THE BEST LINIMENT FOR STRAINS.

Mr. F. H. Wells, the merchant at Deer Park, Long Island, N. Y., says: "I always recommend Chamberlain's Pain Balm as the best liniment for strains. I used it last winter for a severe lameness in the side, resulting from a strain, and was greatly pleased with the quick relief and cure it effected." For sale by Johnsons Pharmacy

E. D. Barlow and wife have returned to their summer home, Watertown, Conn., after spending the winter with us. Mr. Barlow has superintended the building of Mrs. Cavilleer's very pretty cottage on Ashe street now known as Mount Vernon. This portion of our town was what one would call the woods, when Mr. Barlow first began to lay the foundation for this very desirable and well planned building and now there are several other cottages in the same neighborhood. He has become so well pleased with Southern Pines that he has purchased a lot for himself at the corner of Ash street and Vermont avenue, and will return in early fall to build for a winter home. Mr. Barlow says he will have none but good words for Southern Pines while north and will probably bring some of his friends with him on the return trip.

Unless exterminated to some extent rag-weed, sand-spurs and dogs will make life insurance policies considerably higher in this town. For more than one citizen has wished for Dewey's fleet and Schley's courage during the past two weeks. To sleep at night is an impossibility, and to get relief you must take your "stand" and get a shot at the most worthless set of midnight prowlers that ever infested any town, as they take in every street, avenue, nook and corner. Dog! well, wouldn't it please you if we had a sausage factory and all the dogs were fat?
