A new young lady arrived at the residence of Mr. C. McQueen last Monday morning; she weighed 12 pounds, and is now ruler of the Mansion. Congratulations.

Lightning last night week struck in many places, and some narrow escapes from death are reported. Hail storms in some places did considerable damage to the fruit interests, blowing down the posts of vineyards and otherwise adding to the discomforts of the growers.

FOR SALE.—Fifty bushels mixed cow peas for seed.

A S & L P RUGGLES

Mr. L. C. Huffines says he has the finest corn patch in the county and that he can sell you some of the best shoes you ever saw.

Already the Seaboard Air Line is getting ready for the winter travel; and our new depot is about finished. It is a handsome building and a big improvement.

Manly has many pretty shade trees, though plenty of sandy streets. The town is surrounded by numerous fruit farms, and some of the finest vineyards in the state. Mr. D. D. F. Cameron, one of her merchants, is a wide-awake business man, and always on the look out for the best interests of the town.

A NARROW ESCAPE

The Old Dominion steaming Hamilton, ran into and sank the Ward Line ship, Mercedina, off Long Branch, New York, Tuesday morning, though all on board were saved. The Hamilton was badly damaged and after quelling her big load of passengers, put back to New York all safe on board.

When the two ships came together the shock was terrible, as described by Mr. and Mrs. Chas. T. Geyer and Mrs. Will T. Geyer, who were passengers on board the Hamilton, en route to Southern Pines. We are pleased to note the accident was no worse, especially when several of our most prominent people were on board one of the ships.

Neutralizing Cordial for dysentery and diarrhoea. Johnson's Pharmacy.

During these hot days we are forcibly reminded of the great need for shade trees, and would respectfully urge our people in general to plant and protect them with all possible care.

Get your line for whitewashing at Thomas' Hardware Store. First-class and cheap.

If you must go, go—but be sure you travel by the S. A. L. Splendid accommodation. Read the S. A. L. announcements in this issue.

PATCH & WILLIAMS,

A LETTER OF THANKS.

The following letter explains itself. It will be remembered that Mr. Grimm is the man referred to in these columns as being shot by our streets a few weeks ago:

Evergreen, Ala.,

June 10, 1899.

C. J. BROWN, Esq.,
Mayor Southern Pines.

Dear Sir:

I did not arrive here until yesterday, after a very hard trip, and much suffering on the way with heat.

Will you please be kind enough to let all the good people in Southern Pines know that I arrived home at last. Give them my best regards, especially Miss Strickland who so kindly interested herself in my behalf in the hour of need and distress; also Dr. W. P. Swett and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Stuart, at whose house I was till train time.

Accept, all of you, my heart felt thanks, also the thanks of my people for your kind assistance.

Yours ever thankful,

WILLIAM GRIMM.
