A. L. MCINTOSH,

Our present efficient Register of Deeds for Moore county, is a candidate for re-election. His prompt attention to his duties and his courteous treatment to the people of the county have satisfied them, and they see no good reason in changing for another man.

E. P. SEAWELL,

The present County Treasurer, is a candidate for re-election, and wishes it so stated. He has served the county faithfully and as a guardian of the public funds has proven true to his charge. Mr. Seawell promises to be as faithful in the future as he has been in the past, and respectfully asks for your support.

FOR SHERIFF.

Mr. Alex Turner, of Cameron, will be before the County Democratic Convention for the nomination for the Sheriff's office. His integrity, his fidelity to the party, his ability to perform well the duties of the office, his obliging disposition, all combine to make him as meritorious as any candidate whose name could be presented to the convention. His faithful party service as well as high fitness for the place is well known to the people of this county.

FOR COUNTY TREASURER.

I am a candidate for election to the office of Treasurer of Moore county, subject to the action of the Democratic County Convention.

D. McNEILL.

Mrs. J. W. Newhouse has gone to St. Louis, to be with her daughter who is very ill.

DR. J. ERNEST JUDD, DENTIST,

LOCAL MENTION.

G. L. Edgerton, of Raeford, was with us some days this week.

Dr. Edwin Gladmon made a short visit to Raleigh last Monday.

Daniel McNeill, of Vass, who is a candidate for County Treasurer, made us a call Tuesday. His announcement appears in this paper.

Col. Alonzo Stryker, well known to thousands of people who have visited the Piney Woods Inn, is now at Port Jervis New York.

Paint if you will, paint if you want to, paint if you must, but if you are going to paint see W. T. Tyson, as he can furnish you all kinds of paint.

Mrs. Hughes and her sister, Miss Simmons, from Glenwood, arrived last Monday, and are now comfortably located in the Thomas cottage on Bennett Street.

A. A. Turner, of Cameron, is in town today and made our office a pleasant call. He is in the race for the nomination for Sheriff, and has a card to that effect in today's paper.

E. B. Hodgins, who has been with R. W. Caviness at the Van Lindley Farm for several weeks, has returned to his home at Greensboro. Mr. Hodgins always enjoys his summer visits to our section and is much interested in our fruit industry.

J. L. Thompson has resigned his position with the Weather Bureau at Raleigh and will return to Southern Pines. Mrs. Thompson, who is now in Massachusetts, will come very soon, and together they will be content to abide with us henceforth.

Our reporter has failed to note the departure of Mrs. H. O. Parker and Master Charlie, who have gone to Atlantic Beach, Mass., for the remainder of the summer; also the departure of Mrs. Dr. Harry MacKnight, who has gone to Dillsboro, Ind., to remain till November.

Col. Charles Armour Thomas, of refrigerator car fame and also of Hamlet, N. C., will soon be with us to refrigerate our grapes and otherwise make us merry with his genial smiles and witty conversation. While Mr. Thomas has been at Hamlet the Hon. John T. Scarboro has successfully refrigerated the latter end of a portion of the peach crop.

WANTS A NEW DEPOT.—Pinehurst people are endeavoring to get the Seaboard Air Line to furnish them a little more accommodation for handling freight, and have asked the management to build a new warehouse between the trolley and railway tracks. A petition has also been signed by the business men of this place asking that in connection with Pinehurst the building be of sufficient size and convenience to do away with the old depot we now have and use one for the two places.

Fruit shipments this week have amounted to 1,511 crates, including cantaloupes. The late peach crop and the grapes will begin to go forward in large quantities by the latter part of next week and continue for three or four weeks longer.

D. I. Carson, of Pellam Manor, N. Y., who was with us this week, made a trip to Atlanta, returning yesterday. Mr. Carson is much pleased with fruit prospects and present day results, and says he is glad that a San Jose scale-destroyer has been discovered—as noted elsewhere in this paper.

The enforcement of the town ordinance forbidding freight trains to block the street crossings, will induce train employes to be careful. Conductor on freight train No. 5 was arrested Monday for allowing his train to remain too long in one place, but as it was his first offense he was discharged on payment of costs, $1.90.

At the morning service, which has been changed to 10 o'clock instead of 10:30 as heretofore, Rev. Mente will speak from Isa. 1:2, and there will be no preaching service at night during the warm months. The young people's service will be at 7:30 in the evening, and the subject for Thursday night prayer service will be Luke 22:31.

DIED—After an illness of 12 months Mrs. J. T. Scarboro died this morning, aged 43. She will be buried at Pethesda to-morrow afternoon, with funeral services by Rev. Mr. Haney. Mrs. Scarboro was married 22 years ago, and was the mother of seven children, all surviving her but one. Her aunt, Mrs. Jones, from Raeford, and her brother, D. W. McMillan from Carthage, were with her in her last hours, and we understand through her long affliction she has borne up with patience and fortitude.
