The charming young ladies of the O. G. S., entertained a number of their young gentlemen friends Tuesday night at the residence of Dr. G. H. Sadelson. Good molasses candy, pulled each to his, or her, own liking, lent sweetness to the event, and everyone reports a very pleasant evening.

Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Jones, and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Leavitt, of Bradford, Vt., arrived Tuesday night. The many friends of the genial Doctor and his wife are glad to welcome them. Mr. and Mrs. Leavitt will stop with their son, Eugene Leavitt and Dr. and Mrs. Jones will have the Glenwood cottage.

CARD OF THANKS.

I wish to express my sincere thanks to the people of Southern Pines and Pinehurst, for their many kindnesses and special attention during the last illness of my wife. Such remembrances will ever be appreciated.

Very Truly, M. McKINNON.

Thanksgiving Day was a quiet one in Southern Pines, and nearly every one had turkey and cranberries. One of our market men, Mr. D. P. Kelly, says he handled 63 turkeys, besides lots of other good things for a Thanksgiving Dinner, which fact convinces us that no one was able to starve to death, at least for 24 hours. We publish elsewhere the bill of fare at the Southern Pines hotel, and as we had the pleasure of reading it at the proper time, we can say positively that its type told the truth and that the thirty eight guests at this hotel were filled with a good dinner. Please read the menu card elsewhere and see the list.

Miss Brown and Mr. Maffet, of Delta, Pa., arrived last evening. Miss Brown will act as cashier for C. T. Patch & Bro., and Mr. Maffet comes for his health.

There is no pleasure in life if you dread going to the table to eat and can't rest at night on account of indigestion. Henry Williams, of Boonville, Ind., says he suffered that way for years, till he commenced the use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure and adds, "Now I can eat anything I like and all I want and sleep soundly every night." Kodol Dyspepsia Cure will digest what you eat Johnsons Pharmacy
