If you want to see a bottled flower garden of chemical fragrance, look at the beautiful perfumery display at Johnson's Pharmacy.

The Rev. D. W. Thomas, of Richmond, Va. is here to look after his cottages and to visit his brother, S. S.
Thomas.

Interesting Thanksgiving services were held at the Baptist church last evening, and an unusually interesting prayer service at the Congregational church.

We commend the many boarding houses and hotels advertised in these columns to those wishing to get good accommodations, and can endorse the people who have them in charge.

Miss Pauline Baptist, of Boydton, Va., has been at the Southern Pines Sanitarium for some time, and is much pleased with her treatment; her sister, Mrs. Moss, who accompanied her, has returned to her home in S.
Boston, Va.

A Fountain Pen makes a very acceptable and appropriate Christmas present, but don't give away a useless one. Buy a Century and you get one that is guaranteed satisfactory. First man on the spot gets the pick. Johnson's Pharmacy.

Those splendid menu cards for the Southern Pines Hotel and Piney Woods Inn, showing a beautiful supply of good things for their Thanksgiving dinners, were furnished from this office. No one could complain, who had the price, and could reach either one of these dinner menus.

A wonderful turtle, having seven feet, is on exhibition at Wells' jewelry store. It will pay you to call and see him.

In spite of the fact that our worthy friend, Col. Alonzo Stryker, has been with us sometime, we have failed to mention it. He is occupying his usual place behind the big register at the Piney Woods Inn, and will see that you are properly taken care of if you get your name on his book.
