MRS. A. M. FOSTER,
Southern Pines,
Bennett Street. N. C.

Mr. Wm. T. Geyer has gone to New York to be absent for several weeks.

Rev. H. T. Gregory goes to Pinehurst every Sunday afternoon to hold services.

Take a glance at our new ad and stop in and see our new goods.
THE NEWS DEPOT.

A nice row of cedar trees has been planted along either side of the railroad track near the depot. Mr. Elliott brought them up from South Carolina, and is superintending the work.

The very best, and yet the cheapest, Extract of Malt ever sold in this town, at the Southern Pines Pharmacy.

Rev. Dr. D. W. Thomas, of New York, has purchased, through an ad in the FREE PRESS, the 8-room cottage of E. B. Hodgin, and has also bought the Gillis cottage near Hamlin & Co's mill. Dr. Thomas owns the only brick block in the town, which is occupied by his brother, S. S. Thomas, and we are pleased to know that he is showing his confidence in Southern Pines by making frequent purchases of real estate.

When in want of shoes remember Patch & Williams are headquarters for honest goods.

mas holidays by the Seaboard Air Line, December 22nd, 23rd, 25th, 25th, also December 30th and 31st 1899, and January 1st, 1900, good until January 4th, inclusive.

Mr. Truman Carr of New York died at the Prospect House on the 7th inst., of consumption.

Calendars, Diaries, and Christmas Cards, all new, at the News Depot. Call and see them.

A prominent citizen of our town suggested the idea this week that the subject of a bicycle path between Southern Pines and Carthage be taken up and pushed to completion without delay. It would be a source of pleasure to many people and even afford an opportunity of business for some. Such a highway would not only put us in a more direct communication with the county seat, but afford many of our visitors a chance to see Carthage.

If you haven't time to visit our office, phone us your wants; we'll send a man to take subscriptions, ads, or orders for job printing.

Miss Kate S. Curtis and Mrs Alice H. Smith have gone to Pinehurst for a stay of some time, after spending several weeks at the Southern Pines House.

Nunnally's Fine Candies fresh by express, at Joason's Pharmacy.

Dr. E. P. Stuart, mentioned last week as a visitor to our town, left for his home in Penn Yan, N. Y. last Tuesday; he will probably return in February.

Dr. J. H. Jones, a homeopathic physician of Bradford Vt. who was here last year, intends to return soon, and will open an office.

The first killing frost of the season occurred December 3.
Until that time geraniums and Salvia remained blossoming freely in the open ground.

The Ladies' Aid Society met Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Foster.

Kings Daughters meet next week in their Hall at three o'clock.

Mr W. H. Carter, of the "Old Dominion," who has been at the Inn, returned to his home Friday. He thinks that Southern Pines is the one spot on earth for a short vacation.

Mr. L. E. Edgecombe of New York and H. S. Robinson of Baltimore, at present in the lumber business with headquarters at Aberdeen, spent Sunday with friends at the Piney Woods Inn.

Mr. and Mrs J. C. Foster, of Boston, are at the Inn for the winter. Mr. Foster is well-known in this section, having sold a large amount of lumber machinery at Aberdeen and other nearby points.
