Dr. C. D. Jones has arrived for the winter, and will be located at Pinehurst same as last season.

The three Misses DeBerry are here from Oakland, Md. They are stopping at the Pleasant View Cottage.

Mr. E. M. Madden, of Scranton, Pa., is a pleasant visitor with us; he is prospecting with a view to locating with us.

F. W. Van Camp of Thousand Island Park, New York, is with us again for the season, and will have charge of the Southern Pines Studio.

We have received one half ton of stationery in the past ten days. We buy in quantity and our prices are low accordingly. The News Depot

Miss Estelle Dudley of New York City will give lessons in scientific and correct breathing during the winter at Piney View Cottage, New York Ave.

Miss Shay's dancing class for adults will open Monday evening at 8-15 Nov. 16, 1903 at Clarke's Hall. Private lessons at her home on Vermont Ave. afternoon and evening.

Hayes & Thomas have just received a complete line of Wools, Saxony, Germantown, Shetland and Floss—Shetland Wool, Golf and Knitting Wool in all leading shades.

GATES COTTAGES,

The Belts and Girdles at Hayes & Thomas' are the very latest.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Foster of Andover, Mass. are the guests of Mrs. A. M. Foster on Bennett St.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Stanley Stanley have arrived from Newburyport, Mass and are ready for the season's business.

Rev. Alfred A. Ellsworth, the new minister for the Congregational church has arrived. Mrs. Ellsworth accompanies him. He will preach his first sermon Sunday morning at 11 o'clock

Rev. W. B. Cottle of Lubec, Me. with Mrs. Cottle, arrived yesterday morning. They have spent the past seasons with us and appear to be glad to make their annual tour to the sand hill sections.

Judge Locey is making his large and comfortable building on Pennsylvania Ave. look like a brand new one. It is newly painted and touched up to catch the eye of the numerous visitors now coming to our town.

W. S. Percival has arrived from New York to superintend the putting in of something over 5,000 grape vines in Miss Brown's Vineyard near town. He has his left hand coin pocket in a "sling"—he put his odds on Low's plurality in Brooklyn—and lo! the thing didn't work.

We had a pleasant meeting this week with Mr. J. J. Farrey of New York, who with his wife is pleasantly located at the Mount Vernon House. Mrs. Farrey was formerly Miss Lehman, who spent last season with us and the Free Press joins with their many friends in wishing the young couple much success.

Geo. A. Leford, representing H. E. Bucklen & Co. Chicago, made his annual visit to our town yesterday. He is the best known traveling man on the road, and if he has an enemy, he has never been heard from. Mr. Leford is a welcome visitor to thousands of newspapers in the Southern states, and the Bucklen checks are appreciated.
