

'A Bluegrass Christmas' coming to Caswell Dec. 10

Dailey & Vincent, "The most celebrated new bluegrass act of the past few years," according to the New York Times, will present their new holiday show, A Bluegrass Christmas on Saturday, Dec. 10 at 8 p.m. at the Caswell County Civic Center in Yanceyville, as part of the Caswell Performing Arts Series sponsored by the Caswell Council for the Arts.

Described as "A thrilling blend of holiday favorites, original songs and bluegrass classics," the show features the "impeccable vocal arrangements, phenomenal performances, and breath-taking two, three, and four-part harmonies" that have made them famous.

Reigning three-time IBMA Entertainers of the Year and Vocal Group of the Year, Dailey & Vincent also picked up a Dove Award this past spring to go with their 2011 Grammy Award nomination and consistent raves from critics and audiences alike.

"The group performed flawlessly — make that sensation-ally — people were screaming and shouting after every song," notes the Wall Street Journal.

Tickets for the show are $38 in the orchestra and $28 in the mezzanine, with $2 discounts for students and those aged 65 or over, and half-price for children under 12. Special group rates for 20 or more and "Student Rush" seating are also available.

The intimate, 912-seat Caswell County Civic Center is located at 536 Main Street East in Yanceyville, next to Bartlett Yancey High School, with plenty of free parking.

To purchase tickets, or for more information, call or visit the Caswell County Civic Center box office at 336 694-4591 between 8 a.m. and 4 p.m., Monday through Friday, or online at www.ccfca.org.

'Jingle on Main' coming to Uptown Roxboro

Thursday, Dec. 8 has been designated as the day for the seasonal event "Jingle on Main."

Activities for the special occasion include a Christmas tree lighting at Merritt Commons at 5:45 p.m., Christmas caroling by the Community Choir of Person, luminaries lining Main Street all the way to the Kirby Theater, the Christmas movie, Polar Express shown at the Kirby Theater at 7 p.m. for kids of all ages.

Bring canned goods for admission and bring gently used winter coats and movie-goers will receive a free bag of popcorn.

The coats will be collected by United Way and distributed to the Christian Help Center.

Area merchants will be open until 7 p.m. and there will be a feeling of Christmas in the air!

Bring your family and enjoy these community events.

Like puzzles? Then you'll love sudoku. This mind-bending puzzle will have you hooked from the moment you square off, so sharpen your pencil and put your sudoku savvy to the test!

Here's How It Works

Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!

'A Christmas Carol' to be performed at Caswell Civic Center

The best loved holiday story of all time, Charles Dickens' A Christmas Carol will be presented on Tuesday, Dec. 6 at 10 a.m. and again at 12:30 p.m. at the Caswell County Civic Center in Yanceyville as part of the Caswell Youth Series sponsored by the Caswell Council for the Arts.

Recommended for grades kindergarten through fifth, and the young at heart of all ages, this hour-long version from Theatre IV of Richmond, Va., is especially well-suited for young people — all the joy, sentiment and meaning are there as Scrooge's heart is turned from stone to gold, yet without being too scary for young audiences.

Tickets are $7 for students and $10 for adults, and may be purchased in person at the Caswell Civic Center box-office from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m., Monday through Friday, or by phone at 336 694-4591.

Free study guides are also available with purchase.

The Caswell County Civic Center is located at 536 Main Street East in Yanceyville, next to Bartlett Yancey High School, with plenty of free parking.
