Miss Green Honor Guest At Shower Tuesday Evening

Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock Mrs. Kelly Paylor and Mrs. Henry Woods entertained at a miscellaneous shower at the residence of Mrs. Woods honoring Miss Mary Winder Green, bride-elect of Lawrence Holman.

Attractive arrangements of roses, pansies, spirea, and other spring flowers decorated the home throughout.

Guests on arrival wrote their favorite recipe in the bride's cook book. During the evening bridal contests were enjoyed and attractive prizes were presented to Mrs. Fred Gentry and Mrs. Coy Holman, mother of the bridegroom-elect, winners.

Refreshments of block ice cream and angel food cake were served.

Miss Green was presented with many lovely gifts and the hostesses presented her with two pieces of china in her pattern.

Thirty-five guests were present.

the Cavel baseball squad.

Last week Bushy Fork added another softball game to their list. The girls defeated Hurdle Mills girls 11-1. Hurdle Mills only tally was gained in the last frame.

Roxboro high softballers took a whipping by a large score of 25-6 from the Mt. Tirzah girls team on the Roxboro diamond. Highlight of the game was a round-tripper by Day of Mt. Tirzah with the bases stacked. Roxboro will meet the team again at Mt. Tirzah on Tuesday, April 30.

Mt. Tirzah girls and boys took two games from Allensville high school on Wednesday, April 17 at Mt. Tirzah. Girls won 13-5, boys 13-2. Huel Long was the hurler for Mt. Tirzah and gave up only two hits.

Allensville took an easy win over Bethel Hill high school Monday April 15, at Bethel Hill. Score 9-1. Clack of Allensville limited Bethel Hill to three hits. Clack also gathered three hits for four trips to the plate. Bethel Hill meets Allensville on the Allensville diamond on Monday, April 29.

Tennis lovers have put the courts into shape and have been taking advantage of the balmy weather the last few days. On the Winstead court, Lamar street, could be seen yesterday, Wheeler Newell and E. G. Thompson at it again after a lapse due to the war. Down at Cavel plans are underway for fighting the tennis court near the mill for night play. The Cavel court is being put into shape for the summer. On the Long court, Lamar street, Donnie Long and others have been putting in some work on the grounds and chalking out the lines for play. The Long court already is equipped for night activity.

Mt. Tirzah high school meets Bethel Hill at Mt. Tirzah tomorrow
