

Miss Green Feted At Crystal Shower By Mrs. Painter

Complimenting Miss Mary Winder Green, bride-elect of Lawrence Holman, Mrs. Hassell H. Painter entertained at a crystal shower Wednesday evening at Hotel Roxboro. Guests were invited for 8 o'clock. The bride-elect on arrival was presented with a corsage of white carnations.

Table decorations carried out the bridal note of green and white, with an attractive centerpiece of bridal wreath, iris, and spirea in a crystal bowl flanked by white tapers in crystal holders.

During the evening bridal contests were enjoyed. Miss Green was presented with many gifts of crystal in her pattern.

Guests were: Miss Green, Mrs. C. R. White, mother of the bride-elect, Mrs. Helen Terry, Mrs. Louis M. Day, Mrs. Bud Thomas, Misses Celia Barrett, Ruth Newton, Mary Ellen Chandler, Janie Murphy, Margaret Mundy, Marion James, Jane Kirby, Hazelne Yarboro, Lelia Monk, Dorothy Rowe, Stella Anne Taylor, and Arlene Newell.

Bushy Fork Club Meeting Is Held

The Bushy Fork Home Demonstration club met Wednesday at the Community house. The president, Mrs. L. D. Long, called the meeting to order and "America the Beautiful" was sung, followed by club collect.

Mrs. Slade Crumpton, secretary, read the minutes, and roll was called with twenty five members and two new members Mrs. Jack Hester and Mrs. Patsy Walker, present. Mrs. Charlie Wilkerson, treasurer, gave her report.

New and old business were disposed of and it was decided that a plaque be given to the best "all around" student in the eighth grade. Mrs. Ralph Bowes, project leader, gave a demonstration on "Care of the Sewing Machine".

Mrs. James Cates, Mrs. James Winslow, and Mrs. Kate Bradsher, hostesses for the month, served pound cake, pickle, and punch during the social hour.

PTA Officers Are Installed At Meet

Officers for the coming year were installed at the meeting of the Parent-Teachers Association of Bushy Fork school Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock and are as follows: president, Mrs. Charlie Wilkerson; vice-president, Mrs. Frank Winstead; treasurer, Mrs. Scott Hovatter; and secretary, Mrs. Slade Crumpton. Presiding at the meeting was Mrs. Clyde Hurdle, and devotional was given by the Girl's Scouts under the leadership of Mrs. R. L. Hester. Mrs. Blanchard had charge of the music for the evening and Mrs. Mabe's seventh grade gave an interesting play. Mrs. Scott Hovatter made the treasurer's report.

Miss Dorothy Rowe and Maurice Daniel To Wed In June

Announcement of the engagement of Miss Dorothy Rowe and Maurice J. Daniel, Jr., both of this city, was made at a dinner party given by Miss Eleanor Hester and Miss Billy Street at the residence of Mrs. K. L. Street, Thursday evening at 7 o'clock. Decorations carried out the pink and white color scheme with a table centerpiece of pink tulips and spirea in a crystal bowl. Pink candles in crystal holders were also used. Miss Rowe's place was marked by a pink and white gaidette corsage with individual placecards of a miniature bride and bridegroom for the other guests, and at each guests place was a tiny sailboat with the inscription "Dot and Jack, June".

Pink baskets of perfume were given as favors, and Miss Rowe was presented crystal in her pattern. Each guest gave a toast to the bride-elect.

A delicious three course dinner was served by Miss Lucille Cochran,

Miss Catherine Hester, and Mrs. Steve Dickens.

Guests, who included relatives and close friends of the bride and the bridegroom-elect were: Mrs. Wyatt Monk, Mrs. M. J. Daniel, Mrs. Bud Thomas, Misses Arlene Newell, Nancy Bullock, Lelia Monk, Marjorie Dickerson, Opal Brown, Evelyn Umstead, Ethel Newell Winstead, and Eleanor Winstead.

The Metropolitan Museum of Art rolled up its largest annual attendance in 1945—1,826,353 persons.
