

The bride and bridegroom entered the living room together and were unattended. Costume of the bride was a white silk, street-length dress, with which she wore a small white straw hat with a veil. Her only ornament was a string of pearls, gift of the bridegroom. Her corsage was of white carnations.

The bride's mother wore an aqua blue dress, with pink carnations, while the bride's sisters, Miss Whitt, of Martinsville, and Mrs. E. E. Abbott, of Asheville, both wore aqua suits with pink carnations. Only others witnessing the ceremony were Miss Millie Phelps, of Roxboro, who wore a light tan costume with pink carnations, and the bride's brother and brother-in-law, James Whitt, of Roxboro, and E. E. Abbott, of Asheville, with the Abbott children, niece and nephew of the bride.

The bride, a graduate of Roxboro high school and an alumna of a Toledo, Ohio, business college, is a native of Roxboro and popular here, where she is connected with Person Furniture company as book-keeper. The bridegroom, a graduate of the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, and of Bethel Hill high school, is secretary of the Person County AAA, with offices in the Court House.

After a brief wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Gentry have returned to Roxboro and are at home at the residence of Mrs. Gentry's mother, Academy street.

IN MEMORIAM

IN MEMORY OF A NEIGHBOR
MR. JOHN L. PERKINS

It was true when the message came that Mr. Perkins was dead. It was that it was sad. He was our neighbor and in words and in deeds he was truly a good neighbor. To each of his dear children and family would ask God to comfort each one.

"To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the hidden manna," and will give him a white stone and in the stone a new name written which no man noeth saveth he that receiveth it."—Rev. 2:17. In heaven there will be no parting. No pain to bear:

No care-worn brow, no sigh, no silvery hair;
No death to snatch our loved one from our side,
No angry waves, no sea, no treacherous tide.
In heaven there'll be no thirst, no cry for bread.
No soul who knows not where to lay his head;
No one to feel the winters chilling blast,
For there the piercing storms will all be past.

In heaven there'll be no toil without repay;
No building for a brief ephemeral day;
For all the joy that prophets old have told
'Twill take the endless ages to unfold.

In heaven there'll be no weary pilgrim band;
No seekers for a better fairer land;
For all who reach that blissful happy shore,
Will never cry nor sigh, nor wish for more.
