Mrs. M. C. Gates, of Albany, N. Y. is spending sometime in Southern Pines.

Stanley G. Fowler, of Salamagundi, Portsmouth, arrived in town this morning.

Mr. Frank Wheeler, of Boston, and Mr. Doharty of Waterbury, Conn are enjoying the season with us and find very good sport in the field.

Mr. G. F. Fisk, of Comer, N. Y., who received so much benefit with us last winter has arrived for the season. He is accompanied by Mr. Hill, of Newfane, N. Y. who is making his first visit South.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Reynolds, of Stockbridge, N. H., are with us again for the season. Mr. Reynolds had charge of the Prospect House last winter and is also owner of a very handsome building adjoining the News Depot.

Mr. & Mrs. William St. John Blanchard of Washington, D. C. have been spending a few days of their honeymoon with his brother Mr. H. R. Blanchard at the home of the bride's cousin Mr. C. D. Tarbell.

Mr. G. A. Kimball and wife, who have just returned from Mexico, have taken the Kingston Cottage, for the season. Mr. Kimball spent last winter at Southern Pines, though in August went to Mexico. He is from Newburyport, Mass., and after seeing other places decides that Southern Pines is the best of all.

A pleasant party of friends composed of Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Patch, Mrs. and Miss Ware, Mrs. C. S. Brewer, and Mess. J. L. Thompson and M. J. Torbert, assembled at the home of Capt. and Mrs. A. M. Clarke Tuesday evening to listen to some splendid music by Mrs. Joe Person, of Kittrell; N. C. who with her daughter Miss Joe Person, is spending sometime with us.

Mess. R. Evans, of Carnegie, and B. F. Watkins, of Johnstown, Pa., have been with us some weeks. They have decided to visit our Southern section after looking over California and other parts of the world for a good place to spend the winter. We are in hopes they may be pleased and their stay prolonged.

"Unrequited," a beautiful piece of music with words, will be given to the first young lady who sends us two subscriptions 3 months to the FREE PRESS.

SHORT LOCAL MENTION.

The Peoples' Cash Grocery has a new sign.

"Under the Mistletoe"—Read C. T. Patch & Bros'. ad.

See the fine line of Seelys Perfumes at Johnsons Pharmacy before buying your Christmas presents.

If our town readers will all send us a local news item we shall be able to have more local mentions.

Are you puzzled as to what to get for that Christmas present? Take a glance at our Xmas stock.

THE NEWS DEPOT.

Mr. A. P. Maddox an experienced printer and newspaper man from Bryson, City N. C. has accepted a position with the FREE PRESS. He will have charge of the inside work and we want the business public to call on him.

We are in hopes the bad members of the colored race will not soon repeat their rowdyisms of last Saturday evening; it is objectionable to good people and might possibly cause trouble sometime in the future.

Mr. H. A. Hart proprietor of the Southern Plumbing & Heating Co. at Raleigh, is in the city with headquarters at the Southern Pines Hotel, where he will be pleased to see those in need of plumbing, sewerage, etc. Will gladly furnish estimates and makes contracts for any work along those lines.

The first firm to occupy one whole page of the FREE PRESS is the enterprising firm of Ordway & Co., Southern Pines, who to-day announce their great opening sale of holiday goods. It will pay to investigate their prices and see what they have in stock before you make your purchases for the closing days of the year, and to wait on you you will find Mess. Fred and Edward Weaver, who thoroughly understand how suit you in their line of goods.

The most tasteful decorations and the prettiest windows in town can be seen at the News Depot, where you will find so many Christmas presents that you will hardly be able to make a choice. Just why those windows look so nice and so beautiful can easily be conjectured for Mrs. C. L. Hayes is supreme boss of the window decorations; at the same time our reporter is afraid to let it go at that and gladly remark that she has the valuable assistance of Miss Maggie Blue.

Notice—See News Depot.

Capt. A. M. Clarke returned Wednesday night from a business visit to Mt. Holly, N. C. He has been looking after some land matters in connection with some some Pennsylvania capitalists, and also looking after some fancy poultry purchases. He brought home with him one hundred chicks, consisting of light Brahmas, silver-laced Wyandottes, Buff Cochins, Brown Leghorns, the Essex strain of Barred Rocks, and black, white and Buff Cochin Bantams. Captain Clark has an extensive hennery over in Clarketown, and is giving the industry special attention.
