J. McN. JOHNSON, ATTORNEY AT LAW,

offers his services to the citizens of Southern Pines and community. Abstracts, Deeds, Contracts and all office work a specialty.

A young man wishing a scholarship in the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, on easy terms, will please let it be known to the editor of this paper.

Mr. A. McQueen has all his horses at Jackson Springs now and is doing a good stage-line business from the railroad station to the Springs.

Bug Death—sure death to potato squash and cucumber bugs; and the best of all a non poisonous powder; besides, it is a plant food of great merit and a benefit instead of an injury, to all plants. For sale by A S & L P Ruggles.

In our write up last week of Dr. VonHerff's vineyard at Manly, we should have said that the vines were supported by the THREE-WIRE Munson modified, and Knif-Tin two-wire trellis system. Another correction, in regard to the terrace ditches, we should have said five feet WIDE instead of five feet high.

Paints and oils at S. S. Thomas. Satisfactory prices and good goods.

For neat printing and popular prices this office is not equaled in this section. Our motto—live and let live, is bound to win. If you want some job printing consult with us before placing your order.

FOR SALE.—Fifty bushels mixed cow peas for seed.

A PRETTY WEDDING.

There was a pretty wedding in Emanuel Episcopal Church, Wednesday morning, the Rev. H. T. Gregory, officiating. The church was a bower of beauty, the nearby forests giving of their wealth in vines and blossoms.

The wedding march pealed forth in the sweet morning air under the skillful fingers of Mrs. Vroom of New York, a friend of the bride. A few guests awaited the auspicious moment, which arrived promptly at 8 o'clock, and with it Mrs. J. M. Raymond, of Southern Pines, seated in a handsome gown of green cloth, and the groom, Professor Alexander Rhodes of Raleigh. Mr. and Mrs. Rhodes left on the 9 o'clock train for Raleigh, accompanied by Professor Johnson of Raleigh as friends of the groom, and a witness the ceremony.
