LOCAL MENTION.

Mass will be said at St. Anthony's Catholic church next Sunday morning at 10:30.

Mr. J. H. Bickford, of New Hampshire and his neice, Mrs. Addie S. Young of Boston, are with us stopping at the Vermont House.

A pleasant and prominent member of the Reading, Pa., colony is here in the person of Mr. D Rhoads. He is the guest of Mrs E B. Hill.

LOOK AT the Ice House for a fine lot of hard wood, which is for sale. Apply to J. T. Scarboro.

Dr. Kugler, a well-known visitor to Southern Pines, had the misfortune to loose his residence and its contents destroyed by fire at Fayetteville, N. C., last Monday. Dr. Kugler came to Southern Pines from Pennsylvania but finally decided to locate at Fayetteville. He has the sympathy of many friends in his loss.

Mr. I C. Edgerton is enjoying a visit from his cousin, Mr. H. L. Moore, of Lebanon, Ind. The old saying "its a long time before meeting" holds good in this case as this is the first time these two gentlemen ever saw each other, although second consins. We hope Mr. Moore will enjoy his visit.

Dr. Lape and his sister, Miss Elizabeth, from New York, are late arrivals at Grove Cottage.

The Southern Pines Hotel will have its annual masquerade ball Feb. 15th. Prizes will be given, one for the best ladies costume and one for the best gentleman, also; one each for the most comical. Admission free, and no one allowed on the floor until after unmasking. Grand march 8.30

LOST.—One weather report ending Feb. 4th, 1904. The sum of 0001 will be paid for its return to No. 31 degrees, 876 Broad street.

Bureaus of information are sometimes so inaccurate that other sources of information are really necessary. If you wish to get an accurate statement of the time for arrival and departure of trains for Southern Pines, you will have to get it out of the Free Press. See correct time card in another column.

Mrs. G. D. Hull, of Asheville, is visiting her father, P. P. Whitehouse. She is just recovering from typhoid fever and expects to stay through the season here, where the climate is milder than that of the mountain region. They have taken rooms at the Acadia cottage on Bennett street.

Mr. and Mrs. Patterson, of New Jersey, are guests at the Glenn View Cottage.

Flag Euchre.

The Flag Euchre Party given at the Southern Pines Hotel, Feb. 2 was well attended; there were about one-hundred people interested in the games of euchre and whist, and all voted it a complete success. The sum of $100 was realized for the benefit of St. Anthony's Catholic Church.

The following were the winners of prizes:

1. Capt and Mrs. A M Clarke, Mrs R F Elliott and Mrs B H Butler.

2 F W VanCamp, Mrs S Stringer, Mrs Evans, George Johnson, Mr and Mrs T A Matternson, Dr and Mrs J E Judd, Mrs N F Wilson, Mr and Mrs W H Mahoney.

3. Mrs F P Schwartz, Mrs Charles T Geyer, Mr and Mrs G T Bacon, Mr and Mrs J L Thompson, Mrs D P Rhoads, Miss Elizabeth Lape, R E Geyer, W S Percival, Mrs J H Ferris, E D Oslin.

The whist tables in charge of D F McAdams were interesting and properly looked after. Prize winners were: H C Flint, 1st, Mr Ward, 2d, Mrs H C Flint, 3rd, H Weber, 4th, Mr Murphy, 5th, and H Kapitzke, 6th.

The prizes were very nice and appropriate, and were well worth the spirited contest exhibited among the players. At the end of the games light refreshments were served and a social hour greatly enjoyed. The success of this, the second occasion of this kind, is due to the systematic directions of Mrs. F. P. Schwartz.

James McCall, colored, has the sympathy of many friends in the loss of his 3-year old baby, who was burned to death at Manly last Tuesday. He was standing by the fire when his clothing caught on fire and despite the efforts of two other children to extinguish the flames, he was burned to death.

The following persons are regis at the Prospect House: H. G. Brown, Greensboro, N. C; K. L. Reed and daughter, Washington, D. C. R. M. Dunham and son, Sheffield, Pa; T. D. Whitaker, N. C; Miss T M. Layton, Washington D. C; W. L. Wood and wife West boro, Mass; R. H. Hill, Lynchburg, Va.

The second party of the Ten-of-Us Club given at the Southern Pines Hotel last evening was a most pronounced success. A large number were present, the music was good, and the ladies in their handsome gowns made the scene a very enchanting one.

A cake walk is to be given at the Southern Pines Opera House Saturday night, February 6.

C. E. Peck has been succeeded as station agent for Southern Pines by Mr. O A. Hazzard, of Hamlet.

MASONIC RECEPTION.

According to announcement the Masons entertained their friends and visiting brethren at their hall on Broad street last Wednesday evening and showed them their new and costly furnishings. It is a source of pride to the Masons and their friends that such a neat and well arranged place for meeting can be seen here, and certainly there are few lodges in the state which could make a better showing. After inspecting the lodge the crowd was invited to King's Daughters Hall, where Chairman Jones of the committee of arrangements had prepared a neat and attractive program for entertainment, together with a splendid luncheon of coffee, cake, rackets, sandwiches, and a fourth of a pound of good candy for every one present. The male quartet was in splendid order and sang to the great pleasure of their friends, while Mrs. Kebbon rendered some excellent solos on the piano. Mrs. J. N. Powell delighted those present with two splendid vocal solos. Many patriotic songs joined in by all present, closed the exercises, all feeling that as a social reception it had proven a success.

A new telephone, No. 69, is added to the list and reaches into the Barber shop of H. D. Black. Mr. Black will take your order for anything to be done in his line.
