Lock Box 82.

At a meeting of the fruit growers Wednesday at the office of Dr. Swett, several members of the railroad and refrigerator car companies were present. We understand that the transportation companies have agreed to give us a lower rate on peaches than that of last year, and that there is a probability of a lower rate on grapes. The question of rates is one of prime importance to the growers of fruits in this section and we are in hopes the transportation companies will favor us all they can.

Take a look at Dr. Swett's cottage and surroundings if you wish to see how nice a nice place looks. Foliage enough to convince any one that the cry of no growth in our sand is silly and absurd.
