SHORT LOCAL MENTION.

Mr. John Shaw is attending the closing exercises of Buies Creek Academy this week.

We have two gramophones for sale; apply at this office and get one on your own terms

Mr. W. H. Giles has gone to New Briton, Ct., after spending the winter with his son, Mr. W. E. Giles, at the Southern Pines House.

Do you use Formaldehyd for disinfecting your rooms? If you do it is well done. Ask about it at Johnson's Pharmacy.

Prof. S. P. Elliott, of Reynoldsville, Pa., passed through here Thursday evening en route to Wadesboro where he will set up his own instruments for observing the eclipse next Monday. He has a 7 inch telescope.

Mr. H. E. Miles, in company with his father, left Tuesday night for New Hampshire, after spending the winter with the Southern Pines people. They were altogether pleased with their trip, and made many friends while here.

Mr. I. L. Hamlin, of the firm of I. L. Hamlin & Co., has been taking in the Charlotte Gala Week. Dr. G. H. Sadelson, of the Southern Pines Pharmacy also took advantage of the liberal railroad fare to visit Charlotte and look after business matters.

Mrs. Sarah Foster Greene, who has been visiting her mother Mrs. A. M. Foster, left Monday for Andover, Mass., to spend the summer. Mrs. Greene has a very pleasant home in Brooklyn, but prefers to go further east for the summer.

Attention is called to the new and special ad of Mess. Ordway & Co., in this issue; they are offering a splendid line of goods and will sell them so cheap that you can hardly refuse to buy. Call at their store opposite the new depot.

Registered at the Southern Pines Hotel are J. B. Batchlor, Raleigh, J. L. Poplin, Fayetteville, and Mrs. A. E. Blunck and son, Johnstown, N. Y. At present every room in the Southern Pines Hotel is engaged and manager Giles is enjoying a good season.

J. C. Kennedy, Roanoke, Tenn. says, 'I cannot say too much for DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. One box of it cured what the doctors called an incurable ulcer on my jaw.' Cures piles and all skin diseases. Look out for worthless imitations. Johnson's Pharmacy.

We refer you to the card of Mr. E. G. Couch, one of our most reliable young men, who is offering to furnish you with the latest and most improved system of electric bells. He is also amply prepared for all kinds of light repairing and will be pleased to consult with you if you need things mended. Call on him next door to News depot.

A perfect disinfectant, easily applied, comparatively inexpensive. That is Formaldehyd. Ask to see how it works. Johnson's Pharmacy.

A prominent Astroncnical party will arrive to-day from Boston and the following have been appointed a committee to meet them and show them proper courtesy: Mayor Gladmon, E. D. Oslin, H. L. Thurston, R. E. Geyer, Dr. W. P. Swett, W. F. Junge and S. S. Thomas.

The Misses Brown, Miss Wilcox, Miss Smith, and Messrs. E. G. Couch and C. L. Morehouse of the Literary Club, went to Pinehurst Thursday evening and through the courtesy of Prof. A. N. Skinner, of the Naval observatory, were permitted to look through the big telescopes.

One of the very busy institutions at Southern Pines just now is the crate factory of our good friend Mr. I. F. Chandler. Berry, grape and peach crates are in great demand, and as every body is going to have a good crop of all fruits, Mr. Chandler will necessarily have to hustle to fill all orders.

"DeWitt's Little Early Risers are the finest pills I ever used." D. J. Moore, Millbrook, Ala. They quickly cure all liver and bowel troubles.

Johnson's Pharmacy.

Mr. J. M. Tyson will begin taking the census June 1, and you might as well begin making up your minds to answer all sorts of questions. If you get married the first day of June you will have to be single for 10 years more—according to the census report.

A pleasant call Thursday from Mrs. A. E. Blunck and son, of Johnstown, N. Y., who were taking a peep at our section of country. Mrs. Blunck is the wife of A. E. Blunck proprietor of the Republican, daily, and Fulton County Republican, weekly, at Johnstown, and will go as far as Atlanta on her southern trip.

Messrs. W. D. Bruhn and C. L. Hayes are out at Thaggard's Mill, and the fish are all out of the pond—by this time. We have been promised accurate weights of the largest ones caught, and no "stretching the blanket" about those getting away, and as friend Hayes says the bait will all come out of a tin can, we have hopes of being able to state the true facts in the case in our next issue.

Spring cleaning and perfect disinfecting—now is the time. Formaldehyd is what you want. Literature on the subject may be had for the asking at Johnson's Pharmacy

Miss Ida J. Brown, professor of English, at Shaw University, Raleigh, whose home is in Bangor, Maine, visited with Rev. and Mrs. C. M. Emory this week. Miss Charlotte Murray, Matron of Estey Seminary, Shaw University, has also been with Mr. and Mrs. Emory this week, besides visiting Carthage and Jackson Springs

FOR SHERIFE.

I most respectfully announce myself a candidate for the office of sheriff of Moore county, subject to the action of the Democratic primaries and county convention.

Very Truly, A. C. CAMPBELL.

K. OF P. LODGE NO. 108

The first anniversary of the above lodge was celebrated at the Southern Pines Hotel last evening by a very well attended banquet, and at 9 o'clock the spacious dining parlors were thrown open to about 60 guests. Supper served, Mayor Gladmon as Toast Master, called for toast.

No. 1. Southern Pines Lodge No. 108—Dr. Judd,

No. 2. Music—Mrs. Weaver and Miss Kenerson.

No. 3. One year of Pythianism in Southern Pines—C. L. Hayes.

No. 4. A good thing—H. O. Parker

No. 5. The Ladies—M. J. Torbert.

No. 6. Our visiting Brethren—

J. McN Johnson of Aberdeen.

No. 7. Aberdeen Lodge—Editor

J. W. Fagan.

No. 8. Steenth Ward—H. L. Thurston.

No. 9. The Press—E. D. Oslin.

We believe the Pythians enjoyed this celebration to an unusual degree and their friends were happy in the fact that they were so fortunate as to be present on such an occasion. While not wishing to detract from any of the laurels won by the rapidly developing orators of Southern Pines, we believe that Dr. Judd, C. L. Hayes, H. O. Parker and Lawyer Johnson have stepped up several rounds upon the ladder of fame, and are holding beacon-lights to the rest of us who are clamoring for exaltation in oratorical eloquence.

Mr. Elliott being absent friend Thurston has robbed him of his 'Steenth ward fame for the time being—and as a competitor has gained a position worthy of special note.

Manager Giles and wife did themselves credit in making perfect preparations for the banquet—carrying out every detail to perfection. Dancing was commenced at 11 o'clock and continued for some time. Mrs. Weaver and Miss Kenerson are entitled to a vote of thanks for some good music so kindly furnished.
