

Once a second as interested

The Courier-Times HOME FIRST, ABROAD NEXT

VOL. LXV

J. W. NOELL, EDITOR

ROXBORO, NORTH CAROLINA THURSDAY, MARCH 28, 1946

$2.50 PER YEAR IN ADVANCE

NUMBER 33

WATCH YOUR PLANT BEDS FOR

Blue Mold; also watch your label on The Courier-Times. Many subscriptions will expire this month and if you will call and renew promptly a few days before it ex-pires it will save us lots of work.

Dr. Meyer's Address • To Be Heard By Local Civic Clubs

Chairman Of State Recreation Commission To Speak Here College Trustees

0

As climax to a study of recrea-tional opportunities and possibilities Favor Accepting in Roxboro and surrounding territory, Dr. Harold D. Meyer of Chapel Hill, sociology professor at the University of North Carolina and chairman of the North Carolina Recreation Commission, will speak here at Hotel Roxboro.

The Person County Council of Soly with the Exchange, Kiwanis, Ro- son County. tary, and Business and Professional The College Board of Trustees, Women's clubs of Roxboro. It is ex-meeting in a special session at Wake Farming Outlook tary, and Business and Professional for his local audience.

Prior to the dinner meeting, which at the hotel.

creation in the City and County was would give the college an income of given yesterday at the Council of hundreds of thousands of dollars. Social Agencies meeting. Speaker was W. Wallace Woods, secretary of estimated at between 25 and 40 milthe Roxboro Chamber of Commerce, lion dollars. who said present local recreation facilities include motion pictures, taken by the Baptist State Convenpool rooms, skating, softball, golf, tion at its 1946 session next fishing, public dances, hunting, the November. Kiwanis Horse Show, and aviation.

represent one of the most whole- that "more definite information is some types of recreation, as well as essential before any specific recomone of the most interesting. About mendation can be made," and proten teams, with 15 players on the viding for the appointment of a squad of each team, participate in committee to investigate the offer this sport each summer, and they more fully.

should be given all possible en-Aviation is one of the fastest growing forms of recreation in the County, Mr. Woods pointed out. With five more expected there soon, there Baptist Church that services will July 1-Sept. 20 period. are about 50 student fliers, includ- continue throughout this week, with there are 15 licensed fliers, or, the Rev. B. B. Knight, announc- For Kiwanis Meet and five more will receive license ed today. Mr Knight reported good attendwithin the next month or so. Roxboro Airport has a good dirt ance at services this week. He said runway, 200 feet wide and 2800 feet Mr. Hayes was bringing powerful meeting Monday night, elected Leon Commercial recreation needs and brough is leading the singing, and to the national Kiwanis convention on grounds they would serve no long, the speaker said. possibilities were listed by Mr. Woods Miss Ruth Shirley Hudgins is play- to be held in Atlantic City in June. as: public swimming pool, park, ten- ing the piano. nis courts, bowling alley, riding club, Mt. Tirzah Charge YMCA and YWCA, night clob, plays, and orchestras. Presiding at the meeting, in the The Mt. Tirzah Charge of the absence of the chairman, the Rev. J. Boyce Brooks, was Sid Marsh of Methodist Church will observe Lay-Miss Lake Allen, Miss Ann Margaret L. Hampton, a layman from Durham, will speak at 11 o'clock. There Long, and Miss Susan Rice. will be a basket lunch at noon, and

Announcement in Raleigh, Mona joint meeting of civic clubs to be day night that the Smith Reynolds held on Friday evening, April 5, at Foundation had offered Wake Forest College up to 40 million dollars if the College would move to Winston-speak here at 6:30 Friday night, April 5, at a joint meeting of Roxcial Agencies, whose members have Salem, was received with a great been studying recreation for the deal of interest by Baptists and boro civic clubs. past several months, will meet joint- other friends of the College in Per-The College Board of Trustees, pected that the visiting speaker, who Forest Tuesday, was reported unaniis an authority on recreational mously in favor of accepting the is an authority on recreational mously in favor of accepting the problems and opportunities, will have offer, since it involved no change in In State is Dull a timely and interesting message the name of the institution and no change in control of policies.

Under the terms of the offer, the will begin at 6:30, Dr. Meyer will 112-year-old Baptist institution hold a discussion with city and would receive; the 300-acre Reynolda county officials, school leaders, min- estate near Winston-Salem; eight will cause production losses in every isters, and other civic leaders. This million dollars for construction at crop produced in the State this A discussion of commercial re- a greatly enlarged endowment which ville.

That was the conclusion reached by a State farm labor advisory The total amount of the gift was committee at its first meting with its acting chairman, Dr. I. O. Schaub, director of the N. C. State Final action on the offer will be College Extension Service. "We believe." a ommittee spokes-

The trustees, in their meeting in every farming section except Mr. Woods said softball games Tuesday, passed a resolution stating Hendersonville, but most of these unskilled workers have elected to accept unemployment pay rather than work on the farm". tobacco growers will plant all of #### couragement, the speaker declared. Revival Continues

a special program of music in the Tirzah, and Mt. Zion. W. D. Long,

the dearth of labor will cause losses "even if the weather at harvest So much interest is being shown time is most favorable." Leaf growfive planes at Roxboro Airport, and in the revival at Mitchell's Chapel ers need workers most during the ing eight girls, now taking part in aviation activities in the County. the Rev. Auburn C. Hayes of Long-hurst doing the preaching, the past- Delegates Named common with the peace and security of nations." It referred directly to The Roxboro Kiwanis club, in its the atomic tests on naval vessels. Some members of Congress also messages to the people. Hubert Yar- Wilson and L. C. Liles as delegates have criticized plans to hold tests useful purpose in the task of try-Alternates will be Jimmie Long and ing to achieve permanent peace. When the tests originally were Jack Strum. announced last January, there was The program consisted of a talk considerable debate whether foron soil conservation given by Miss eign observers should be invited. Margaret Ann Hawkins of Hurdle Plans were being made to invite Mills, runnerup in the recent county members of the united nations a-

Indications are, it was said, that the 10 per cent increase authorized for the 1946 flue-cured crop but

TO SPEAK HERE-Dr. Harold

D. Meyer, chairman of the North Carolina Recreation Commission and sociology professor at the University of North Carolina, will

Raleigh-A shortage in farm er M. Carlton, Sr. Appointment of an acting postmaster is expected to be made by Representative John H. Folger in the near future.

Washington-President Trumans Next permanent postmaster will alhas ordered a six-week's post pone- so be appointed by the Fifth District ment of the atomic bomb test Congressman, from a list of three against warships originally sche-eligible candidates submitted to him duled for May 15 at Bikini atoll. by the Civil Service Commission af-

The delicate international situation ter all candidates have been given was said to be a major factor in the competitive examinations. surprise decision. No date has been set for the ex

The May 15 test, in which an aminations, nor is it known exactly atomic bomb was to have been ex- when Representative Folger will ploded some 1200 feet above a make the acting postmaster appoint. Guinea pig fleet of 100 United ment. States and enemy ships, now will

Several persons have indicated inbe held July 1. It probably will be terest in becoming postmaster. To combined with a second test original scheduled for July 1 when be eligible, an applicant must rean atomic bomb was to have been ceive his mail within the City of Roxboro or on one of the Rural exploded at the surface Routes served by the Roxboro office.

Truman's order was transmitted The permanent appointment carby telephone to Vice Adm. W. H. P. ries a salary of $3,400 per year, and sored Horse Show in Roxboro will Blandy, commander of the jointarmy-navy task force charged with lifetime appointment so long as the from Person and adjoining counties workers, unless alleviated by July 1, conducting the vast erperiment. duties of the office are performed Notice went out to all key offici- satisfactorily.

als involved in the test, including Mr. Carlton was postmaster from event. conference will be held at 5 p. m., the new site; an endowment of eight year, with heaviet toll in fruit and Maj. Gen. Leslie R. Groves, head September, 1939, until his death. Mr.

in the contest.

Bonds.

bombs that were dropped on Hiropostmasters.

shima and Nagasaki. Though it came as a somplete surprise to army and navy officials. Movie Contest For the decision was reached by Truman only after lengthy and exhaustive consultations among top-level 4-H Announced officials throughout the government. Significantly, the postponement man said. "there is sufficient labor was ordered only three days before the opening of the united nations

For Six Weeks

Four-H club leaders and memsecurity council meeting at New bers in Person county have an ex-York Monday. ceptional opportunity to gain nation wide recognition and receive valu-

The current world crisis, epitomable awards by participating in the ized by the Russian-Iranian dispute. new National 4-H movie contest. was said to have been the determin-C. C. Jackson, assistant county ing factor. Truman was understood agent said today. to have felt that such a test might have a bad effect on already delicate international relations.

He is said to feel that the post ponement will have a reassuring effect on the New York meeting. Only Wednesday, a Moscow broadcast accused the United States of "brandishing the atomic weapon for purposes which have little in

Whitten Will Open Veterans Office Monday Morning Beattie Feathers Optimistic About Grid Prospects

REMAINS IN RACE-Congress man John H. Folger, above, announced Tuesday that he would remain in the race for Representative in the Fifth District.

Class X' Added To Horse Show

er, who, after his talk, showed The second annual Kiwanis-sponmovies of last year's State-Wake Forest football game. since it is under Civil Service, is a have a new class for pleasure horses this year, it was announced today by J. J. Woody, chairman of the lege. Newspapers, he said, have play- rent or lend a typewriter to the serv-

It will be known as Class X, and State, but additional classrooms and Whitten. million dollars; and the prospect of vegetable area around Henderon- of the so-called Manhattan district Clayton has served as assistant will be restricted to pleasure horses teaching facilities are needed just as project which developed the atomic postmaster under several Roxboro belonging to residents of this coun- badly as rooms. To illustrate this ty and surrounding territory, Mr. fact, he said classes are now held Woody said. Pleasure horses with- in some buildings from 8 in the out set mane and tail will be jud- morning to 8 at night. Bill Bland, Joe Adair, Bill Davenged.

Another feature of the show, port, Miss Lura Penny, and Elbert which will be held here on Sat- Moore became new members of the urday, April 20, will be a mule race. alumni club, of which L. C. Liles is the chairman said. Contestants from president and C. C. Jackson, secre-Person County will be entered and tary.

will be ridden by the owner's or the Also present at the meeting last owners choice. Heats will be run in night was Lt. Woodrow Jones, USNR, the afternoon, and finals in the of Roxboro, who will receive his disevening, with a cash prize to be charge in May and who will be on tention. Other types of assistance the State College football coaching awarded to the winner. R. D. Bumpass, chairman of local staff next fall.

entries, reports that a number of local horses have been entered, and Students Inspect many more are expected to take Any adult or junior local leader part. Local exhibitors are request-Farm Programs actively engaged in leading a 4-H ed to contact Mr. Bumpass as soon club, and club members enrolled as possible so that programs, when this year, are eligible to participate printed, will be complete. winner in the soil conservation Several Roxboro merchants have

The 4-H leader who submits the agreed to display "spectator fashinspeakers' contest, and three other best story idea and the 4-H boy and ions" during the week preceding Roxboro High School students, Miss hand application forms for on-thegirl chosen to play the leading the show, in line with the new fash- Mary Ruth Moore, Lawrence Evans, job training for veterans, and also roles in the movie will each re- ion interest in this section. and John Robert Hester, took a field application blanks for business firms trip Tuesday to Caswell and Rock- which desire to be accredited for

Will Be Open Six Days A Week; Assistant State Sery-ice Officer Here.

Robert Whitten, World War II eteran and newly elected Veterans' Service officer for Person County. announced today that he will open his office in the basement of the Courthouse on Monday, April 1, at 8 a. m

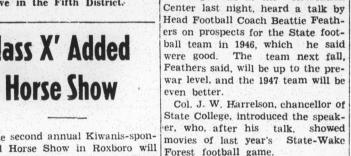

North Carolina State College Beginning on that date, Mr. Whittalumni, meeting with the Roxboro en said, the office will be open six Exchange club at the Recreation days a week, from 8:30 to 12 in the morning and 1 to 5 in the afternoon. All honorably discrarged veterans are entitled to information and assistance at the office, and they should feel free to come in and ask for it.

Mr. Whitten, who has recently returned from Winston-Salem, where he spent three days conferring with officials of the regional Veterans Administration office, says initial purchase of office equipment and At a later business session of the supplies has been completed, except alumni association, Col. Harrelson for a typewriter, which cannot be discussed building needs for the col- found. Any person willing to sell, ed up the dormitory shortage at ice officer is asked to contact Mr.

> Charles A. Beddingfield, assistant State Service officer of the North Carolina Veterans Commission, Raleigh, conferred with Mr. Whitten here yesterday and will return to Roxboro Tuesday.

Veterans may obtain from the local service office information on, and applications for, government insurance, education, vocational training, on-the-job training, loans for homes, farms and businesses, pensions, hospital care, and medical atand information can also be obtained, but in many cases-such as reemployment, employment and unemployment compensation, legal aid, financial aid, State and Federal income tax, and social security-the service office will simply refer the veteran to the proper agency, Mr,

Dairy Queen Bows a special program of music in the afternoon. The Mt. Tirzah Charge Education Board As New Champion

0

0

This is a portrait of Vinchelez Ann, dairy queen, glamor girl of the butterfat beauties.

Vinchelez Ann. 1100256, a Catawba County Jersey cow, bred by L. H. Seitz, Newton dairyman, and sold to W. R. Lutz, also of Newton, has been awarded the Biltmore Cup of the North Carolina Jersey Cattle Club as the state's champion butterfat producer in 1945. She set a 305-day production record last year pounds of butterfat.

In one month last year Ann's test stration clubs during the month of tion that they will give to their bury, and Joe J. Harris, of Winston- the home of Col. E. H. Bain of completion. record showed 103 pounds of but- April. Making, Making over, and fellow club members. terfat. The American Jersey Cattle mending are three big peacetime During April, while these leaders seat in Congress, but with the like-test. The very next month the Ca- ing machine in good running con- metings, the Home Agent has an may yet withdraw. taxba champion turned out 101 dition can help do all three. It opportunity to get adult 4-H Neigh- Taylor, who also serves as treapounds of butterfat to convince thus helps the family pratice the borhood leaders trainel to help with urer of Stokes county, where he is club officials that the high mark conservation and thrift so essential the 4-H club program in their ie- reputed to have a strong followwas no fluke.

at this time. Both sociologists and dairymen All well-made sewing machines, say that "breeding will tell" and new or old, used constantly or idle, in hession. It also is an opportunity ing conference with "my folks." 7:45 Wiring demonstration Vinchelez Ann has the blood of a can be made to run easily and sew to work in unorganized sections He would not say definitely wheth- speech, Court house, "duke". She is the grand-daughter perfectly. Occasionally parts may of the county to help with Food er he planned to continue in the SATURDAY of Vinchelez Golden Duke, 3291135, need replacing; but a machine will conservation problems. and the daughter of Vinchelez Ox- seldom wear out, if periodically ford. 357089, sire of many other cleaned, oiled and adjusted. high producers such as Duke's Lady The purpose of a demonstration during April will be as follows: Rosette which once posted a year's of this type is to give the homerecord of 11,277 pounds of milk and maker the necessary information with Mrs ... A L. Davis as leader and invited.

613.4 pounds of butterfat. that will enable her to do this pe- hostess. Ann's great-grandma, Impress riodic cleaning that will help to Wednesday, April 3, Helena Club tion to seek the nomination during

Dutchess of the Valley, 397012, also keep her machine in good running is an exceptional blue-blood, enter- order. keep her machine in good running at the school with Mrs. R. B. Brooks the closing days of the filing period. and Mrs. H. K. Garrett as leaders. Chathan's announcement followed ing the Register of Merit at six Project leaders were selected in Thursday, April 4, Providence by one day a statement by Folger TUESDAY years of age with the astounding January by club members to give Club with Mrs. W. A. Dunn as to the effect that he was consider- 7:45 Chamber of Commerce directord of 14,468 pounds of milk and this demonstration at the regular leader and hostess. 159.98 pounds of butterfat in a club hour in April, A training —(See AGENT Page Eight)—

Folger Decides To Stay In Contest Next regular meeting of the Coun-In Fifth District the Charge Lay leader, will be in ty Board of Education will be held charge of the program. Everyone is at 10 a. m. Monday, April 1, in the Board of Education office. Agent Gives Plans For April Meetings

By EVELYN CALDWELL .Home Demonstration Agent "Proper Care and Cleaning of the department of Roxboro High School, of 10,992 pounds of milk and 657 Sewing Machine" will be the theme where the Home Agent gave the Thurmond Chatham, Elkin indusclub, incredulous, called for a re- as well as wartime jobs; and a sew- have charge of the organized club lihood that at least one of them

spective neighborhoods during the ing, said that he could not comment summer months while school is not on the Folger announcement pend- 6:30 Rotary, Hotel Roxboro.

The meeting places and leaders Harris, Winston-Salem lawyer, for each home demonstration club said the Folger statement "doesn't MONDAY affect me in the least. I will con-Tuesday, April 2, Chub Lake Club, | tinue in the race."

ed

Chatham has never wavered publicly since he announced his inten-Court house office.

and Mrs. H. K. Garrett as leaders. Chatham's announcement followed

ing withdrawing if contest developors' meeting, Chamber of Commerce office ceive an all-expense trip to the 25th Robert Long, chairman Anniversary National 4-H Club Con- concessions committee, said two ingham counties to inspect soil con- giving on-the-job training. girls-will receive U. S. Savings to the spectators.

The winning story written by a will appear in the film. The story purchasing tickets before the show may be based on fact or fancy, or can get them for 35 cents.

a combination of the two, and should not exceed 500 words. No at-

Quarterly Meet tention will be paid to literary style or construction.

All entries must be postmarked Chicago 5, Illinois. The new 4-H movie will be sponsored by the Sears-Roebuck Foundation. It will be produced in cooperation with the U.S. Depart-Sharper lines began to form ment of Agriculture, the State Ex-Tuesday in the fifth district Dem- tension Services and National 4-H ocratic congressional race with the Club News. Complete information announcement by Rep. John H. regarding the contest may be ob-Folger, of Mt. Airy, that he has de- tained at the county agent's office. cided to remain in the contest.

Washington, preceded by one hour Father Dies an announcement of withdrawal by Lawrence E. Watts, of Reidsville, er of Mrs. John Whitman of Roxwho resigned his job with the Genschool for these leaders was neld eral Statues commission, Raleigh, to boro, died in a Goldsboro hospital

These two developments left ness of four weeks.

Salem, still in the fight for Folger's Goldsboro, with interment in Willow Dale cemetery.

Mrs. Hobbs died nine years ago

COMING UP ...

TONIGHT

race or to follow the Watt example. 7:30 Young people's recreation program, First Baptist Church.

> Veterans' Service office opens, Court house basement.

10 a. m. County Commissioners,

10 a. m. Board of Education, Board

The ticket chairman, E. B. Craven tion unit, and J. R. Adair, of the titled to any amount of compensa-spected.

and his or her name and address for adults. However, school children of the trip. Two of Mr. White's He called attention to the fact farms in Caswell were visited. In that, effective March 15, the regional Rockingham, the farms of Amos VA office is now located at North Butler and Alton Wilson were in- Trade Street, Winston-Salem, and that plans are being made for periodic meetings of organizations and individuals especially interested in veterans' assistance, such as Red Cross, Chamber of Commerce, Selective Service Board, Veteran's Administrator, bank officials, and the

Brothers Home

Christo Fox, son of Mr. and Mrs. year during which midway and ed in the United States last week Fred Fox, another son of Mr. and

Willie Snow of Longhurst, wh accidentally shot by a playme

Mrs, J. S. Mer

broken arm in a

on Lamar Street

The

6:15 p. m. Kiwanis, Hotel Roxboro.

association are urged to attend. dent.

Permanent State Fair Is Planned

Dr. J. S. Dorton, head of the would be on display for tourists Mortimer Eugene Hobbs, 85, fath- North Carolina Fair, said recently and North Carolinians to see. Of he was confident that the long- course, we would have a period each E. Y. Fox of Roxboro, Route 2, landon March 22 in the Home economics become the fifth man in the race. Tuesday afternoon following an illsion of the fair into a $3,000,000 The eposition as visioned by He has been stationed in En Funeral services were conducted permanent State exposition would Dorton, would include a mammoth and other parts of the Europe used in each of the 12 home demon- leaders the same type of demonstra- trialist, Sheriff John Taylor of Dan- Thursday morning at 11 o'clock from be carried through to a successful memorial coliseum, amphitheatre, theater for the past two years. exhibit buildings and other struc-"I'm not going to rest until the tures, including a hall of fame in Mrs. Fox, has returned home exposition is a reality," Dorton said. which could be placed portraits and his Army discharge. He was is "It's a chance for North Carolina brief histories of Tar Heel heroes stationed on Okinawa. to really have something big, some- who died in World War II.

thing progressive, and I'm deter- It is estimated that the exposimined to do everything possible to tion would cost $3,000,000, but Dorsee that it's completed." ton said that many of the exhibit

Dorton said a government grant buildings would be, built by indushad already been requested for trial concerns themselves for use $40,000 to perfect the plans for the in displaying their products.

mammoth exposition. The money Dorton said no other state had Semora Sunday, was repo launched such a permanent fair, to be somewhat better. He is would be refunded after the work and that North Carolina would be patient at Community Hos was completed.

'We're going ahead with plans a first in this respect if it could to make the fair this year the bigmaterialize.

gest and best we've ever had," he He said he had talked with nuadded, "but we have our eyes on merous farmers, agriculture organthe future exposition." izations and dairymen, and they all

Dorton estimated that it would are in favor of building the yeartake from three to five years to round exposition. build the permanent State expo- Meanwhile, plans are going ah sition, which would be open all for the State Fair next Oct. 14-19 year to the public. "It would be more or less like a museum," he explained, "where ex-into shape in preparation for the year to the public. hibits of agriculture, industry, etc, occasi

Condition of Larry Snow, 5, son be mailed to National 4-H Club meeting at Yanceyville Sunday aft- Practices." Sponsor of the region- and benefits available to veterans News, 59 East Van Buren Street, ernoon, March 31. at 2:30 o'clock. al contest is the North Carolina will be drawn up and put on display.

gress in Chicago. Nine runners-up large booths will be operated at the servation projects first-hand. in each division-leaders. boys and show, to sell sandwiches and drinks J. Herbert White, district super- stating that his office cannot and

Mr. Whitten was emphatic in visor of the Dan River soil conserva- will not state whether a man is en-has announced prices for the after- local office. accompanied the stu- tion or pension from the governlocal lucb leader will be used in the noon and evening performances as dents on the trip, and J. M. Parks, ment. The Veterans Administration production of the new 4-H movie 50 cents for children and 75 cents district conservationist, made part decides all such cases, he said.

not in Fayetteville as it formerly,

Miss Wilson will represent the was. Veterans wishing to write to County in the regional speaking con- the VA office should address their The Beulah Baptist Association test to be held at Elkin on April 25. mail to Winston-Salem, not later than April 15, and should will hold its quarterly Sunday School Her subject will be "Soil Building Posters outlining the opportunities All teachers and superintendents of Bankers' association, of which Gor- at several prominent places in Roxthe Baptist Sunday Schools in the don C. Hunter of Roxboro is presi- boro, Mr. Whitten said. He also said County Service officer.