Miss Dorathea Junge, after spending nearly two years in New York, is with her parents again, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Junge.

Mr. Wm. Cummings, of Monroeton, son-in-law to Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Huffines, with his wife and baby spent Xmas in Southern Pines.

Mr. A. L. Couch has gone to Pinehurst where he has a business position for the season. He is a good reliable young man and deserves to succeed.

Mrs. Mary Cabb, of Portland, Me., who owns some valuable property on Pennsylvania avenue, is in town stopping with Mr. and Mrs. I. L. Hamlin.

Prof H C Schultz, of New York, is with us again. He had charge of our public school last winter, and his friends are pleased to see him once more.

Mrs. A. P. Maddox and her sister, Miss Lillie Millsaps, arrived Sunday evening. Mr. Maddox has engaged the Smith Cottage and has come to abide permanently.

Mr. Mrs. J. S. Reynolds have gone to Rockledge, Fla. for the season. His brother Mr. George Reynolds arrived here yesterday morning and will spend this season at Pinehurst.

A pleasant call this morning from Bro. W. H. McNeill of the Carthage Blade. Besides serving the public with a weekly newspaper Bro. Mac has branched out as a hotel proprietor, and has opened the Summit hotel for the season. Read his ad and if you go to Carthage stop and see him.

Mr. J. L. Packer, of Ceruing, New York, is with us again for his fourth season. He has visited California, Colorado, and other places, but thinks this is for the best climate. His many friends are pleased to see him.

Mr. Orlando White, with his wife, daughter and son, arrived Thursday evening and are now occupying the Baily Cottage. Mr. White is editor and owner of the Cattaraugus N. Y. Times and spent last winter with us.

Mr. E. M. Hayes after spending sometime in California, has decided that it would be nice to have a home at Southern Pines and will erect a residence immediately adjoining the handsome property of Mrs. T. A. Catlin, on New York avenue.

Mess. W. S. Russell and W. H. O'Brien, of Boston, are spending the season with us. Mr. Russell was in very bad health when he came, but is now able to be up and out every day. He is much pleased with our climate and is very glad that he came. Mr. O'Brien is also much improved in health.

EDGERTON BROS.

If you want to get the best results from our pure air and sunshine you should take a horseback ride or a drive out through the pines every day. There is no better exercise than Horseback riding. We will give you special discount if you take a horse every day. We have lots of good saddlers and drivers, at the Big Red Stable.

Mr. A. A. Chaplain, after a lingering illness died at the Vermont House yesterday afternoon. Mr. Chaplain came to us from Vermont last December and had engaged in the market business the present season. Mrs. Chaplain will take the remains North in about a week and after she has closed out his business affairs; she has many friends who sympathize with her in her bereavement.

Preparations are being made for a convention of physicians and surgeons on February 24, next, to be held in Southern Pines. This convention brings some very prominent people to see us from the North and East, and will be a good advertisement.

DIED

At his home on Bennett street, Thursday morning Jan 3, Mr. Wm. T. Geyer, after an illness of several months. For the past two years Mr. Geyer has been a member of the banking firm of Charles T. Geyer & Sons, and one of our most prominent citizens. He was taken sick about two years ago, and since that time has had every care and attention known to medical skill, both here and at his home in Brooklyn, N. Y., but to no avail, and, surrounded by his family, death came gently, peacefully, after much sufferings. Mr. Geyer was 26 years of age and besides the bereaved parents and one brother, leaves a wife and two small children, to mourn his demise.

Very impressive funeral services were held with the family and friends by the Rev. Mr. Gregory this afternoon at 3 o'clock, and at 10:30 this evening his mother and father will leave for Brooklyn, N. Y., with the remains, where the burial service of the Episcopal church will be said at St. Luke's church. Interment to be in the family lot in Greenwood cemetery.

Mr. William Moncure, assistant superintendent of the S. A. L. was in this morning and has given orders for putting in city water at the passenger station.

LOST. A Soldiers 'Discharge,' and other papers. Finder will please mail to or leave them with Editor FREE PRESS and get the reward.
