

Gardner-Lloyd Wedding Solemnized In Charlotte Ceremony Friday Afternoon

The marriage of Miss Elizabeth Lloyd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Theibert Lloyd of Hillsboro, to Guy Winstead Gardner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard W. Gardner of Roxboro, was solemnized Friday afternoon, April 12, at 5:30 o'clock in the Hawthorne Lane Methodist church, Charlotte. The Rev. J. C. Cornette, officiated, in the double ring ceremony.

Church decorations were in the traditional green and white. Prior to the ceremony a program of nuptial music was rendered by Oliver Cook, organist, and Mrs. James N. Bryan, soloist, sister of the bride. Selections included: "Claire de Lune", Debussy; "Ave Maria", Schubert; "All For You", Brown; "Moonlight Sonata", Beethoven; "Because", D'Hard lot; and "Liebestraum", Liszt. The traditional wedding marches were used.

The bride entered the church with her brother-in-law, Ely L. Mincey, of Charlotte, by whom she was given in marriage. Her wedding gown was of white marquisette with tight fitted bodice, yoke outlined with a band of lace and finished with a deep ruffle, giving an off-shoulder effect. The long sleeves were lace trimmed and tapered to a point over the hand. The full skirt with lace and ruffle trim ended in a long circular train. Her veil of bridal illusion was draped from a Juliet cap with clusters of orange blossoms on each side. She carried a bouquet of gardenias and orchids.

Mrs. Jean Satton Pierson of Charlotte, was matron of honor and the bride's only attendants. Her dress was fashioned with a fitted bodice of white jersey, three-quarter length sleeves, and a double skirt of tulle. Her shoulder length veil fell from a coronet of plaited tulle. She carried an arm bouquet of pink carnations and blue delphinium.

The bridegroom had as his best man his uncle, James L. Winstead, of Roxboro. Ushers were Sanders McWhorter, William Davenport, and Curtis Long, of Roxboro.

The bride's mother wore a dress of black crepe with a corsage of red roses. Mrs. Gardner, mother of the bridegroom, wore a dress of sheer black with which she wore an orchid corsage.

For travel the bride changed to a three piece suit of lime green wool. Her white hat was trimmed in green to match the suit, and her other accessories were black. She wore an orchid from her bridal bouquet.

After a Southern wedding trip the couple will be at home 305 Rockledge Apartments, Charlotte.

Mrs. Gardner was graduated from Hillsboro High School and Durham Commercial School. For the past three years she has held a position as secretary with the Kendall Company in Charlotte. The bridegroom received his education at Hargrove Military Academy, Chatham, Va., and King's Business College, Raleigh. At the beginning of World War II he enlisted and served for eighteen months in the infantry. He is now employed as an auditor with the State Department of Revenue with headquarters in Charlotte.

Thursday evening following the rehearsal the bride's sisters, Mrs. E. L. Mincey and Mrs. James N. Bryan, entertained the bridal party and out-of-town guests at a cake cutting at the former's home. A number of pre-nuptial courtesies were given in Roxboro and Charlotte for the couple.

Attending the wedding from Roxboro were: Mrs. B. W. Gardner, Mrs. Maurice Daniel, Mrs. Robert Hester, Mr. and Mrs. James Winstead, Miss Dorothy Taylor, Miss Dorothy Rowe, Mr. and Mrs. Sanders McWhorter, Mr. and Mrs. William Winstead, Jack Daniel, William Davenport, and Curtis Long.
