LOCAL MENTION.

Until further notice there will be preaching service in the Baptist church every third Sunday afternoon.

Miss Alice Johnson has returned to Southern Pines from Davidson College, at Davidson, N. C., and is now busy at the Pharmacy.

A Winestine formerly of our town is ruralizing at the farm of Miss Lizzie Brown. It is reported that he is soon to open a grocery business in town again.

Thomas'; just the thing you want.
See them. *

RUNAWAYS.

The horse attached to the delivery wagon of Messrs.
Patch & Williams ran away a few days ago, and smashed things up quite seriously.
And on Tuesday afternoon while Mr. Wm. Edwards, his wife and Mrs. C. H. Emory were driving along railroad street the horses became frightened at the noise of one of the wheels sliding along the trolley track, began to run and struck the telegraph pole at the corner near Mr.
Hamlin's residence, threw them all out and smashed the carriage to pieces. Mrs. Edwards had her collar-bone broken, and Mr. Edwards was badly hurt on his head and leg; Mrs. Emory was badly shaken up though not seriously hurt.

Try it now and be convinced—Bug Death, a sure hit every time, for killing squash, cucumber and potato bugs; no poison, like Paris Green, but sure death to all insects.
A S & L P Ruggles sell it.

PROF ABBOTT DEAD.

We learn with regret the death of Prof. Wm. W. Abbott which occurred at the Bay State House, Worcester, Mass., last Friday, of Apoplexy.

From a copy of the Worcester Telegram we learn that Prof. Abbott had gone to Worcester for the purpose of looking up a place to teach, he having taught in West Stockbridge and Great Barrington several years ago.

For the past two years he had been spending his time at Southern Pines for his health, and having gained it to such a satisfactory extent, felt that he would like to return East and continue in his chosen profession.

Prof. Abbot had many friends here who will regret that death should claim him so early, his age being only 47. Many of us were under the impression that Mrs. Abbott was with him in Massachusetts, but it seems she went to Pottsville, Pa., about one month ago when they both left this place.

His remains will be buried at Whitinsville, Mass.

NOTICE.

For the next two months the following prices will be made at Dr. J. E. Judd's Dental parlor at Southern Pines, N. C.:

- Gold Fillings $1.00 up
- Silver or Amalgum 75c. to 1.00
- White " 50c.
- Gutta Percha 50c.
- Cement 75c.
- Gold Crowns $6.00 per tooth
- Richmond crowns 8.00 "
- Logan " 4.00 "
- Pivot " 4.00 "

Crown and bridge work, four teeth, $6.00. Set of teeth $8.00 to $12.00 per set.

Teeth extracted free when replaced.

I do not cut the standard of work according to price, but make the best operations that can be made as every one knows who visits my office.

This is an inducement to have you come to Southern Pines to have your dentistry done, because we know if you come once you will be my patients in the future.
This being the Summer season, when most of the northern visitors return home, I make these half rate prices to let you know there is a man in your section who can perform any operation you could get done in New York City. The difference in these and my regular prices will more than pay your expenses to Southern Pines several times. Think twice and have your dentistry done by a competent, honest man, who will do the best thing for your own good.

Yours Respectfully,
Dr. J. E. JUDD, Surgeon Dentist,
Southern Pines, N. C.

Neutralizing Cordial for dysentery and diarrhoea. Johnson's Pharmacy.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. T. Geyer, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Geyer and Master Russel Geyer, left last Sunday for New York, from thence they go to the mountains of that state in search of health and recreation for Mr. W. T. Geyer.
We miss them very much from Southern Pines though they will be absent only about ten weeks.

Quick-as-Thought Headache Powders cure headache quick as thought. Johnson's Pharmacy.

Dr. J. E. Judd has returned from Philadelphia and has reported for business; if your tooth aches he would like to see you, office over Powell's furniture store. By reference to our advertising columns it will be seen that the Doctor is offering special inducements in dentistry which fact we believe will induce more visitors to our town, who, besides patronizing the dentist, will probably spend some money at the stores and hotels.
It would seem that we have other business men here who would join in an effort to have people visit the town, especially when some good would always come of it. Have an excursion from different points along the road and offer as an inducement a basket picnic, a ball game, a gun club shoot and a special list of prices at the stores.
