Scheduled for this next Sunday at Edgar Long Memorial Methodist church at five o'clock is a cantata by the church choir and a similar attraction Sunday night at First Baptist church will be given at eight o'clock.

Last night's production at First Baptist church by the Training Union told the Christmas story of Christ in song and color, while the afternoon program at Rosporo high school, with Bethel Hill, Helena and Central schools also participating was devoted exclusively to carols. Cold weather and bad roads cut down the number of singers at the high school, but seemed not to effect the quality of singing. Audience attendance was large, with appreciative response in applause
