LOCAL MENTION.

The new S. A. L. schedule will appear next week.

Miss Alice Johnson has returned from a very pleasant visit to Washington, D. C.

We hope to have our telephone in operation by next week, and then our friends can 'phone us the news from all sections of the city.

Our new case of perfumery is a flower garden idealized and brought to finalities.
 JOHNSON'S PHARMACY.

We are pleased to have with us again Rev. D. W. Thomas, of New York, one of our most honored visitors, and a brother of our popular hardware merchant, Mr. S. S. Thomas.

Miss Christina Snyder, from New York, who has been at Greensboro for some time, attending the State Normal College, is visiting the Misses Brown, on Page street.

Miss Breneman will recite the "Chariot Race," from Ben Hur, in a Roman costume, November 30.

Mr. E. B. Hodgin says he has raised a sweet potato weighing 7 pounds. He also had five others, their combined weight being 28 pounds thus making a total weight of 35 pounds for six sweet potatoes.

Take a glance at our new ad and stop in and see our new goods.
 THE NEWS DEPOT.

Mr. C. S. Brewer had the pleasure of entertaining Sunday evening at the Southern Pines House, his friend, Mr. W. W. McCutcheon, the Seaboard's Popular Agent at Sanford.

When in want of shoes remember Patch & Williams are headquarters for honest goods.

Mr. W. C. Damon, in writing from Franklin Falls, N. H. to renew his subscription, says: "We enjoy the paper as it comes to us with a word of our last winter friends.

We wish you all success in making a good paper for a growing town."

H. C. Frank and wife, Auburn, Me. are stopping at the Pond cottage.

Dr. C. D. Jones, of Milton, N. H. has arrived, and is enjoying quail shooting; he bagged nine Monday.

Go to Patch & Williams' for your Christmas presents.

Mr. and Mrs. Bunce and Fred Bunce arrived from Colchester, Ct, last week and will be with us during the winter.

Mrs. Trask and grandson, from Rochester, N.H., have arrived, and are stopping at the Stringer House.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Adams from Conandagua N. Y., arrived yesterday and will occupy their cottage during the Winter.

Miss Breneman will recite "Music on the Rappahannock" with piano, November 30th at Kings Daughters Hall.

Mr. J. N. Gillis has returned from Cheraw, S. C., where he has been doing contract work for the Seaboard Railway extension.

Mr. and Mrs. Culp, at Pittsburg cottage, entertained Mr. Fred Bunce Tuesday evening. Mr. Bunce, is a fine violinist and rendered some choice selections.

The Misses Howse, from Bridgeport, Ct., arrived this week and are stopping with their brother at Mrs. Grover's.

From now on we shall handle the famous "Clover Hill" brand of Butter in one pound prints, which we receive direct from creamery each week. A. S. & L. P. Ruggles.

Two Pleasant Visitors.

Miss L. S. Curtis and Mrs. Alice H. Smith, of Owego, New York, arrived Wednesday morning, and are here for the purpose of testing our climate, and for enjoying what we may have to offer in the way of attractions for winter visitors. They were attracted to Southern Pines through a friend of the editor, and by glancing at a copy of the FREE PRESS. They are stopping at the Southern Pines House, and we wish for them a pleasant and beneficial stay.

GUNS! GUNS!

If you need a gun, double or single barrel, see S. S. Thomas; he has them on hand and they are cheap.
