They were Mrs. B. B. Bullock, Beam club; Mrs. B. G. Crumpton Wehrenberg of the Bethel Hill club; and Miss Evelyn Caldwell, home demonstration agent.

Main purpose of the training school was to give the leaders some in their clubs in family life work. Mrs. Swain, who will be principal speaker at a district meeting here next Tuesday, suggested activities which might be carried out, such as making exhibits of children's books, preparing surprise packages for convalescent children, and working up a club family life library.

PLAN TO VOTE

Governor Cherry has set a commendable example to the people of North Carolina by inconveniencing himself in order to be able to vote

But Governor Cherry knows that every primary or general election is important and has wisely decided to subordinate his own convenience to his duty as a citizen.

However, the vote of every other citizen is just as important and counts for just as much as that of Governor Cherry. No citizen, how-ever zealous he may be in good works, can regard himself as a good citizen if he fails to perform the highest duty of citizenship, that of

As important as it is to vote, it is equally as important to vote intelligently. Every citizen has from now until Saturday to learn the qualifications of those candidates with whom he is not personally acquainted. Every citizen should plan to cast his or her ballott on Saturday and that planning should include informing himself or herself as to the qualifications of every candidate.
